Amending Executive Order No. 11861,¹ as Amended, Placing Certain Positions in Levels IV and V of the Executive Schedule

By virtue of the authority vested in me by section 5317 of title 5 of the United States Code, and as President of the United States of America, section 2 of Executive Order No. 11861 of May 21, 1975, as amended, placing certain positions in level V of the Executive Schedule, is further amended by deleting "(1) Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense (Comptroller), Department of Defense." and inserting in lieu thereof "(1) Defense Representative, Iran, Department of Defense."

rules and regulations

This section of the FEDERAL REGISTER contains regulatory documents having general applicability and legal effect most of which are keyed to and codified in the Code of Federal Regulations, which is published under 50 titles pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 1510.

The Code of Federal Regulations is sold by the Superintendent of Documents. Prices of new books are listed in the first FEDERAL REGISTER issue of each month.

Title 7—Agriculture

SUBTITLE A—OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE

PART 6—IMPORT QUOTAS AND FEES

Price Determination for Certain Cheese

The subpart, Section 22 Import Quotas, is amended to change the price, determined by the Secretary of Agriculture in accordance with headnote 3(a) (v) of Part 3 of the Appendix to the Tariff Schedules of the United States, which is used as a basis for establishing import restrictions under Section 22 on certain cheese. The change from 86 to 92 cents per pound is required since one of the factors used in determining such price (the Commodity Credit Corporation purchase price for Cheddar cheese under the milk price support program) has been increased.

The subpart, Section 22 Import Quotas, of Part 6, Subtitle A of Title 7, is amended as follows:

1. Section 6.16, under the heading "Price Determination for Certain Quotas", is amended to read as follows:

§ 6.16 Price Determination.

The price referred to in items 950.10B through 950.10E of Part 3 of the Appendix to the Tariff Schedules, determined by the Secretary of Agriculture in accordance with headnote 3(a) (v) of said Part 3, is 92 cents per pound. This price shall continue in effect until changed by amendment of this section.

2. Group V of Appendix 1, under the heading "Licensing Regulations", is amended by changing the description appearing immediately below "Group V" to read as follows:

Cheese described below, if shipped otherwise than in pursuance to a purchase, or if having a purchase price^a under 92 cents per pound.

The foregoing amendment shall be effective October 16, 1975. In accordance with headnote 3(a) (v) of Part 3 of the Appendix to the Tariff Schedules of the United States, the change in price effected by this amendment would not make the import restrictions contained in items 950.10B through 950.10E of Part 3 of the Appendix to the Tariff Schedules of the United States applicable to cheese having a purchase price of 86 or more cents per pound if such cheese had been exported to the United States on a through bill of lading or had been placed in bonded warehouse on or before the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of this amendment. Since the action taken herewith involves foreign affairs functions of the United States, this amendment falls within the foreign affairs exception to the notice and effective date provisions of 5 U.S.C. 553.

(Sec. 3, 62 Stat. 1248, as amended, 7 U.S.C. 624; Part 3 of the Appendix to the Tariff Schedules of the United States, 19 U.S.C. 1202)

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 10th day of October 1975.

EARL L. BUTZ,
Secretary.

As a result of additional comments received after proposed rulemaking, the regulations are amended as follows:

1. The citation of authority for Part 25 following the table of contents is corrected to read:

AUTHORITY: 5 U.S.C. 301; Sec. 8, 83 Stat. 773, 5 U.S.C. App. I.

2. Section 25.11 is amended to change paragraphs (b) (4) and (b) (7) as follows:

§ 25.11 Establishment and renewal of advisory committees.

(b) Procedure for establishment. . . .

(4) Preparation of charter. The agency providing support services shall prepare a charter for the advisory committee containing the following: . . .

(7) Filing of charter. The original and four copies of the charter shall be submitted to the Office of Management and Finance no sooner than 15 days following publication of the notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The Office of Management and Finance shall be responsible for filing the charter and notifying the agency providing support services when this is done. An advisory committee shall not meet or take any action until its charter has been filed.

3. Section 25.19(m) is revised to read as follows:

§ 25.19 Meetings.

(m) The records, reports, transcripts, working papers, etc., of all open committee meetings shall be available for public inspection and copying. If a portion of a meeting was closed, the minutes of the open portion shall be available to the public. If meetings of an advisory committee have been entirely or partially closed, the agency that provides support services shall prepare for FEDERAL REGISTER publication, a notice of the availability of the annual report for that committee no later than 60 days after the report's completion. The notice shall include instructions which allow the public access to the report. Requests for access to the minutes of closed meetings shall be handled as requests for information under the Freedom of Information Act.

4. Section 25.24 is revised to read as follows:

§ 25.24 Annual Report and Comprehensive Review. (5 AR 4)

(a) The Department shall submit an annual report to the General Services Administration for preparation of the annual report required by the Federal Advisory Committee Act. Instructions for preparation of this report shall be issued to the agencies by the Office of Management and Finance.

(b) A comprehensive review shall be conducted by the agencies and the results forwarded to the Office of Management and Finance. This review shall be conducted in accordance with guidelines furnished by the Office of Management and Finance.

Effective date. These changes to Part 25 shall become effective on October 14, 1975. The Department's committee management regulations, 7 CFR Parts 25, 25A, become effective October 14, 1975. It is in the public interest that the amendment proposed herein become effective on the same date as the regulations and accordingly there is good cause found for making the amendment effective less than 30 days from publication.

JOSEPH R. WRIGHT, Jr.,
Assistant Secretary for Administration.

2. On page 46299, in Table II, in the entry "Discoloration (other than caused by freezing)", in the second line of (1), the word "or" should be changed to read "when".

CHAPTER IX—AGRICULTURAL MARKETING SERVICE (MARKETING AGREEMENTS AND ORDERS; FRUITS, VEGETABLES, NUTS), DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

[Amdt. 18]

PART 906—ORANGES AND GRAPEFRUIT GROWN IN THE LOWER RIO GRANDE VALLEY IN TEXAS

Container and Pack Requirements

This amendment reduces by two the number of containers which the Texas citrus industry may use in shipping oranges and grapefruit, effective November 17, 1975. The two containers to be eliminated are used only to a limited extent. Their elimination will require less inventory to be maintained by handlers and will promote orderly marketing in the interest of producers and consumers.

On September 17, 1975, notice of proposed rulemaking was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (40 FR 42887) regarding a proposal, applicable to § 906.340 Container, pack, and container marking regulations, recommended by the Texas Valley Citrus Committee, established pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 906, as amended (7 CFR Part 906), regulating the handling of oranges and grapefruit grown in the Lower Rio Grande Valley in Texas. This notice allowed interested persons 20 days during which they could submit written data, views, or arguments pertaining to the proposal. None were submitted. This program is effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674).

This action reflects the Department's appraisal of the need for restricting the use of containers to those most suitable for the packing and handling of fruit to promote orderly marketing in the interest of producers and consumers. Under the amendment, two currently little-used containers will no longer be authorized after handlers' current stocks of such containers are depleted during the 1975-76 season. One of these containers is the $\frac{7}{8}$ bushel wirebound wooden box, the use of which has declined to an insignificant level in recent years. The other container, a fiberboard carton used as a master container for the shipment of six 8-pound bags of fruit, is now redundant as the use of 8-pound bags has declined significantly, and as a greater portion of fruit in 8-pound bags is now shipped in the other authorized master container. By rescinding authorization to use these two containers, handlers' inventory requirements and related expenses should be reduced. Both of these containers have quite limited acceptance by the trade. Those containers remaining for authorized use will be adequate for the shipment of the Texas orange and grapefruit crops.

After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposal set forth in the aforesaid notice, the recommendation and information submitted by the Texas Valley Citrus Committee, and other available information, it is hereby found and determined that the amendment, as hereinafter set forth, is in accordance with the provisions of the said amended marketing agreement and order and will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Order. Therefore, in § 906.340 Container, pack, and container marking regulations, paragraphs (a) (1) (i) and (a) (1) (v) are deleted, and the remaining provisions of paragraph (a) (1) are amended to read as follows:

[Grapefruit Reg. 41]

PART 909—GRAPEFRUIT GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

Quality and Size Requirements

During the period October 17 through November 30, 1975, this regulation sets a minimum grade of U.S. No. 2 and a minimum diameter of $3\frac{1}{8}$ inches for the handling of grapefruit grown in California and Arizona, except that initial handlers may handle grapefruit smaller than $3\frac{1}{8}$ inches in diameter directly to destinations in states other than California, Arizona, Florida, and Texas, providing that grapefruit so handled to destinations in Washington, Oregon, Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, Nevada, and Utah shall measure not smaller than $3\frac{1}{8}$ inches in diameter. The establishment of such requirements under Marketing Order 909 is necessary to provide the market with fruit of acceptable quality in the interests of producers and consumers.

Findings. (1) Pursuant to Marketing Order No. 909, as amended (7 CFR Part 909), regulating the handling of fresh grapefruit grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Administrative Committee established pursuant to the said marketing order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of grapefruit, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) This regulation imposes minimum grade and size requirements on the handling of grapefruit. The regulation is based upon an appraisal of the crop and prospective market conditions as required in § 909.51 of said marketing order. Seasonal shipments of grapefruit from the production area are expected to begin on or about the effective date hereof. Grapefruit is reported to be of good quality this year, and sizes are reported to be larger than last year. This regulation is necessary during the period October 17, 1975, through November 30, 1975, to prevent the handling of any grapefruit of lower grades and smaller sizes than those herein specified, so as to provide the trade and consumers with fruit of acceptable quality pursuant to the declared policy of the act.

(3) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rulemaking procedure, and postpone the effective date of this regulation until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this regulation is based became available and the time when this regulation must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Seasonal shipments of grapefruit are expected to begin on or about the effective date hereof; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation were promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Administrative Committee on October 2, 1975; such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this regulation effective during the period hereinafter set forth, so as to provide for the regulation of the handling of such grapefruit, and compliance with this regulation will not require any special preparation on the part of the persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective date hereof.

(a) Order. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, during the period October 17, 1975, through November 30, 1975, no handler shall handle from the State of California or the State of Arizona to any point outside thereof except Mexico:

(i) Any grapefruit which do not meet the requirements for the U.S. No. 2 grade which for purpose of this section shall include the requirement that the grapefruit be fairly well colored, instead of slightly colored, and including as a part of the fairly well formed requirement, the requirement that the fruit be free from peel that is more than 1 inch in thickness at the stem end (measured from the flesh to the highest point of the peel): Provided, That in lieu of the tolerance provided for the U.S. No. 2 grade, the following tolerances, by count, shall be allowed for the defects listed:

(a) 10 percent for fruit which is not at least fairly well colored;

(b) 10 percent for defects other than color, but not more than one-twentieth of this amount, or one-half of 1 percent shall be allowed for decay and not more than one-half, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for any single defect caused by broken skins, sunburn, scars, or peel that is more than 1 inch in thickness at the stem end; or

(ii) Any grapefruit which measure less than 3 $\frac{1}{16}$ inches in diameter: Provided, That such diameter requirement shall not apply to individual packages containing 10 pounds or less in a lot and individual packages containing more than 10 pounds in a lot may contain not to exceed 10 percent of grapefruit of a size smaller than 3 $\frac{1}{16}$ inches in diameter, if the lot as a whole does not contain more than 5 percent of such size: Provided, further, That in determining the percentage of grapefruit in any lot which are smaller than 3 $\frac{1}{16}$ inches in diameter, such percentage shall be based only on the grapefruit in such lot which are of a size 3 $\frac{1}{16}$ inches in diameter and smaller.

(2) Subject to the requirements of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, any handler may, but only as the initial handler thereof, handle grapefruit smaller than 3 $\frac{1}{16}$ inches in diameter directly to a destination in Zones 4, 5, or 6 and if the grapefruit is so handled to Zone 4, the grapefruit does not measure less than 3 $\frac{1}{16}$ inches in diameter: Provided, That such diameter requirement shall not apply to individual packages containing 10 pounds or less in a lot and individual packages containing more than 10 pounds in a lot may contain not to exceed 10 percent of grapefruit of a size smaller than 3 $\frac{1}{16}$ inches in diameter, if the lot as a whole does not contain more than 5 percent of such size: Provided, further, That in determining the percentage of grapefruit in any lot which are smaller than 3 $\frac{1}{16}$ inches in diameter, such percentage shall be based only on the grapefruit in such lot which are of a size 3 $\frac{1}{16}$ inches in diameter and smaller.

(b) As used herein, "handler", "grapefruit", "handle", "Zone 4", "Zone 5", and "Zone 6" shall have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing order; the terms "U.S. No. 2", "fairly well colored", "slightly colored", and "fairly well formed" shall have the same meaning as when used in the revised United States Standards for Grapefruit (California and Arizona), 7 CFR 51.925-51.955; and "diameter" shall mean the greatest dimension measured at right angles to a line from the stem to the blossom end of the fruit.

[Valencia Orange Reg. 520]

IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART

Limitation of Handling

This regulation fixes the quantity of California-Arizona Valencia oranges that may be shipped to fresh market during the weekly regulation period October 17-23, 1975. It is issued pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and Marketing Order No. 908. The quantity of Valencia oranges so fixed was arrived at after consideration of the total available supply of Valencia oranges, the quantity of Valencia oranges currently available for market, the fresh market demand for Valencia oranges, Valencia orange prices, and the relationship of season average returns to the parity price for Valencia oranges.

§ 908.820 Valencia Orange Regulation 520.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 908, as amended (7 CFR Part 908), regulating the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Valencia Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Valencia oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) The need for this section to limit the respective quantities of Valencia oranges that may be marketed from District 1, District 2, and District 3 during the ensuing week stems from the production and marketing situation confronting the Valencia orange industry.

(i) The committee has submitted its recommendation with respect to the quantities of Valencia oranges that should be marketed during the next succeeding week. Such recommendation, designed to provide equity of marketing opportunity to handlers in all districts, resulted from consideration of the factors enumerated in the order. The committee further reports that the fresh market demand for Valencia oranges continues to be weak.

Prices f.o.b. averaged $3.47 per carton on a reported sales volume of 609,000 cartons last week, compared with an average f.o.b. price of $3.65 per carton and sales of 682,000 cartons a week earlier.

Track and rolling supplies at 365 cars were down 40 cars from last week.

(ii) Having considered the recommendation and information submitted by the committee, and other available information, the Secretary finds that the respective quantities of Valencia oranges which may be handled should be fixed as hereinafter set forth.

(3) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rulemaking procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 553) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Valencia oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Valencia oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on October 14, 1975.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period October 17, 1975, through October 23, 1975, are hereby fixed as follows:

- (i) District 1: 155,000 cartons;
- (ii) District 2: 345,000 cartons;
- (iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) As used in this section, "handled", "District 1", "District 2", "District 3", and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order.

CHAPTER XI—AGRICULTURAL MARKETING SERVICE (MARKETING AGREEMENTS AND ORDERS; MISCELLANEOUS COMMODITIES), DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

PART 1250—EGG RESEARCH AND PROMOTION ORDER

Referenda; Modification or Exemptions From Order

A notice of rulemaking on the procedure for the conduct of referenda with respect to the Egg Research and Promotion Order and rules of practice for modification or exemption from such order was published in the September 17, 1975, issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (40 FR 42888-42890). The procedure and rules of practice, as hereinafter set forth, are in accordance with the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the Egg Research and Consumer Information Act (7 U.S.C. 2701 et seq.).

The notice of rulemaking provided for the filing of data, views, or arguments with respect to these proposals not later than October 2, 1975. A comment was received endorsing the proposed rules and procedure. In addition, an exception was filed within the prescribed time period.

The exception asserts that the referenda procedure fails to include a provision for an advanced registration of voters, at least 10 days prior to the date of the referendum, and a requirement that 50 percent of all registered voters must participate in the voting process before it is determined that the order effectuates the declared policy of the act. Exceptor contends that these proposed registration and minimum participation requirements are necessary to promote widespread discussion and participation in the referendum.

The act provides that an order must be submitted to a referendum among eligible egg producers for approval before it can become effective. Eligible egg producers are those persons defined in the order as egg producers, and who own a flock of laying hens consisting of 3,001 hens or more, which hens are not primarily engaged in the production of eggs for the hatching of baby chicks. There is no provision in the act which requires that egg producers preregister to vote in the referendum in order to establish voter eligibility, nor is there any provision that requires the participation of any minimum number of egg producers in the referendum for the referendum procedure to be valid.

In addition, if the position of the exceptor was adopted, the preregistration process would require the Department to mail to or otherwise provide every producer with registration forms prior to the mailing of the ballots. The cost that would be incurred by separately providing the registration forms cannot be justified in light of the fact that preregistration is not required by the act. Also, such a preregistration is considered unnecessary since the referenda procedure does allow for the registration of egg producers, and it is the intention of the Department to conduct a registration of egg producers simultaneous with the casting of every ballot. This registration will serve the purpose of providing information to the referendum agent, on a single form which also contains the ballot, to allow him to determine the eligibility to vote of each producer casting a ballot in the referendum. For the reasons stated above, the exception is denied.

After the consideration of all relevant matters, including the proposals set forth in the notice, the said rules as so proposed are hereby adopted. The following new subparts are hereby added to 7 CFR Part 1250:

Subpart—Procedure for the Conduct of Referenda in Connection With Egg Research and Promotion Order

- Sec.

Such person is deemed to be the owner of such laying hens UNLESS it is established in writing, to the satisfaction of the Secretary or the Egg Board, that actual ownership of the laying hens is in some other party to the contract. In the event the party to an oral contract who supplied or supplies the laying hens cannot be readily identified by the Secretary or the Egg Board, the person who has immediate possession and control over the laying hens at the egg production facility shall be deemed to be the owner of such hens unless written notice is provided to the Secretary or the Egg Board, signed by the parties to said oral contract, clearly stating that the eggs are being produced under a contractual agreement and identifying the party (or parties) under said contract who is the owner of the hens.

(a) Each person who is a producer, as defined in this subpart, at the time of the referendum, who was engaged in the production of commercial eggs during the representative period, and who is not exempt from the provisions of the order as provided for in § 1251.347 thereof, shall be entitled to only one vote in the referendum.

(b) Proxy voting is not authorized, but an officer or employee of a corporate producer, or an administrator, executor, or trustee of a producing estate, or an authorized representative of any other entity may cast a ballot on behalf of such producer or estate. Any individual so voting in a referendum shall certify that he is an officer or employee of the corporate producer, or an administrator, executor, or trustee of the producing estate, or an authorized representative of such other entity, and that he has the authority to take such action. Upon request of the referendum agent, such individual shall submit adequate evidence of his authority.

(c) Each producer shall be entitled to cast only one ballot in the referendum.

The referendum agent shall conduct the referendum, in the manner herein provided, under supervision of the Administrator. The Administrator may prescribe additional instructions, not inconsistent with the provisions hereof, to govern the procedure to be followed by the referendum agent. Such agent shall:

(a) Determine the time of commencement and termination of the period of the referendum, and the time when all ballots must be received by the referendum agent.

(b) Determine whether ballots may be cast by mail, at polling places, at meetings of producers, or by any combination of the foregoing.

(c) Provide ballots and related material to be used in the referendum. Ballot material shall provide for recording essential information for ascertaining (1) whether the person voting, or on whose behalf the vote is cast, is an eligible voter, and (2) the total volume of commercial eggs produced during the representative period.

(d) Give reasonable advance notice of the referendum (1) by utilizing, without advertising expense, available media of public information (including, but not limited to, press and radio facilities) serving the production area(s), announcing the dates, places, and method(s) of voting, eligibility requirements, and other pertinent information, and (2) by such other means as said agent may deem advisable.

(e) Make available to producers instructions on voting, appropriate registration, ballot, and certification forms, and, except in the case of a referendum on the termination or continuance of an order, a summary of the terms and conditions of the order: Provided, That no person who claims to be qualified to vote shall be refused a ballot.

(f) If the ballots are to be cast by mail, cause all the material specified in paragraph (e) of this section to be mailed to each eligible producer whose name and address are known to the Secretary or the referendum agent.

(g) If the ballots are to be cast at polling places or meetings, determine the necessary number of polling or meeting places, designate them, announce the time of each meeting or the hours during which each polling place will be open, provide the material specified in paragraph (e) of this section, and provide for appropriate custody of ballot forms and delivery to the referendum agent of ballots cast.

(h) At the conclusion of the referendum, canvass the ballots, tabulate the results, and except as otherwise directed report the outcome to the Administrator and promptly thereafter submit the following:

(1) All ballots received by the agent and appointees, together with a certificate to the effect that the ballots listed are all of the ballots cast and received by the agent and appointees during the referendum period;

(2) A tabulation of all challenged ballots deemed to be invalid; and

(3) A report of the referendum including a detailed statement explaining the method used in giving publicity to the referendum and showing other information pertinent to the manner in which the referendum was conducted.

The referendum agent may appoint any person or persons deemed necessary or desirable to assist said agent in performing his functions hereunder. Each person so appointed may be authorized by said agent to perform, in accordance with the requirements herein set forth, any or all of the following functions (which, in the absence of such appointment, shall be performed by said agent):

Invalid ballots shall not be counted.

§ 1250.206 Referendum report.

Except as otherwise directed, the Administrator shall prepare and submit to the Secretary a report on results of the referendum, the manner in which it was conducted, the extent and kind of public notice given, and other information pertinent to analysis of the referendum and its results.

The ballots cast or the manner in which any person voted and all information furnished to, compiled by, or in the possession of the referendum agent shall be regarded as confidential.

(m) The term "Administrative Law Judge's report" means the Administrative Law Judge's report to the Secretary and includes the Administrative Law Judge's proposed (1) findings of fact and conclusions with respect to all material issues of fact, law, or discretion, as well as the reasons or basis therefor, (2) order, and (3) rulings on findings, conclusions, and orders submitted by the parties; and

(n) The term "petition" includes an amended petition.

(a) Filing and service of petition. Any person subject to an order desiring to complain that any order or any provision of any such order or any obligation imposed in connection therewith is not in accordance with the law, shall file with the Hearing Clerk, in quadruplicate, a petition in writing addressed to the Secretary. Promptly upon receipt of the petition, the Hearing Clerk shall transmit a true copy thereof to the Administrator and the General Counsel, respectively.

(b) Contents of petition. A petition shall contain:

(1) The correct name, address, and principal place of business of the petitioner. If petitioner is a corporation, such fact shall be stated, together with the name of the State of incorporation, the date of incorporation, and the names, addresses, and respective positions held by its officers and directors; if an unincorporated association, the names and addresses of its officers, and the respective positions held by them; if a partnership, the name and address of each partner;

(2) Reference to the specific terms and provisions of the order, or the interpretation or application thereof, which are complained of;

(3) A full statement of the facts (avoiding a mere repetition of detailed evidence) upon which the petition is based, and which it is desired that the Secretary consider, setting forth clearly and concisely the nature of the petitioner's business and the manner in which petitioner claims to be affected by the terms or provisions of the order or the interpretation or application thereof, which are complained of;

(4) A statement of the grounds on which the terms or provisions of the order, or the interpretation or application thereof, which are complained of, are challenged as not in accordance with law;

(5) Prayers for the specific relief which the petitioner desires the Secretary to grant; and

(6) An affidavit by the petitioner, or if the petitioner is not an individual, by an officer of the petitioner having knowledge of the facts stated in the petition, verifying the petition.

(c) Application to dismiss petition.

(1) If the Administrator is of the opinion that the petition, or any portion thereof, does not substantially comply, in form or content, with the act or with the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section, he may, within 30 calendar days after the filing of the petition, file with the Hearing Clerk an application to dismiss the petition, or any portion thereof, on one or more of the grounds stated in this section. Such application shall specify the grounds of objection to the petition and if based, in whole or in part, on allegations of fact not appearing on the face of the petition, shall be accompanied by appropriate affidavits or documentary evidence substantiating such allegations of fact. The application may be accompanied by a memorandum of law. Upon receipt of such application, the Hearing Clerk shall cause a copy thereof to be served upon the petitioner, together with a notice stating that all papers to be submitted in opposition to such application, including any memorandum of law, must be filed by the petitioner with the Hearing Clerk not later than 20 calendar days after the service of such notice upon the petitioner. Upon the expiration of the time specified in such notice, or upon receipt of such papers from the petitioner, the Hearing Clerk shall transmit all papers which have been filed in connection with the application to the Judge for his consideration.

(2) Decision by Administrative Law Judge. The Judge, after due consideration, shall render a decision upon the motion stating the reasons for his action. Such decision shall be in the form of an order and shall be filed with the Hearing Clerk who shall cause a copy thereof to be served upon the petitioner and a copy thereof to be transmitted to the Administrator. Any such order shall be final unless appealed pursuant to § 900.65, incorporated by paragraph (d) of this section: Provided, That within 20 calendar days following the service upon the petitioner of a copy of the order of the Judge dismissing the petition, or any portion thereof, on the grounds that it does not substantially comply in form and content with the act or with paragraph (b) of this section, the petitioner shall be permitted to file an amended petition.

(3) Oral argument. Unless a written application for oral argument is filed by a party with the Hearing Clerk not later than the time fixed for filing papers in opposition to the motion, it shall be considered that the party does not desire oral argument. The granting of a request to make oral argument shall rest in the discretion of the Judge.

(d) Further proceedings. Further proceedings on petitions to modify or to be exempted from orders shall be governed by § 900.52a through § 900.71 excluding § 900.70 of the title "Rules of Practice Governing Proceedings on Petitions to Modify or To Be Exempted From Marketing Orders" revised October 29, 1973, and any amendments thereto, except that all references to marketing orders shall mean orders under the act, and as may hereafter be amended, and the same are incorporated herein and made a part hereof by reference.

Effective Date. It is hereby found that good cause exists for the making of the provisions of the procedure for conduct of referenda and rules of practice effective on October 16, 1975, and that it would be contrary to the public interest to postpone such effective date until 30 days after publication (5 U.S.C. 553). The provisions of the procedure and these rules are known to egg producers. These rules and procedure were initially published on September 17, 1975, and there were no substantial changes. In addition, the procedure governs the conduct of the referendum on the Egg Research and Promotion Order published on October 1, 1975, and the referendum is to be set by the Department for the period of November 3 to November 28, 1975. Therefore, to allow sufficient time to notify egg producers of the referendum period and to allow distribution of ballots and other relevant materials, these rules of practice and procedure for conduct of referenda should be made effective October 16, 1975.

Signed at Washington, D.C., on October 10, 1975.

Assistant Secretary.

1. Section 336.735-11(e) is amended by deleting the words "Pub. L. 89-673, 80 Stat. 952" and by inserting the words "section 7342 of Title 5 of the United States Code" in lieu thereof.

§ 336.735-12 [Amended]

2. Section 336.735-12(e) is deleted and reserved.

3. Section 336.735-15 is amended by designating the current text paragraph (a) and by adding paragraphs (b) through (d) to read as follows:

§ 336.735-15 Misuse of information.

(a) For the purpose of furthering a private interest, an employee shall not, except as provided in § 336.735-12(d), directly or indirectly use, or allow the use of, official information obtained through or in connection with his Corporation employment which has not been made available to the general public.

(b) An employee shall not disclose, directly or indirectly, to another individual, concern, or governmental agency, personal information pertaining to individuals, except when such disclosure is permitted as provided in § 310.10(b) of this chapter.

(c) An employee shall not design, develop, or maintain any system of information on individuals which is not relevant and necessary for the performance of a Corporation function.

(d) Pursuant to the requirements of section (e) of the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a(e)), notice of the existence of any official Corporation system of information maintained on individuals shall be published as a "system of records" in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

An Assistant Regional Director.

A Regional Counsel.

The purpose of these amendments is to comply with the requirements of the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a(e) (9)) concerning the establishment of employee rules of conduct. The amendments also make structural and technical changes of Part 336 of the Corporation's rules and regulations. The amendments are authorized under paragraphs "Seventh" and "Tenth" of section 9 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as amended (12 U.S.C. 1819 "Seventh" and "Tenth").

Inasmuch as the Board of Directors has found that these amendments involve statements of only internal Corporation policy and, therefore, pursuant to § 302.6 of the rules and regulations of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (12 CFR 302.6), that notice, public participation, and prior publication are unnecessary and would serve no useful purpose, the requirements of section 553 of Title 5, United States Code, with respect to notice, public participation, and deferred effective date were not followed in connection with these amendments.

By order of the Board of Directors,

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Bell Models 206A, 206B, 206A-1, and 206B-1 Helicopters

Amendment 39-2122, (40 FR 10661), AD 75-06-03, as revised by Amendment 39-2146 (40 FR 14297) required an immediate and a 100-hour repetitive inspection for possible cracks in the upper and lower clevis on each main rotor blade pitch link assembly, P/N 206-010-330 or 206-010-342, and an inspection of the outer swashplate ring horn bearings for excessive breakaway torque on Bell Models 206A, 206B, 206A-1 and 206B-1 helicopters. After issuing Amendment 39-2122, AD 75-06-03, and Amendment 39-2146, the agency was informed of satisfactory service history on the affected clevises and helicopters and Amendment 39-2350 (40 FR 41091) was issued to require only a one-time inspection of the Model 206 series helicopters.

In the preamble to Amendment 39-2350, the agency requested interested persons to submit written information and comments on the main rotor pitch link assemblies as they desired. All five letters received had comments and data that supported the adoption of Amendment 39-2350.

The agency discovered by verbal comments that paragraph 1 of AD 75-06-03 should also be deleted since it referred to increasing the repetitive inspection interval that was no longer a part of AD 75-06-03. Therefore, the AD is being further amended to delete paragraph 1. Since this amendment imposes no additional burden on any person, the amendment may be made effective in less than 30 days.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (31 FR 13697), § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations, Amendment 39-2122 (40 FR 10661), AD 75-06-03 as amended by Amendment 39-2146 (40 FR 14297) and Amendment 39-2350 (40 FR 41091) is further amended by deleting paragraph 1.

This amendment becomes effective October 20, 1975.

Amendment 39-2367 (40 FR 42740), AD 74-26-11, published in the FEDERAL

Since this amendment corrects a typographical error and imposes no additional burden on any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and the amendment may be made effective in less than 30 days.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (31 FR 13697), § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations Amendment 39-2054 (39 FR 44439), AD 74-26-11 as amended by Amendments 39-2092 (40 FR 6771), 39-2214 (40 FR 22126), 39-2254 (40 FR 28605), and 39-2367 (40 FR 42740) is further amended by amending paragraph (2), in pertinent part, at lines 6 and 7, to read:

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES Enstrom F-28A Helicopters

During manufacture, some of the main rotor spindles, Part No. 28-14282 used on the Enstrom F-28A helicopters, were machined improperly. There are two separate distinct discrepancies in the machining of the spindle: (1) The internal tapered bore of the spindle was machined improperly to a constant 1.37" diameter straight bore, and, (2) The depth of the bore may have been machined too deep. Both of these conditions will reduce the fatigue life of the spindle. It should be noted that both of these deficiencies do not occur simultaneously on the same S/N helicopters. The retirement life for the spindles which contain either of the above machining deficiencies has been established as 1,000 hours total time in service. Since these spindles are common to all Enstrom helicopters of the same type design, an Airworthiness Directive is being issued to require inspection and to impose a life limit for those spindles found to be discrepant.

Since a situation exists that requires immediate adoption of this regulation, it is found that notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable and good cause exists for making this amendment effective in less than 30 days.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (14 CFR 11.89)

§ 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended by adding the following new Airworthiness Directive.

ENSTROM. Applies to Enstrom Model F-28A helicopters certificated in all categories, as indicated in the following tables:

Table I—Improper Machining of the Tapered Bore of Main Rotor Spindle P/N 28-14282. Helicopter S/N's 203, 205, 209, 216, 220, 221, 223, 224, 225, 227, 231, 232, 233, 235, 236, 237, 240 and all other helicopters which received replacement main rotor spindles between June 18, 1974 and October 1, 1974 inclusive.

Table II—Bore of Main Rotor Spindle P/N 28-14282 Machined Too Deep. Helicopter S/N's 116, 117, 160, 177, 178, 179, 184, 185, 187, 188, 189, 190, 192, 193, 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 201, 204 and 217.

Compliance required as indicated unless already accomplished.

To detect main rotor spindles with machining deficiencies accomplish the following:

(a) Within the next 100 hours time in service after the effective date of this Airworthiness Directive, inspect all helicopters listed in Table I above for improper machining of the tapered spindle bore in accordance with the information contained in Enstrom Service Note No. 0020A dated August 11, 1975, or an equivalent procedure approved by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, Great Lakes Region. All spindles that have been machined with a straight internal bore shall be identified in the log book as a life limited spindle. (See paragraph (c) for retirement life of these spindles.)

(b) Within the next 100 hours time in service after the effective date of this Airworthiness Directive, inspect all helicopter main rotor spindles listed in Table II above for an excessive bore depth in accordance with the information contained in Enstrom Service Note 0021B dated August 11, 1975, or an equivalent procedure approved by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, Great Lakes Region. All spindles that have been machined with an improper bore depth shall be identified in the log book as life limited spindles. (See paragraph (c) for the retirement life of these spindles.)

(c) Main rotor spindles which have machining deficiencies indicated in paragraphs (a) and (b) above are considered to be life limited parts and must be replaced with a new part of the same part number no later than at 1,000 hours total time in service and the life depleted part is to be rendered in-serviceable. Spindles which are determined to be machined correctly may be returned to service and do not have a life limited imposed on them.

This amendment becomes effective October 20, 1975.

Issued in Des Plaines, Ill., on October 6, 1975.

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES SIAI Marchetti S. 205 and S. 208 Airplanes

There has been a reported failure of the landing gear actuator attaching fork on SIAI Marchetti S. 205 and S. 208 airplanes that could result in landing gear failure. Since this condition is likely to exist or develop in other airplanes of the same type design, an airworthiness directive is being issued to require a one-time inspection and replacement, as necessary, of the landing gear actuator fork with a newly designed fork on SIAI Marchetti S. 205 and S. 208 airplanes.

Since this situation requires immediate adoption of this regulation, notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable and good cause exists for making this amendment effective in less than 30 days.

(Secs. 313(a), 601, 603, Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, and 1423); sec. 6(c) Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)))

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (14 CFR 11.89), § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

SIAI MARCHETTI. Applies to Models S. 205-18/R, -20/R, and -22/R, S/N's 001 thru 003, 101 thru 399, 4-101 thru 4-282, 4-285, 4-293, 5-302, 5-303 and 5-408; and Model S. 208, S/N's 001 thru 003, 1-03 thru 1-15, 2-16 thru 2-27, 2-47 thru 2-50, 4-51, 4-60, 4-61, 4-62, 369, 3-100, 4-231, 4-233, 4-256, 4-257, and 4-258 airplanes, certificated in all categories. Compliance is required as indicated.

To prevent possible failure of the landing gear, accomplish the following:

(a) Within the next 25 hours' time in service after the effective date of this AD, unless already accomplished, inspect the landing gear actuator attaching fork, P/N 205-6-214-15, for cracks, failure, and fork fin distance in accordance with Instructions, paragraph a., of SIAI Marchetti Service Bulletin, S.B. No. 205B40, dated April 7, 1975, or an FAA-approved equivalent.

(b) If the inspection required by paragraph (a) of this AD reveals cracks or failure of the attaching fork, or if the fork fin distance is less than the minimum specified in the service bulletin, Instructions, paragraph a. 8., before further flight, replace the landing gear actuator attaching fork, P/N 205-6-214-15, with one of new design, P/N 205-6-214-07, in accordance with Instructions, paragraph b. of SIAI Marchetti S.B. No. 205B40, or an FAA-approved equivalent.

(c) If the inspection required by paragraph (a) of this AD reveals no cracks or failures and the fork fin distance is within allowable limits, either—

(1) Reinstall the landing gear actuator fork, P/N 205-6-214-15, in accordance with Instructions, paragraph c. of SIAI Marchetti S.B. No. 205B40, or an FAA-approved equivalent; or

(2) Install a new landing gear actuator attaching fork, P/N 205-6-214-07, in accordance with Instructions, paragraph b. of SIAI Marchetti S.B. No. 205B40, or an FAA-approved equivalent.

This amendment becomes effective October 30, 1975.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on October 7, 1975.

Societe Nationale Industrielle Aerospatiale (Formerly Sud Aviation) Model SA 316B Alouette III Helicopters

It has been determined that certain main rotor transmission gear boxes (MGBs) installed on Societe Nationale Industrielle Aerospatiale (S.N.I.A.S., formerly Sud Aviation) Model SA 316B helicopters cannot safely be operated at the helicopter's certificated maximum take-off power and maximum weight. Since this condition is likely to exist or develop on other helicopters of the same type design, an airworthiness directive is being issued to require replacement of the affected MGBs, and to restrict the maximum operating weight and takeoff power until the replacement is made on S.N.I.A.S. Model SA 316B Alouette III helicopters.

Since this situation requires immediate adoption of this regulation, notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable and good cause exists for making this amendment effective in less than 30 days.

(Sec. 313(a), 601, 603, Federal Aviation Act of 1958, (49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, 1423); sec. 6(c), Department of Transportation Act, (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)))

In consideration of the foregoing and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (14 CFR 11.89), § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

SOCIETE NATIONALE INDUSTRIELLE AEROSPATIALE (S.N.I.A.S., formerly SUD AVIATION). Applies to Model SA316B Alouette III helicopters, certificated in all categories, incorporating main rotor transmission gearbox (MGB), Serial Number 9,999 or lower P/N 3160S.62.00.000.10 through .12 incorporating Modification AM1212, or P/N 3160S.62.00.000.13 or .14.

Compliance is required as indicated, unless, already accomplished.

To prevent possible failure of the main gearbox, accomplish the following:

(a) Within the next 10 hours' time in service after the effective date of this AD, install a temporary operating limitations placard on the instrument panel in full view of the pilot reading as follows: "Operate in accordance with the limitations specified in the Alouette III SE3160 Helicopter Flight Manual. Limitations or performance specified in Appendix 2 of that manual are not applicable to this helicopter."

(b) Within the next 450 hours' time in service after the effective date of this AD, or replace the MGB with a serviceable MGB having a part number specified in Subparagraph 1C of Alouette Service Bulletin No. 0134 dated June 24, 1974, or an FAA-approved equivalent.

(c) After complying with paragraph (b) of this AD, the placard required by paragraph (a) may be removed.

This amendment becomes effective October 30, 1975.

Issued in Washington, D.C. on October 7, 1975.

PART 73—SPECIAL USE AIRSPACE

Alteration of Restricted Area

The purpose of this amendment to Part 73 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is to alter Restricted Area R-4001 Aberdeen, Md., by subdividing it into two areas, R-4001A and R-4001B.

Alerting R-4001 will allow more effective utilization of the airspace as it will permit the using agency to temporarily return one portion to the public while retaining the other for the restricted area's designated purpose. Increased public access to the airspace will simplify routing and reduce flight distance for aircraft transiting between several adjacent general aviation airports. Depicting the restricted area in a two-part configuration may also help improve its joint use because it should prompt more pilots to ask appropriate air traffic control facilities for clearance through one portion or the other.

Since no additional airspace is involved herein, this is a minor amendment upon which the public would not be particularly interested to comment. Therefore, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary. Also as it is in the public interest to improve the utilization of the airspace as soon as possible, good cause exists for making this amendment effective immediately.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 73 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is amended, effective upon publication of this amendment in the FEDERAL REGISTER, as hereinafter set forth.

In § 73.40 (40 FR 677) the description of Restricted Area R-4001 Aberdeen, Md., is deleted and the following is substituted therefor:

Title 24—Housing and Urban Development CHAPTER X—FEDERAL INSURANCE ADMINISTRATION, DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT SUBCHAPTER B—NATIONAL FLOOD INSURANCE PROGRAM

[Docket No. FI-714]

PART 1914—AREAS ELIGIBLE FOR THE SALE OF INSURANCE

Status of Participating Communities

● Purpose: The purpose of this notice is to list those communities wherein the sale of flood insurance is authorized under the National Flood Insurance Program (42 U.S.C. 4001-4128). ●

Insurance policies can be obtained from any licensed property insurance agent or broker serving the eligible community, or from the National Flood Insurers Association servicing company for the state (addresses are published at 39 FR 26186-93). A list of servicing companies is also available from the Federal Insurance Administration (FIA), HUD, 451 Seventh Street, SW., Washington, D.C. 20410.

The Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973 requires the purchase of flood insurance as a condition of receiving any form of Federal or Federally related financial assistance for acquisition or construction purposes in a flood plain area having special hazards within any community identified by the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.

The requirement applies to all identified special flood hazard areas within the United States, and no such financial assistance can legally be provided for acquisition or construction in these areas unless the community has entered the program. Accordingly, for communities listed under this part no such restriction exists, although insurance, if required, must be purchased.

The Federal Insurance Administrator finds that delayed effective dates would be contrary to the public interest. The Administrator also finds that notice and public procedure under 5 U.S.C. 553(b) are impracticable and unnecessary.

Section 1914.4 of Part 1914 of Subchapter B of Chapter X of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended by adding in alphabetical sequence new entries to the table. In each entry, a complete chronology of effective dates appears for each listed community. The date that appears in the fourth column of the table is provided in order to designate the effective date of the authorization of the sale of flood insurance in the area under the emergency or the regular flood insurance program. These dates serve notice only for the purposes of granting relief, and not for the application of sanctions, within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. 551. The entry reads as follows:

PART 1915—IDENTIFICATION OF SPECIAL HAZARD AREAS

List of Communities With Special Hazard Areas

● Purpose: The purpose of this notice is the identification of communities with areas of special flood or mudslide or erosion hazards in accordance with Part 1915 of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations as authorized by the National Flood Insurance Program (42 U.S.C. 4001-4128). The identification of such areas is to provide guidance so that communities may adopt appropriate flood plain management measures to minimize damage caused by flood losses and to guide future construction, where practicable, away from locations which are threatened by flood hazards. ●

The Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973 requires the purchase of flood insurance on and after March 2, 1974, as a condition of receiving any form of Federal or Federally related financial assistance for acquisition or construction purposes in an identified flood plain area having special flood hazards that is located within any community participating in the National Flood Insurance Program.

One year after the identification of the community as flood prone, the requirement applies to all identified special flood hazard areas within the United States, so that, after that date, no such financial assistance can legally be provided for acquisition and construction in these areas unless the community has entered the program. The prohibition, however, does not apply to loans by a Federally regulated, insured, supervised or approved bank prior to January 1, 1976, to finance the acquisition of a previously occupied residential dwelling.

The effective date of identification shall be November 17, 1975, or the date which appears in this notice, whichever is later.

This 30 day period does not supersede the statutory requirement that a community, whether or not participating in the program, be given the opportunity for a period of six months to establish that it is not seriously flood prone or that such flood hazards as may have existed have been corrected by floodworks or other flood control methods. The six months period shall be considered to begin on November 17, 1975, or the effective date of the Flood Hazard Boundary Map, whichever is later. Similarly, the one year period a community has to enter the program under section 201(d) of the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973 shall be considered to begin on November 17, 1975, or the effective date of the Flood Hazard Boundary Map, whichever is later.

Where several dates appear in the column set forth below marked effective date of identification, the first date is the date of initial identification, and all other dates represent modification by additions or deletions to identified areas with special hazards.

Accordingly, § 1915.3 is amended by adding in alphabetical sequence a new entry to the table, which entry reads as follows:

§ 1915 List of communities with special hazard areas.

Nonbank Trustees of Pension and Profit-Sharing Trusts Benefiting Owner-Employees

The following temporary regulations relate to the amendment made to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 by section 1022(c) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (Pub. L. 93-406, 88 Stat. 939) (hereinafter called the "Act"), relating to pension and profit-sharing trusts benefiting owner-employees.

Section 1022(c) of the Act permits a person who is not a bank to be the trustee of a qualified pension or profit-sharing trust benefiting owner-employees if he demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that he will administer the trust in a manner consistent with the law. Such a demonstration must be made by filing a written application. In general, the applicant must demonstrate his ability to act within the accepted rules of fiduciary conduct, experience and competence with respect to accounting for the interests of a large number of individuals, and familiarity with other activities normally associated with the handling of retirement funds. Thus, the applicant must be prepared to comply with specified rules of fiduciary conduct. In addition, he must possess such attributes as continuity, permanent location, financial responsibility, and fiduciary experience. For a plan in existence on January 1, 1974, section 1022(c) of the Act shall apply to the first plan year commencing after December 31, 1975, and all subsequent plan years.

ADOPTION OF REGULATIONS

To prescribe temporary regulations relating to the amendment of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 by section 1022(c) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 which shall remain in effect until superseded by permanent regulations, the following regulations are hereby adopted:

§ 1.401(d)(1)-1 Nonbank trustees of trusts benefiting owner-employees.

(a) Effective dates.—(1) General rule. For a plan not in existence on January 1, 1974, this section shall apply to the first plan year commencing after September 2, 1974, and all subsequent plan years.

(2) Existing plans. For a plan in existence on January 1, 1974, this section shall apply to the first plan year commencing after December 31, 1975, and all subsequent plan years.

(b) In general. For plan years to which this section applies, the trustee of a trust described in § 1.401-12(c)(1)(i) may (notwithstanding § 1.401-12(c)) be a person other than a bank (within the meaning of section 401(d)(1)) if he demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the manner in which he will administer trusts will be consistent with the requirements of section 401. Such demonstration must be made by a written application to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Attention: E:EP, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D.C. 20224. Such application must meet the requirements set forth in paragraphs (c) to (g) of this section.

(c) Fiduciary ability. The applicant must demonstrate in detail his ability to act within the accepted rules of fiduciary conduct. Such demonstration must include the following elements of proof:

(1) Continuity. (i) The applicant must assure the uninterrupted performance of its fiduciary duties notwithstanding the death or change of its owners. Thus, for example, there must be sufficient diversity in the ownership of the applicant to ensure that the death or change of its owners will not interrupt the conduct of its business. Therefore, the applicant cannot be an individual.

(ii) Sufficient diversity in the ownership of an incorporated applicant means that individuals each of whom owns more than 20 percent of the voting stock in the applicant own, in the aggregate, no more than 50 percent of such stock.

(iii) Sufficient diversity in the ownership of an applicant which is a partnership means that—

(A) Individuals each of whom owns more than 20 percent of the profits interest in the partnership own, in the aggregate, no more than 50 percent of such profits interest, and

(B) Individuals each of whom owns more than 20 percent of the capital interest in the partnership own, in the aggregate, no more than 50 percent of such capital interest.

(iv) For purposes of this subparagraph, the ownership of stock and of capital and profits interests shall be determined in accordance with the rules for constructive ownership of stock provided in section 1563(e) and (f) (2). For this purpose, the rules for constructive ownership of stock provided in section 1563(e) and (f) (2) shall apply to a capital or profits interest in a partnership as if it were a stock interest.

(2) Established location. The applicant must have an established place of business in the United States where he is accessible during every business day.

(3) Fiduciary experience. The applicant must have fiduciary experience or expertise sufficient to ensure that he will be able to perform his fiduciary duties. Evidence of fiduciary experience must include proof that a significant part of the business of the applicant consists of exercising fiduciary powers similar to those he will exercise if his application is approved. Evidence of fiduciary expertise must include proof that the applicant employs personnel experienced in the administration of fiduciary powers similar to those he will exercise if his application is approved.

(4) Fiduciary responsibility. The applicant must assure compliance with the rules of fiduciary conduct set out in paragraph (f) of this section.

(5) Financial responsibility. The applicant must exhibit a high degree of solvency commensurate with the obligations imposed by this section. Among the factors to be taken into account are the applicant's net worth, his liquidity, and his ability to pay his debts as they come due.

(d) Capacity to account. The applicant must demonstrate in detail his experience and competence with respect to accounting for the interests of a large number of individuals (including calculating and allocating income earned and paying out distributions to payees). Examples of accounting for the interests of a large number of individuals include accounting for the interests of a large number of shareholders in a regulated investment company and accounting for the interests of a large number of variable annuity contract holders.

(e) Fitness to handle funds.—(1) In general. The applicant must demonstrate in detail his experience and competence with respect to other activities normally associated with the handling of retirement funds.

(2) Examples. Examples of activities normally associated with the handling of retirement funds include:

(i) To receive, issue receipts for, and safely keep securities;

(ii) To collect income;

(iii) To execute such ownership certificates, to keep such records, make such returns, and render such statements as are required for Federal tax purposes;

(iv) To give proper notification regarding all collections;

(v) To collect matured or called principal and properly report all such collections;

(vi) To exchange temporary for definitive securities;

(vii) To give proper notification of calls, subscription rights, defaults in principal or interest, and the formation of protective committees;

(viii) To buy, sell, receive, or deliver securities on specific directions.

(f) Rules of fiduciary conduct.—(1) Administration of fiduciary powers. The applicant must demonstrate that under applicable regulatory requirements, corporate or other governing instruments, or its established operating procedures:

(i) (A) The owners or directors of the applicant will be responsible for the proper exercise of fiduciary powers by the applicant. Thus, all matters pertinent thereto, including the determination of policies, the investment and disposition of property held in a fiduciary capacity, and the direction and review of the actions of all employees utilized by the applicant in the exercise of his fiduciary powers, will be the responsibility of the owners or directors. In discharging this responsibility, the owners or directors may assign to designated employees, by action duly recorded, the administration of such of the applicant's fiduciary powers as may be proper to assign.

(B) A written record will be made of the acceptance and of the relinquishment or closing out of all fiduciary accounts, and of the assets held for each account.

(C) At least once during each period of 12 months all the assets held in or for each fiduciary account where the applicant has investment responsibilities will be reviewed to determine the advisability of retaining or disposing of such assets.

(ii) All employees taking part in the performance of the applicant's fiduciary duties will be adequately bonded. Nothing in this subdivision shall require any person to be bonded in contravention of section 412(d) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C. 1112(d)).

(iii) The applicant will designate, employ, or retain legal counsel who will be readily available to pass upon fiduciary matters and to advise the applicant.

(iv) In order to segregate the performance of his fiduciary duties from other business activities, the applicant will maintain a separate trust division under the immediate supervision of an individual designated for that purpose. The trust division may utilize the personnel and facilities of other divisions of the applicant, and other divisions of the applicant may utilize the personnel and facilities of the trust division, as long as the separate identity of the trust division is preserved.

(2) Adequacy of net worth. (i) Not less frequently than once during each calendar year the applicant will determine the value of the assets held by him in trust. Such assets will be valued at their current value, except that the assets of an employee benefit plan to which section 103(b)(3)(A) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C. 1023(b)(3)(A)) applies will be considered to have the value stated in the most recent annual report of the plan.

(ii) No fiduciary account will be accepted by the applicant unless his net worth (determined as of the end of the most recent taxable year) exceeds the greater of—

(A) $100,000, or

(B) Four percent of the value of all of the assets held by the applicant in trust (determined as of the most recent valuation date).

(iii) The applicant will take whatever lawful steps are necessary (including the relinquishment of fiduciary accounts) to ensure that his net worth (determined as of the close of each taxable year) exceeds the greater of—

(A) $50,000, or

(B) Two percent of the value of all of the assets held by the applicant in trust (determined as of the most recent valuation date).

(3) Audits. (i) The applicant will at least once during each period of 12 months cause detailed audits of the fiduciary books and records to be made by an independent qualified public accountant, and at such time will ascertain whether the fiduciary accounts have been administered in accordance with law, this section, and sound fiduciary principles. Such audits shall be conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and shall involve such tests of the fiduciary books and records of the applicant as are considered necessary by the independent qualified public accountant.

(ii) In the case of an applicant who is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a State or Federal agency, such applicant may adopt an adequate continuous audit system in lieu of the periodic audits required by paragraph (f)(3)(i) of this section.

(iii) A report of the audits and examinations required under this subparagraph, together with the action taken thereon, will be noted in the fiduciary records of the applicant.

(4) Funds awaiting investment or distribution. Funds held in a fiduciary capacity by the applicant awaiting investment or distribution will not be held un-invested or undistributed any longer than is reasonable for the proper management of the account.

(5) Custody of investments. (i) Except for investments pooled in a common investment fund in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (f)(6) of this section, the investments of each account will not be commingled with any other property.

(ii) Fiduciary assets requiring safekeeping will be deposited in an adequate vault. A permanent record will be kept of fiduciary assets deposited in or withdrawn from the vault.

(6) Common investment funds. Where not in contravention of local law the assets of an account may be pooled in a common investment fund (as defined in paragraph (f)(8)(iii) of this section) which must be administered as follows:

(i) Each common investment fund must be established and maintained in accordance with a written agreement, containing appropriate provisions as to the manner in which the fund is to be operated, including provisions relating to the investment powers and a general statement of the investment policy of the applicant with respect to the fund; the allocation of income, profits and losses; the terms and conditions governing the admission or withdrawal of participations in the fund; the auditing of accounts of the applicant with respect to the fund; the basis and method of valuing assets in the fund, setting forth specific criteria for each type of asset; the minimum frequency for valuation of assets of the fund; the period following each such valuation date during which the valuation may be made (which period in usual circumstances may not exceed 10 business days); the basis upon which the fund may be terminated; and such other matters as may be necessary to define clearly the rights of participants in the fund. A copy of the agreement must be available at the principal office of the applicant for inspection during all business hours, and upon request a copy of the agreement must be furnished to any interested person.

(ii) All participations in the common investment fund must be on the basis of a proportionate interest in all of the assets.

(iii) Not less frequently than once during each period of 3 months applicant must determine the value of the assets in the fund as of the date set for the valuation of assets. No participation may be admitted to or withdrawn from the fund except (A) on the basis of such valuation and (B) as of such valuation date. No participation may be admitted to or withdrawn from the fund unless a written request for or notice of intention of taking such action has been entered on or before the valuation date in the fiduciary records of the applicant. No request or notice may be canceled or countermanded after the valuation date.

(iv) (A) The applicant must at least once during each period of 12 months cause an adequate audit to be made of the common investment fund by a qualified public accountant.

(B) The applicant must at least once during each period of 12 months prepare a financial report of the fund which, based upon the above audit, must contain a list of investments in the fund showing the cost and current market value of each investment; a statement for the period since the previous report showing purchases, with cost; sales, with profit or loss and any other investment changes; income and disbursements; and an appropriate notation as to any investments in default.

(C) The applicant must transmit and certify the accuracy of the financial report to the administrator of each plan participating in the common investment fund within 120 days after the end of the plan year.

(v) When participations are withdrawn from a common investment fund, distributions may be made in cash or ratably in kind, or partly in cash and partly in kind, provided that all distributions as of any one valuation date must be made on the same basis.

(vi) If for any reason an investment is withdrawn in kind from a common investment fund for the benefit of all participants in the fund at the time of such withdrawal and such investment is not distributed ratably in kind, it must be segregated and administered or realized upon for the benefit ratably of all participants in the common investment fund at the time of withdrawal.

(7) Books and records. (i) The applicant must keep his fiduciary records separate and distinct from other records. All fiduciary records must be so kept and retained for as long as the contents thereof may become material in the administration of any internal revenue law. The fiduciary records must contain full information relative to each account.

(ii) The applicant must keep an adequate record of all pending litigation to which he is a party in connection with the exercise of fiduciary powers.

(8) Definitions. For purposes of this paragraph and paragraph (c) (5) of this section—

(i) The term "account" or "fiduciary account" means a trust described in section 401(a) (including a custodial account described in section 401(f), a custodial account described in section 403(b)(7), or an individual retirement account described in section 408(a) (including a custodial account described in section 408(h)).

(ii) The term "administrator" means an administrator as defined in section 3(16)(A) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. 1002(16)(A).

(iii) The term "common investment fund" means a trust which satisfied the following requirements:

(A) The trust consists of all or part of the assets of several accounts which have been established with the applicant, and

(B) The trust is described in section 401(a) and exempt from tax under section 501(a), or is a common investment fund described in § 1.408-2(b)(5) (as published with notice of proposed rule making in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 21, 1975, at 40 FR 7661), or both.

(iv) The term "employee benefit plan" means an employee benefit plan as defined in section 3(2) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. 1002(2).

(v) The term "fiduciary records" means all matters which are written, transcribed, recorded, received or otherwise come into the possession of the applicant and are necessary to preserve information concerning the acts and events relevant to the fiduciary activities of the applicant.

(vi) The term "qualified public accountant" means a qualified public accountant as defined in section 103(a) (3) (D) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. 1023(a) (3) (D).

(vii) The term "net worth" means the amount of the applicant's assets less the amount of his liabilities, as determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(g) Special rules—(1) Passive trustee.

(i) An applicant who undertakes to act only as a passive trustee may be relieved of one or more of the requirements of this section upon clear and convincing proof that such requirements are not germane, under all the facts and circumstances, to the manner in which he will administer any trust. A trustee is a passive trustee only if under the written trust instrument he has no discretion to direct the investment of the trust funds or any other aspect of the business administration of the trust, but is merely authorized to acquire and hold particular investments specified by the trust instrument. Thus, for example, in the case of an applicant who undertakes merely to acquire and hold the stock of a single regulated investment company, the requirements of paragraph (f) (1) (i) (C), (1) (iv), and (6) of this section shall not apply and no negative inference shall be drawn from the applicant's failure to demonstrate his experience or competence with respect to the activities described in paragraph (e) (2) (v) to (viii) of this section.

(ii) The determination letter issued to an applicant who is approved by reason of this subparagraph shall state that the applicant is authorized to act only as a passive trustee.

(2) Federal or State regulation. Evidence that an applicant is subject to Federal or State regulation with respect to one or more relevant factors shall be given weight in proportion to the extent that such regulatory standards are consonant with the requirements of section 401.

(3) Savings account. (i) An applicant will be presumed to meet the requirements of this section upon proof of the following:

(A) The investment of the trust assets will be solely in deposits in the applicant;

(B) Section 4975(c) will not apply to such investment by reason of section 4975(d) (4); and

(C) Such deposits will be fully insured by an agency of the United States or a State.

(ii) The determination letter issued to an applicant who is approved by reason of this subparagraph shall state that the applicant is authorized to act as the trustee of a trust only if the requirements of paragraph (g) (3) (i) of this section are satisfied.

(4) Notification of Commissioner. The applicant must notify the Commissioner in writing of any change which affects the continuing accuracy of any representation made in the application required by this section, whether the change occurs before or after the applicant receives a determination letter. Such notification must be addressed to Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Attention: E:EF, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D.C. 20224.

(5) Substitution of trustee. No applicant shall be approved unless he undertakes to act as trustee only under trust instruments which contain a provision to the effect that the employer is to substitute another trustee upon notification by the Commissioner that such substitution is required because the applicant has failed to comply with the requirements of this section or is not keeping such records, or making such returns, or rendering such statements as are required by forms or regulations.

(6) Revocation. Approval of the application required by this section may be revoked for any good and sufficient reason.

Because of the need for immediate guidance with respect to the manner of making the demonstration required by section 1022(c) of the Employee Retirement Income Act of 1974 (Pub. L. 93-406), it is found to be impracticable to issue this Treasury decision with notice and public procedure thereon under subsection (b) of section 553 of title 5 of the United States Code or subject to the effective date limitation of subsection (d) of that section.

(Sec. 401(d) (1) and 7805 Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (88 Stat. 939 and 68A Stat. 917; 26 U.S.C. 401 and 7805).)

Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Title 49—TransportationCHAPTER V—NATIONAL HIGHWAY TRAFFIC SAFETY ADMINISTRATION, DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

[Docket No. 75-6; Notice 2]

PART 571—FEDERAL MOTOR VEHICLE SAFETY STANDARDSBus Window Retention and Release

This notice amends Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 217, Bus Window Retention and Release, 49 CFR 571.217, to clarify the marking requirements for emergency exits on buses. The amendment requires certain markings on all bus emergency exits except manually-operated windows of sufficient size and doors in buses with a GVWR of 10,000 pounds or less.

The amendment was proposed in a notice published April 18, 1975 (40 FR 17266). Comments were received from Chrysler Corporation and General Motors. Chrysler concurred with the proposal. GM, while also concurring, suggested that the wording of the amendment be modified somewhat. The amendment has been reworded to reflect more clearly the intent of this amendment, distinguishing between emergency exits that require markings and those that do not. The NHTSA has determined that special emergency exit markings are unnecessary for doors and manually-operated windows in buses with a GVWR of 10,000 pounds or less. This amendment does not exempt buses with a GVWR of 10,000 pounds or less from complying with the unobstructed openings requirements of S5.2. It only provides that the openings do not have to be marked as emergency exits. However, specially-installed emergency exits in such buses, such as push-out windows, are not exempted from the marking requirements.

The amendment also allows bus manufacturers the option of designating an emergency door as "Emergency Door" or "Emergency Exit." This will bring Standard No. 217 into conformity with current NHTSA interpretations of the emergency exit marking requirements. However, any emergency exit other than a door must have the designation "Emergency Exit."

Accordingly, S5.5.1 of 49 CFR 571.217, Bus Window Retention and Release, is amended to read:

§ 571.217 Standard No. 217; Bus window retention and release.

S5.5.1 Except for windows serving as emergency exits in accordance with S5.-

2.2(b) and doors in buses with a GVWR of 10,000 pounds or less, each emergency door shall have the designation "Emergency Door" or "Emergency Exit" and each push-out window or other emergency exit besides a door shall have the designation "Emergency Exit". Concise operating instructions shall be located within 6 inches of the release mechanism. When a release mechanism is not located within an occupant space of an adjacent seat, a label meeting the requirements of S5.5.2 that indicates the location of the nearest release mechanism shall be placed within that occupant space.

Example: EMERGENCY EXIT INSTRUCTIONS LOCATED NEXT TO SEAT AHEAD

Effective date: October 16, 1975.

PART 1241—ANNUAL, SPECIAL, OR PERIODIC REPORTS CARRIERS SUBJECT TO PART I OF THE INTERSTATE COMMERCE ACTPART 1249—REPORTS OF MOTOR CARRIERS*PART 1250—REPORTS OF WATER CARRIERS*PART 1251—REPORTS OF FREIGHT FORWARDERS

Addition of a Schedule to the Annual Reports for Reporting of Competitive Bidding; Clayton Antitrust Act Transactions

At a general session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, held at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 2nd day of October 1975.

All common carriers subject to the Interstate Commerce Act are presently required to file certain information on contracts subject to section 10 of the Clayton Antitrust Act (15 U.S.C. 20) with this Commission within 30 days after the contract is awarded. In order, that this Commission will be able to readily determine if the carriers are complying with the provisions of the Clayton Act, the pertinent information relative to competitive bidding should also be reported in the annual reports filed with this Commission. Therefore, we have added a schedule to the annual reports of the following common carriers:

Railroads, Electric Railways, Refrigerator Car Lines, Holding Companies Subject to Section 5(3), Pipelines, Express Companies, Motor Carriers of Passengers (Class I only), Motor Carriers of Property (Class I and II), Inland and Coastal Waterways Carriers (Class A and B), Freight Forwarders (Class A), and Maritime Carriers.

Since the reporting of this information in the annual report is a summary of the filings with this Commission, and carriers are required to retain such information in their files by the regulations governing preservation of records (49 CFR Parts 1220-1228), there should be no additional burden on the carriers.

Upon consideration of the above described matters and good cause appearing therefor:

It is ordered, That the schedule set forth in Appendix A of this order be adopted and included in the annual reports of all carriers required to file annual reports under 49 CFR Part 1241, 49 CFR Part 1249, 49 CFR Part 1250, and 49 CFR Part 1251.

It is further ordered, That the prescribed schedule shall be filed effective with the 1975 annual reports.

It is further ordered, That service of this order shall be made on carriers affected; and to the Governor of every state and to the Public Utilities Commission or boards of each state having jurisdiction over transportation; and the notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing of a copy in the Office of the Secretary, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., and by filing a copy with the Director, Office of Federal Register, for publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

NOTE.—This decision is not a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment within the meaning of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

Notice is hereby given that the regulations set forth in tentative form in the attached appendix are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any comments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing (preferably six copies) to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Attention: CC:LR:T, Washington, D.C. 20224, by December 15, 1975. Thus, persons submitting written comments should not include therein material that they consider to be confidential or inappropriate for disclosure to the public. It will be presumed by the Internal Revenue Service that every written comment submitted to it in response to this notice of proposed rule making is intended by the person submitting it to be subject in its entirety to public inspection and copying in accordance with the procedures of 26 CFR 601.702(d) (9). In such case, a public hearing will be held, and notice of the time, place, and date will be published in a subsequent issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER, unless the person or persons who have requested a hearing withdraw their requests for a hearing before notice of the hearing has been filed with the Office of the Federal Register. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in sections 401(d) (1) and 7805 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (88 Stat. 939 and 68A Stat. 917; 26 U.S.C. 401 and 7805).

DONALD C. ALEXANDER,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

This document contains proposed amendments to the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 1) in order to conform such regulations to the provisions of section 1022 (c) and (f) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974

(Pub. L. 93-406, 88 Stat. 939, 940) (hereinafter called the "Act"), relating to pension and profit-sharing trusts benefiting owner-employees.

Section 1022(c) of the Act permits a person who is not a bank to be the trustee of a qualified pension or profit-sharing trust benefiting owner-employees if he demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that he will administer the trust in a manner consistent with the law. Such a demonstration must be made by filing a written application. In general, the applicant must demonstrate his ability to act within the accepted rules of fiduciary conduct, experience and competence with respect to accounting for the interests of a large number of individuals, and familiarity with other activities normally associated with the handling of retirement funds. Thus, the applicant must be prepared to comply with specified rules of fiduciary conduct. In addition, he must possess such attributes as continuity, permanent location, financial responsibility, and fiduciary experience. For a plan in existence on January 1, 1974, section 1022(c) of the Act shall apply to the first plan year commencing after December 31, 1975, and all subsequent plan years.

Section 1022(f) of the Act permits a Federally insured credit union to be the trustee of a qualified pension or profit-sharing trust benefiting owner-employees.

In order to conform the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 1) to the provisions of section 1022 (c) and (f) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, such regulations are amended as set forth below:

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 1.401 is amended by revising section 401(d) (1) and the historical note to read as follows:

§ 1.401 Statutory provisions; qualified pension, profit-sharing, and stock bonus plans.

Sec. 401. Qualified pension, profit-sharing, and stock bonus plans—

(d) *Additional requirements for qualification of trusts and plans benefiting owner-employees. * * **

(1) In the case of a trust which is created on or after October 10, 1962, or which was created before such date but is not exempt from tax under section 501(a) as an organization described in subsection (a) on the day before such date, the assets thereof are held by a bank or other person who demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Secretary or his delegate that the manner in which he will administer the trust will be consistent with the requirements of this section. A trust shall not be disqualified under this paragraph merely because a person (including the employer) other than the trustee or custodian so administering the trust may be granted, under the trust instrument, the power to control the investment of the trust funds either by directing investments (including reinvestments, disposals, and exchanges) or by disapproving proposed investments (including reinvestments, disposals, or exchanges). This paragraph shall not apply to a trust created or organized outside the United States before October 10, 1962, if, under section 402(e), it is treated as exempt from tax under section 501(a) on the day before such date; or, to the extent provided under regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate, to a trust which uses annuity, endowment, or life insurance contracts of a life insurance company exclusively to fund the benefits prescribed by the trust, if the life insurance company supplies annually such information about trust transactions affecting owner-employees as the Secretary or his delegate shall by forms or regulations prescribe. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "bank" means a bank as defined in section 581, an insured credit union (within the meaning of section 101(6) of the Federal Credit Union Act), a corporation which under the laws of the State of its incorporation is subject to supervision and examination by the commissioner of banking or other officer of such State in charge of the administration of the banking laws of such State, and, in the case of a trust created or organized outside the United States, a bank or trust company, wherever incorporated, exercising fiduciary powers and subject to supervision and examination by governmental authority.

[Sec. 401 as amended by sec. 2, Self-Employed Individuals Tax Retirement Act 1962 (76 Stat. 809); sec. 2(a), Act of Oct. 23, 1962 (Pub. Law 87-863, 76 Stat. 1141); sec. 106 (d) (4), Social Security Amendments 1965 (79 Stat. 337); sec. 1022 (c) and (f), Employee Retirement Income Security Act 1974 (88 Stat. 939, 940)]

PAR. 2. Section 1.401-12 is amended as follows:

1. Paragraph (a) is amended by deleting the last sentence and inserting two new sentences in lieu thereof;

2. Paragraph (c) (1) (i) is amended;

3. Paragraph (c) (2) (iii) is amended by substituting a semicolon for the period at the end thereof;

4. Paragraph (c) (2) (iv) is added; and

5. Paragraph (n) is added.

These amended and added provisions read as follows:

§ 1.401-12 Requirements for qualification of trusts and plans benefiting owner-employees.

(a) *Introduction. * *  Except as otherwise provided, paragraphs (b) through (m) of this section apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1962. Paragraph (n) of this section applies to plan years determined in accordance with paragraph (n) (1) of this section:

(c) Bank trustee. (1) (i) If a trust created after October 9, 1962, is to form a part of a qualified pension or profit-sharing plan covering an owner-employee, or if a trust created before October 10, 1962, but not exempt from tax on October 9, 1962, is to form part of such a plan, the trustee of such trust must be a bank as defined in paragraph (c) (2) of this section, unless an exception contained in paragraph (c) (4) of this section applies, or paragraph (n) of this section applies.

(2) * * *

(iv) Beginning on January 1, 1974, an insured credit union (within the meaning of section 101(6) of the Federal Credit Union Act, 12 U.S.C. 1752(6)).

(n) Nonbank trustee. (1) Effective dates. (i) General rule. For a plan not in existence on January 1, 1974, this paragraph shall apply to the first plan year commencing after September 2, 1974, and all subsequent plan years.

(ii) Existing plans. For a plan in existence on January 1, 1974, this paragraph shall apply to the first plan year commencing after December 31, 1975, and all subsequent plan years.

(2) In general. For plan years to which this paragraph applies, the trustee of a trust described in paragraph (c) (1) (i) of this section may be a person other than a bank if he demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the manner in which he will administer trusts will be consistent with the requirements of section 401. Such demonstration must be made by a written application to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Attention: E-EP, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D.C. 20224. Such application must meet the requirements set forth in paragraph (n) (3) to (7) of this section.

(3) Fiduciary ability. The applicant must demonstrate in detail his ability to act within the accepted rule of fiduciary conduct. Such demonstration must include the following elements of proof:

(i) Continuity. (A) The applicant must assure the uninterrupted performance of its fiduciary duties notwithstanding the death or change of its owners. Thus, for example, there must be sufficient diversity in the ownership of the applicant to ensure that the death or change of its owners will not interrupt the conduct of its business. Therefore, the applicant cannot be an individual.

(B) Sufficient diversity in the ownership of an incorporated applicant means that individuals each of whom owns more than 20 percent of the voting stock in the applicant own, in the aggregate, no more than 50 percent of such stock.

(C) Sufficient diversity in the ownership of an applicant which is a partnership means that—

(1) Individuals each of whom owns more than 20 percent of the profits interest in the partnership own, in the aggregate, no more than 50 percent of such profits interest, and

(2) Individuals, each of whom owns more than 20 percent of the capital interest in the partnership own, in the aggregate, no more than 50 percent of such capital interest.

(D) For purposes of this subdivision, the ownership of stock and of capital and profits interests shall be determined in accordance with the rules for constructive ownership of stock provided in section 1563 (e) and (f) (2). For this purpose, the rules for constructive ownership of stock provided in section 1563 (e) and (f) (2) shall apply to a capital or profits interest in a partnership as if it were a stock interest.

(ii) Established location. The applicant must have an established place of business in the United States where he is accessible during every business day.

(iii) Fiduciary experience. The applicant must have fiduciary experience or expertise sufficient to ensure that he will be able to perform his fiduciary duties. Evidence of fiduciary experience must include proof that a significant part of the business of the applicant consists of exercising fiduciary powers similar to those he will exercise if his application is approved. Evidence of fiduciary expertise must include proof that the applicant employs personnel experienced in the administration of fiduciary powers similar to those he will exercise if his applications are approved.

(iv) Fiduciary responsibility. The applicant must assure compliance with the rules of fiduciary conduct set out in paragraph (n) (6) of this section.

(v) Financial responsibility. The applicant must exhibit a high degree of solvency commensurate with the obligations imposed by this paragraph. Among the factors to be taken into account are the applicant's net worth, his liquidity, and his ability to pay his debts as they come due.

(4) Capacity to account. The applicant must demonstrate in detail his experience and competence with respect to accounting for the interests of a large number of individuals (including calculating and allocating income earned and paying out distributions to payees). Examples of accounting for the interests of a large number of individuals include accounting for the interests of a large number of shareholders in a regulated investment company and accounting for the interests of a large number of variable annuity contract holders.

(5) Fitness to handle funds. (i) In general. The applicant must demonstrate in detail his experience and competence with respect to other activities normally associated with the handling of retirement funds.

(ii) Examples. Examples of activities normally associated with the handling of retirement funds include:

(A) To receive, issue receipts for, and safely keep securities;

(B) To collect income;

(C) To execute such ownership certificates, to keep such records, make such returns, and render such statements as are required for Federal tax purposes;

(D) To give proper notification regarding all collections;

(E) To collect matured or called principal and properly report all such collections;

(F) To exchange temporary for definitive securities;

(G) To give proper notification of calls, subscription rights, defaults in principal or interest, and the formation of protective committees;

(H) To buy, sell, receive, or deliver securities on specific directions.

(6) Rules of fiduciary conduct. (i) Administration of fiduciary powers. The applicant must demonstrate that under applicable regulatory requirements, corporate or other governing instruments, or its established operating procedures:

(A) (1) The owners or directors of the applicant will be responsible for the proper exercise of fiduciary powers by the applicant. Thus, all matters pertinent thereto, including the determination of policies, the investment and disposition of property held in a fiduciary capacity, and the direction and review of the actions of all employees utilized by the applicant in the exercise of his fiduciary powers, will be the responsibility of the owners or directors. In discharging this responsibility, the owners or directors may assign to designated employees, by action duly recorded, the administration of such of the applicant's fiduciary powers as may be proper to assign.

(2) A written record will be made of the acceptance and of the relinquishment or closing out of all fiduciary accounts, and of the assets held for each account.

(3) At least once during each period of 12 months all the assets held in or for each fiduciary account where the applicant has investment responsibilities will be reviewed to determine the advisability of retaining or disposing of such assets.

(B) All employees taking part in the performance of the applicant's fiduciary duties will be adequately bonded. Nothing in this (B) shall require any person to be bonded in contravention of section 412(d) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C. 1112 (d)).

(C) The applicant will designate, employ or retain legal counsel who will be readily available to pass upon fiduciary matters and to advise the applicant.

(D) In order to segregate the performance of his fiduciary duties from other business activities, the applicant will maintain a separate trust division under the immediate supervision of an individual designated for that purpose. The trust division may utilize the personnel and facilities of other divisions of the applicant, and other divisions of the applicant may utilize the personnel and facilities of the trust division, as long as the separate identity of the trust division is preserved.

(ii) Adequacy of net worth. (A) Not less frequently than once during each calendar year the applicant will determine the value of the assets held by him in trust. Such assets will be valued at their current value, except that the assets of an employee benefit plan to which section 103(b)(3)(A) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C. 1023(b)(3)(A)) applies will be considered to have the value stated in the most recent annual report of the plan.

(B) No fiduciary account will be accepted by the applicant unless his net worth (determined as of the end of the most recent taxable year) exceeds the greater of—

(1) $100,000, or

(2) Four percent of the value of all of the assets held by the applicant in trust (determined as of the most recent valuation date).

(C) The applicant will take whatever lawful steps are necessary (including the relinquishment of fiduciary accounts) to ensure that his net worth (determined as of the close of each taxable year) exceeds the greater of—

(1) $50,000, or

(2) Two percent of the value of all of the assets held by the applicant in trust (determined as of the most recent valuation date).

(iii) Audits. (A) The applicant will at least once during each period of 12 months cause detailed audits of the fiduciary books and records to be made by an independent qualified public accountant, and at such time will ascertain whether the fiduciary accounts have been administered in accordance with law, this paragraph, and sound fiduciary principles. Such audits shall be conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and shall involve such tests of the fiduciary books and records of the applicant as are considered necessary by the independent qualified public accountant.

(B) In the case of an applicant who is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a State or Federal agency, such applicant may adopt an adequate continuous audit system in lieu of the periodic audits required by paragraph (n)(6)(iii)(A) of this section.

(C) A report of the audits and examinations required under this subdivision, together with the action taken thereon, will be noted in the fiduciary records of the applicant.

(iv) Funds awaiting investment or distribution. Funds held in a fiduciary capacity by the applicant awaiting investment or distribution will not be held uninvested or undistributed any longer than is reasonable for the proper management of the account.

(v) Custody of investments. (A) Except for investments pooled in a common investment fund in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (n)(6)(vi) of this section, the investments of each account will not be commingled with any other property.

(B) Fiduciary assets requiring safekeeping will be deposited in an adequate vault. A permanent record will be kept of fiduciary assets deposited in or withdrawn from the vault.

(vi) Common investment funds. Where not in contravention of local law the assets of an account may be pooled in a common investment fund (as defined in paragraph (n)(6)(viii)(C) of this section) which must be administered as follows:

(A) Each common investment fund must be established and maintained in accordance with a written agreement, containing appropriate provisions as to the manner in which the fund is to be operated, including provisions relating to the investment powers and a general statement of the investment policy of the applicant with respect to the fund; the allocation of income, profits and losses; the terms and conditions governing the admission or withdrawal of participations in the fund; the auditing of accounts of the applicant with respect to the fund; the basis and method of valuing assets in the fund, setting forth specific criteria for each type of asset; the minimum frequency for valuation of assets of the fund; the period following each such valuation date during which the valuation may be made (which period in usual circumstances may not exceed 10 business days); the basis upon which the fund may be terminated; and such other matters as may be necessary to define clearly the rights of participants in the fund. A copy of the agreement must be available at the principal office of the applicant for inspection during all business hours, and upon request a copy of the agreement must be furnished to any interested person.

(B) All participations in the common investment fund must be on the basis of a proportionate interest in all of the assets.

(C) Not less frequently than once during each period of 3 months the applicant must determine the value of the assets in the fund as of the date set for the valuation of assets. No participation may be admitted to or withdrawn from the fund except (1) on the basis of such valuation and (2) as of such valuation date. No participation may be admitted to or withdrawn from the fund unless a written request for or notice of intention of taking such action has been entered on or before the valuation date in the fiduciary records of the applicant. No request or notice may be canceled or countermanded after the valuation date.

(D) (1) The applicant must at least once during each period of 12 months cause an adequate audit to be made of the common investment fund by a qualified public accountant.

(2) The applicant must at least once during each period of 12 months prepare a financial report of the fund which, based upon the above audit, must contain a list of investments in the fund showing the cost and current market value of each investment; a statement for the period since the previous report showing purchases, with cost; sales, with profit or loss and any other investment changes; income and disbursements; and an appropriate notation as to any investments in default.

(3) The applicant must transmit and certify the accuracy of the financial report to the administrator of each plan participating in the common investment fund within 120 days after the end of the plan year.

(E) When participations are withdrawn from a common investment fund, distributions may be made in cash or ratably in kind, or partly in cash and partly in kind, provided that all distributions as of any one valuation date must be made on the same basis.

(F) If for any reason an investment is withdrawn in kind from a common investment fund for the benefit of all participants in the fund at the time of such withdrawal and such investment is not distributed ratably in kind, it must be segregated and administered or realized upon for the benefit ratably of all participants in the common investment fund at the time of withdrawal.

(vii) Books and records. (A) The applicant must keep his fiduciary records separate and distinct from other records. All fiduciary records must be so kept and retained for as long as the contents thereof may become material in the administration of any internal revenue law. The fiduciary records must contain full information relative to each account.

(B) The applicant must keep an adequate record of all pending litigation to which he is a party in connection with the exercise of fiduciary powers.

(viii) Definitions. For purposes of this subparagraph and paragraph (n)(3)(v) of this section—

(A) The term "account" or "fiduciary account" means a trust described in section 401(a) (including a custodial account described in section 401(f)), a custodial account described in section 403(b)(7), or an individual retirement account described in section 408(a) (including a custodial account described in section 408(h)).

(B) The term "administrator" means an administrator as defined in section 3(16)(A) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. 1002(16)(A).

(C) The term "common investment fund" means a trust which satisfies the following requirements:

(1) The trust consists of all or part of the assets of several accounts which have been established with the applicant, and

(2) The trust is described in section 401(a) and is exempt from tax under section 501(a), or is a common investment fund described in § 1.408-2(b)(5), or both.

(D) The term "employee benefit plan" means an employee benefit plan as defined in section 3(2) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. 1002(2).

(E) The term "fiduciary records" means all matters which are written, transcribed, recorded, received or otherwise come into the possession of the applicant and are necessary to preserve information concerning the acts and events relevant to the fiduciary activities of the applicant.

(F) The term "qualified public accountant" means a qualified public accountant as defined in section 103 (a) (3) (D) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. 1023 (a) (3) (D).

(G) The term "net worth" means the amount of the applicant's assets less the amount of his liabilities, as determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(7) Special rules—(i) Passive trustee.

(A) An applicant who undertakes to act only as a passive trustee may be relieved of one or more of the requirements of this paragraph upon clear and convincing proof that such requirements are not germane, under all the facts and circumstances, to the manner in which he will administer any trust. A trustee is a passive trustee only if under the written trust instrument he has no discretion to direct the investment of the trust funds or any other aspect of the business administration of the trust, but is merely authorized to acquire and hold particular investments specified by the trust instrument. Thus, for example, in the case of an applicant who undertakes merely to acquire and hold the stock of a single regulated investment company, the requirements of paragraph (n) (6) (i) (A) (3), (i) (D), and (vi) of this section shall not apply and no negative inference shall be drawn from the applicant's failure to demonstrate his experience or competence with respect to the activities described in paragraph (n) (5) (ii) (E) to (H) of this section.

(B) The determination letter issued to an applicant who is approved by reason of this subdivision shall state that the applicant is authorized to act only as a passive trustee.

(ii) Federal or State regulation. Evidence that an applicant is subject to Federal or State regulation with respect to one or more relevant factors shall be given weight in proportion to the extent, that such regulatory standards are consonant with the requirements of section 401.

(iii) Savings account. (A) An applicant will be presumed to meet the requirements of this paragraph upon proof of the following:

(1) The investment of the trust assets will be solely in deposits in the applicant;

(2) Section 4975(c) will not apply to such investment by reason of section 4975(d) (4); and

(3) Such deposits will be fully insured by an agency of the United States or a State.

(B) The determination letter issued to an applicant who is approved by reason of this subdivision shall state that the applicant is authorized to act as the trustee of a trust only if the requirements of paragraph (n) (7) (iii) (A) of this section are satisfied.

(iv) Notification of Commissioner. The applicant must notify the Commissioner in writing of any change which affects the continuing accuracy of any representation made in the application required by this paragraph, whether the change occurs before or after the applicant receives a determination letter. Such notification must be addressed to Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Attention: E:EP, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D.C. 20224.

(v) Substitution of trustee. No applicant shall be approved unless he undertakes to act as trustee only under trust instruments which contain a provision to the effect that the employer is to substitute another trustee upon notification by the Commissioner that such substitution is required because the applicant has failed to comply with the requirements of this paragraph or is not keeping such records, or making such returns, or rendering such statements as are required by forms or regulations.

(vi) Revocation. (A) Approval of the application required by this paragraph may be revoked for any good and sufficient reason in accordance with the procedures described in this subdivision.

(B) [Reserved]

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

Notice is hereby given that the regulations set forth in tentative form in the attached appendix are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any comments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing (preferably six copies) to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Attention: CC:LR:T, Washington, D.C. 20224, by December 15, 1975. Pursuant to 26 CFR 601.601(b), designations of material as confidential or not to be disclosed, contained in such comments, will not be accepted. Thus, persons submitting written comments should not include therein material that they consider to be confidential or inappropriate for disclosure to the public. It will be presumed by the Internal Revenue Service that every written comment submitted to it in response to this notice of proposed rule making is intended by the person submitting it to be subject in its entirety to public inspection and copying in accordance with the procedures of 26 CFR 601.702(d) (9). Any person submitting written comments who desires an opportunity to comment orally at a public hearing on these proposed regulations should submit a request, in writing, to the Commissioner by December 15, 1975. DONALD C. ALEXANDER,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

PREAMBLE

This documents contains proposed amendments to the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 1) in order to conform such regulations to the provisions of section 1022 (d) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 relating to certain custodial accounts and annuity contracts.

Prior law permitted custodial accounts to be used in lieu of a trust under any qualified pension, profit-sharing, or stock bonus plan, provided that the custodian was a bank, and provided also that the custodial account met the requirements that a trust would have had to have met for qualification. Further, the custodial account's assets had to be invested solely in open-end mutual funds or solely in annuity, endowment, or life insurance contracts (and certain other conditions had to be met).

Section 1022 (d) allows entities other than banks to be custodians of qualified custodial accounts in order to enhance competition and open the field to other suitable types of enterprises. An entity other than a bank holding the assets of the custodial account must satisfy the Commissioner of Internal Revenue that it will hold the assets in a manner consistent with the general eligibility requirements for tax qualification. Section 1022 (d) also permits the investment of the assets of the custodial account without special limitations. In addition, in order to allow the participation of the insurance industry, section 1022 (d) permits an annuity contract to be used in lieu of a trust under any qualified pension or profit-sharing plan, provided that the annuity contract meets the same requirements that a trust would have to meet for qualification.

Just as the bank was treated as the trustee of a custodial account under prior law, so is another entity holding the assets of a qualified custodial account or holding a qualified annuity contract treated as the trustee under section 1022 (d).

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE REGULATIONS.

In order to conform the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 1) to the provisions of section 1022(d) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 1.401 is amended by revising section 401(f) and the historical note to read as follows:

§ 1.401 Statutory provisions; qualified pension, profit-sharing, and stock bonus plans.

Sec. 401. Qualified pension, profit-sharing, and stock bonus plans—

(f) Certain custodial accounts and annuity contracts. For purposes of this title, a custodial account or an annuity contract shall be treated as a qualified trust under this section if—

(1) The custodial account or annuity contract would, except for the fact that it is not a trust, constitute a qualified trust under this section, and

(2) In the case of a custodial account the assets thereof are held by a bank (as defined in subsection (d) (1)) or another person who demonstrates, to the satisfaction of the Secretary or his delegate, that the manner in which he will hold the assets will be consistent with the requirements of this section.

For purposes of this title, in the case of a custodial account or annuity contract treated as a qualified trust under this section by reason of this subsection, the person holding the assets of such account or holding such contract shall be treated as the trustee thereof.

[Sec. 401 as amended by sec. 2, Self-Employed Individuals Tax Retirement Act 1962 (76 Stat. 809; sec. 2(a), Act of Oct. 23, 1962 (Pub. Law 87-863, 76 Stat. 1141); sec. 106(d) (4), Social Security Amendments 1965 (79 Stat. 337); sec. 1022(d), Employee Retirement Income Security Act 1974 (88 Stat. 939)]

PAR. 2. Section 1.401-8 is redesignated as § 1.401-8A and is amended by revising the title and adding a new sentence at the end of paragraph (a) to read as follows:

§ 1.401-8A Custodial accounts prior to January 1, 1974.

(a) Treatment of a custodial account as a trust. * * * For regulations relating to the period after December 31, 1973, see § 1.401-8.

PAR. 3. A new § 401.8 is added immediately before § 1.401-8A (as redesignated by paragraph 2 of this appendix) to read as follows:

§ 1.401-8 Certain custodial accounts and annuity contracts.

(a) Treatment of a custodial account or an annuity contract as a qualified trust. Beginning on January 1, 1974, a custodial account or an annuity contract may be used, in lieu of a trust, under any qualified pension, profit-sharing, or stock bonus plan if the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section are met. A custodial account or an annuity contract may be used under such a plan, whether the plan covers common-law employees, self-employed individuals who are treated as employees by reason of section 401 (c), or both. The use of a custodial account or annuity contract as part of a plan does not preclude the use of a trust or another custodial account or another annuity contract as part of the same plan. A plan under which a custodial account or an annuity contract is used may be considered in connection with other plans of the employer in determining whether the requirements of section 401 are satisfied. For regulations relating to the period before January 1, 1974, see § 1.401-8A.

(b) Rules applicable to custodial accounts and annuity contracts. (1) Beginning on January 1, 1974, a custodial account or an annuity contract is treated as a qualified trust under section 401 if the following requirements are met:

(i) The custodial account or annuity contract would, except for the fact that it is not a trust, constitute a qualified trust under section 401; and

(ii) In the case of a custodial account, the custodian either is a bank or is another person who demonstrates, to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, that the manner in which he will hold the assets will be consistent with the requirements of section 401. Such a demonstration must be made in accordance with the provisions of § 1.401-12 (n), as if the custodial account were a trust described in § 1.401-12 (c) (1) (i).

(2) If a custodial account would, except for the fact that it is not a trust, constitute a qualified trust under section 401, it must, for example, be created pursuant to a written agreement which constitutes a valid contract under local law. In addition, the terms of the contract must make it impossible, prior to the satisfaction of all liabilities with respect to the employees and their beneficiaries covered by the plan, for any part of the funds of the custodial account to be used for, or diverted to, purposes other than for the exclusive benefit of the employees or their beneficiaries as provided for in the plan (see paragraph (a) of § 1.401-2).

(3) An annuity contract would, except for the fact that it is not a trust, constitute a qualified trust under section 401 if it is purchased by an employer for an employee under a plan which meets the requirements of section 404 (a) (2) and the regulations thereunder, except that the plan may be either a pension or a profit-sharing plan.

(c) Effect of this section. (1) (i) Any custodial account or annuity contract which satisfies the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section is treated as a qualified trust for all purposes of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. Such a custodial account or annuity contract is treated as a separate legal person which is exempt from the income tax under section 501 (a). In addition, the person holding the assets of such account or holding such contract is treated as the trustee thereof. Accordingly, such person is required to file the returns described in sections 6033 and 6047 and to supply any other information which the trustee of a qualified trust is required to furnish.

(ii) Any procedure which has the effect of merely substituting one custodian for another shall not be considered as terminating or interrupting the legal existence of a custodial account which otherwise satisfies the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section.

(2) (i) The beneficiary of a custodial account which satisfies the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section is taxed in accordance with section 402. In determining whether the funds of a custodial account are distributed or made available to an employee or his beneficiary, the rules which under section 402 (a) are applicable to trusts will also apply to the custodial account as though it were a separate legal person and not an agent of the employee.

(ii) If a custodial account which has qualified under section 401 fails to qualify under such section for any taxable year, such custodial account will not thereafter be treated as a separate legal person, and the funds in such account shall be treated as made available within the meaning of section 402 (a) (1) to the employees for whom they are held.

(3) The beneficiary of an annuity contract which satisfies the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section is taxed as if he were the beneficiary of an annuity contract described in section 403 (a).

(d) Definitions. For purposes of this section—

(1) The term "bank" means a bank as defined in section 401 (d) (1).

(2) The term "annuity" means an annuity as defined in section 401 (g). Thus, any contract or certificate issued after December 31, 1962, which is transferable is not treated as a qualified trust under this section.

(e) Cross reference. For the requirement that the assets of an employee benefit plan be placed in trust, and exceptions thereto, see section 403 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. 1103, and the regulations prescribed thereunder by the Secretary of Labor.

Proposed Expenses of the Walnut Marketing Board, and Rates of Assessment, for 1975-76 Marketing Year

Notice is hereby given of a proposal regarding expenses of the Walnut Marketing Board, and rates of assessment, for the 1975-76 marketing year. That year began August 1, 1975. The proposal is pursuant to §§ 984.68 and 984.69 of the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 984, as amended (7 CFR Part 984). The amended marketing agreement and order regulate the handling of walnuts grown in California, Oregon, and Washington, and are effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674). The proposal is based on a recommendation of the Board.

The proposed expenses total $218,665; the proposed assessment rates are 0.125 cent per pound for inshell walnuts and 0.30 cent per pound for shelled walnuts. These rates will be applied to all merchantable walnuts handled or declared for handling during the 1975-76 marketing year. Such rates of assessment are expected to provide sufficient funds to meet the estimated expenses of the Board.

Consideration will be given to any written data, views, or arguments pertaining to the proposal which are received by the Hearing Clerk, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Room 112, Administration Building, Washington, D.C. 20250, not later than October 31, 1975. All written submissions made pursuant to this notice should be in quadruplicate and will be made available for public inspection at the office of the Hearing Clerk during regular business hours (7 CFR 1.27(b)).

The proposal is as follows:

§ 984.327 Expenses of the Walnut Marketing Board and rates of assessment for the 1975-76 marketing year.

(b) Rates of assessment. The rates of assessment for said marketing year, payable by each handler in accordance with § 984.69, are fixed at 0.125 cent per pound for merchantable inshell walnuts handled or declared for handling, and 0.30 cent per pound for merchantable shelled walnuts handled or declared for handling.

Dated: October 9, 1975.

Federal Aviation Administration

[14 CFR Part 39]

[Airworthiness Docket No. 75-SW-69]

BELL MODELS 204B, 205A-1, AND
212 HELICOPTERS

Proposed Airworthiness Directives

The Federal Aviation Administration is considering amending Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations by adding an airworthiness directive applicable to Bell Models 204B, 205A-1, and 212 helicopters. There have been several cases reported of the emergency exit panels leaving the three noted Bell helicopter models. One exit panel allegedly hit a main rotor blade as it left the helicopter. The emergency exit may have been opened by a passenger and not properly reinstalled prior to helicopter departure. Since loss of an exit panel could occur on other helicopters of the same type designs, the proposed airworthiness directive would require compliance with Bell Helicopter Company Service Bulletin No. 204-75-2, No. 205-75-6, and No. 212-75-7 for the Bell Models 204B, 205A-1, and 212, respectively. All Model 205A helicopters have been converted to Model 205A-1 helicopters.

Interested persons are invited to participate in the making of the proposed rule by submitting such written data, views, or comments as they may desire. Communications should identify the docket number and be submitted in triplicate to the Regional Counsel, Southwest Region, Federal Aviation Administration, P.O. Box 1689, Fort Worth, Texas 76101. All communications received on or before November 20, 1975, will be considered by the Director before taking action upon the proposed rule. The proposals contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received. All comments will be available, both before and after the closing date for comments, in the office of Regional Counsel, for examination by interested persons.

This amendment is proposed under the authority of sections 313(a), 601, and 603 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, 1423) and of section 6(c) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)).

In consideration of the foregoing, it is proposed to amend § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

BELL. Applies to Bell Models 204B, 205A-1, and 212 helicopters certificated in all categories.

Compliance required within 100 hours' time in service after the effective date of this AD unless already accomplished and, thereafter, at intervals not to exceed 300 hours' time in service from the last inspection.

To deter unauthorized access to the emergency exit operating handle and to improve identification of the emergency exit handle and the main sliding door handle, accomplish the following:

(a) Inspect the helicopter main passenger doors and the four emergency exits for proper and legible placards and for proper exit handle covers, both inside and outside the helicopter, in accordance with the figures in Bell Helicopter Company Service Bulletins noted in paragraph (c).

(b) If proper and legible placards and proper exit handle covers are not installed, install the placards and handle covers as specified in Bell Helicopter Company Service Bulletins noted in paragraph (c).

(c) The following Bell Helicopter Company service bulletins, or later approved revisions thereto, apply to the noted helicopter models.

(1) Bell Helicopter Company Service Bulletin No. 204-75-2 dated September 16, 1975, for Model 204B.

(2) Bell Helicopter Company Service Bulletin No. 205-75-6, Revision A, dated August 22, 1975, for Model 205A-1.

(3) Bell Helicopter Company Service Bulletin No. 212-75-7, Revision A, dated August 22, 1975, for Model 212.

(d) Equivalent means of compliance with this AD may be approved by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, Flight Standards Division, Federal Aviation Administration, Southwest Region, Fort Worth, Texas.

(e) Upon request of the operator, an FAA maintenance inspector, subject to prior approval of the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, Flight Standards Division, Federal Aviation Administration, Southwest Region, may adjust the repetitive inspection intervals specified in this AD to permit compliance at an established inspection period of the operator if the request contains substantiating data to justify the increase for that operator.

(f) The manufacturer's specifications and procedures identified and described in this directive are incorporated herein and made a part hereof pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(1). All persons affected by this directive who have not already received these documents from the manufacturer may obtain copies upon request to Service Manager, Bell Helicopter Company, P.O. Box 482, Fort Worth, Texas 76101. These documents may also be examined at the Office of the Regional Counsel, Southwest Region, Federal Aviation Administration, 4400 Blue Mound Road, Fort Worth, Texas, and at FAA headquarters, 800 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, D.C. A historical file on this AD which includes the incorporated material in full is maintained by the FAA at its headquarters in Washington, D.C., and at Office of Regional Counsel, Southwest Region, Federal Aviation Administration, 4400 Blue Mound Road, Fort Worth, Texas.

Issued in Fort Worth, Texas, on October 2, 1975.

SOCIÉTÉ NATIONALE INDUSTRIELLE
AÉROSPATIALE (S.N.I.A.S.) PUMA
MODEL SA. 330 SERIES HELICOPTERS

Proposed Airworthiness Directives

The Federal Aviation Administration is considering amending Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations by adding an airworthiness directive applicable to certain Puma SA.330F and SA.330G helicopters. There have been cracks occurring in the formed sheet beams under the attachment fittings for the forward engine mounts that could result in failure of the forward engine mount support structure. Since this condition is likely to exist or develop in other helicopters of the same type design, the proposed airworthiness directive would require periodic inspection of the beams for cracks and the repair and modification of the beams, as necessary, on Puma SA.330F and SA.330G helicopters.

Interested persons are invited to participate in the making of the proposed rule by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communications should identify the docket number and be submitted in duplicate to the Federal Aviation Administration, Office of the Chief Counsel, Attention: Rules Docket, AGC-24, 800 Independence Avenue SW., Washington, D.C. 20591. All communications received on or before November 17, 1975, will be considered by the Administrator before taking action upon the proposed rule. The proposals contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received. All comments will be available, both before and after the closing date for comments, in the Rules Docket for examination by interested persons.

This amendment is proposed under the authority of sections 313(a), 601, and 603, of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, and 1423), and of section 6(c) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)).

In consideration of the foregoing, it is proposed to amend § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

SOCIÉTÉ NATIONALE INDUSTRIELLE AEROSPATIALE. Applies to Puma Model SA. 330F and SA. 330G helicopters that have not been modified in accordance with Puma Service Bulletin No. 53.13.

Compliance is required within the next 50 hours' time in service after the effective date of this AD and thereafter at intervals not to exceed 50 hours' time in service since the last inspection, until accomplishment of Puma Service Bulletin No. 53.13, dated May 29, 1974, or an FAA-approved equivalent.

To prevent possible failure of the forward engine mount support structure, accomplish the following:

(a) Inspect for cracks in beams under attachment fittings for the forward engine mounts located between frames 3245 and 3550 in accordance with subparagraph 1C(1) of Puma Service Bulletin No. 05.35, dated April 9, 1974, or an FAA-approved equivalent.

(b) If cracks are found which exceed the criteria for continued service set forth in subparagraph 1C(2) of Puma Service Bulletin No. 05.35, before further flight, except that the helicopter may be flown in accordance with FAR §§ 21.197 and 21.199 to a base where the work can be performed, replace the beams in accordance with Puma Service Bulletin No. 53.13, dated May 29, 1974, or an equivalent approved by the Chief, Aircraft Certification Staff, FAA, Europe, Africa, and Middle East Region, c/o American Embassy, APO, New York, N.Y. 09667.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on October 7, 1975.

TRANSITION AREA

Proposed Alteration

The Federal Aviation Administration is considering an amendment to Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations that would alter the Selma, Ala., transition area.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Federal Aviation Administration, Southern Region, Air Traffic Division, P.O. Box 20636, Atlanta, Ga. 30320. All communications received on or before November 17, 1975, will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Administration officials may be made by contacting the Chief, Airspace and Procedures Branch. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in light of comments received.

The official docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Federal Aviation Administration, Southern Region, Room 645, 3400 Whipple Street, East Point, Ga.

The Selma transition area described in § 71.181 (40 FR 441) would be amended by deleting the present description and substituting the following therefor:

That airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface within a 12-mile radius of Craig AFB (latitude 32°20'30" N., longitude 88°59'15" W.); within an 18.6-mile radius of the Canaba VORTAC, extending clockwise from the 301° radial to the 212° radial.

A review of the airspace designation at Selma revealed the need for additional transition area to provide controlled airspace protection of aircraft executing the HI-VORTAC RWY 14L and HI-VORTAC/ILS RWY 32R instrument approach procedures to Craig Air Force Base. Additional transition area is also required north, east and west of the airport for protection of aircraft operating at less than 1,500 feet above the surface during radar vectoring operations.

This amendment is proposed under the authority of section 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1348 (a) and of section 6(c) of the Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)).

Issued in East Point, Ga., on October 2, 1975.

W. B. RUCKER,

PLENARY EXERCISE OF STATUTORY AUTHORITY OVER MOTOR CARRIER SAFETY AND HAZARDOUS MATERIALS

Extension of Comment Period

● Purpose. This notice extends the period for comments to the Advance Notice, published July 15, 1975 (40 FR 29729), clarifying the extent to which the Bureau of Motor Carrier Safety exercises statutory authority to prescribe or enforce standards or regulations in the fields of interstate motor carriage and the handling of hazardous materials. ●

The American Trucking Associations, Inc., has requested that the comment period be extended to November 28, 1975. The request argued that additional time is needed to obtain clear and direct evaluation of the proposal from motor carrier members. This, they contend, is needed to properly and effectively reply to the docket.

It has been decided that the request is reasonable, and the comment period is hereby extended to November 28, 1975.

This notice is issued under the authority of section 204 of the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended, 49 U.S.C. 304, 18 U.S.C. Chapter 39, section 6 of the Department of Transportation Act, 49 U.S.C. 1655, and the delegations of authority by the Secretary of Transportation and the Federal Highway Administrator at 49 CFR 1.48 and 49 CFR 389.4 respectively.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on October 3, 1975.

AUTOMATIC DEVICES FOR REDUCING FRONT-WHEEL BRAKING EFFORT ON COMMERCIAL MOTOR VEHICLES

Proposed Rulemaking

● Purpose. The purpose of this document is to allow public comment on a proposed rule change which would permit the front-wheel braking force to be reduced if the front-wheel antilock system fails. ●

An amendment to § 393.48 of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations (FMCSR) (49 CFR 393.48) is being considered which would allow the operation in interstate or foreign commerce of a motor vehicle having an air-mechanical or air-hydraulic brake system which automatically reduces front-wheel braking effort in the event of a failure of an antilock device on the front-wheels.

This proposal stems from petitions filed by Mack Trucks, Inc. (Mack), Ford Motor Company (Ford), and White Motor Corporation (White), manufacturers of commercial motor vehicles. The petitions are supported by correspondence and documents from Wagner Electric Corporation (Wagner), MGM Brakes (MGM), Ryder Systems, Inc. (Ryder), Western Gillette Motor Freight, Inc. (Western Gillette), Consolidated Metco, Inc. (Metco), Oil Field Haulers Conference (Oil Field Haulers), and American Trucking Associations, Inc. (ATA). The Ford, Mack and White petitions refer to the most recent rulemaking in this Docket (Notice No. 74-12), which permitted the use of automatic devices to reduce front-wheel braking effort under certain circumstances.

Mack's petition describes two situations in which application of this rule against front-wheel braking effort reduction above certain air pressures allegedly may produce safety hazards. First, it notes the possibility of front-wheel antilock failures, and asserts that, in such an eventuality, vehicle stability and controllability would be improved by limiting front-wheel braking to 50 percent throughout the entire operating range. The Ford and White petitions also support this view. Second, Mack states that certain short wheel base truck tractors equipped with the high torque front-wheel brakes mandated by Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard (FMVSS) No. 121 (49 CFR 571.121), being operated without a semitrailer, have been observed to lift their rear wheels clear of the roadway under severe braking.

The first point is supported by the Ford and White petitions, correspondence from MGM, Ryder, Metco, ATA, Oil Field Haulers, Western Gillette, and by a study (with charts) prepared by Wagner which also generally pertains to Mack's second petition point. Mack has asked for deletion of § 393.48(b)(2)(iii) or, in the alternative, to footnote that paragraph with interpretations as to its applicability, evidently so as to permit the use of Mack's proposed 50 percent limiting valve in the two circumstances described. Ford has asked for an amendment or an interpretation and White has asked for an amendment.

For many years, the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations have provided that the front-wheel braking effort on certain motor vehicles could be reduced or removed under certain roadway conditions. The device used to limit the front-wheel braking effort was under the control of the driver and it could have been used at times other than when the Regulations permitted it with a resultant degradation of braking capability. As a result of the rule making actions, the amendments to § 393.48 were issued on July 15, 1974 (39 FR 26906) which specified that on and after March 1, 1975, only automatic devices could be used to reduce front-wheel braking effort.

Section 393.48(b)(2)(iii) now provides that such devices must not—"reduce the braking force when the air pressure that transmits brake control application forces exceeds the vehicle's air compressor cut-in pressure."

The Mack petition also speaks to the problem that may occur with truck tractors when they are not coupled to semitrailers. Mack states "in the course of our brake evaluation program, it has become apparent that truck tractors incorporating high torque front brakes as mandated by FMVSS No. 121 demonstrate varying degrees of instability when subjected to severe brake applications in a bobtail configuration. This can occur despite the operation of the antilock system. In the case of very short wheel base truck tractors, we have observed the rear axle lifting clear of the roadway while the vehicle pivots about the front axle." The truck tractor when operated in a bobtail condition is a very unstable vehicle. This instability results from the fact that, in most cases, the rear axles have braking capability for the load that will be carried when the vehicle is being operated in combination with a semitrailer. The front axle of a truck tractor, and especially a Cab-Over-Engine (COE) type, has more proportionate weight on it when it is being operated in a bobtail configuration. In other words, the greater proportionate load on the front axle needs greater braking effort than the rear axle.

Mack's statement that they have observed the rear axle lifting clear of the roadway during a severe brake application on a bobtail truck tractor does not reflect an unusual situation since present-day truck tractors, that is, those without the FMVSS No. 121 brake system, have had the problem of rear wheels locking and the wheels leaving the pavement. In situations such as this, vehicles equipped with front-wheel brakes, whether they are of an antilock type or not, would pivot about the front axle. The Mack petition requests that bobtail truck tractors be allowed to reduce the braking effort to the front-wheels when being operated singly. Mack states that this can be accomplished by tying the front-wheel limiting device into the tractor protection valve. The method to be used is not set forth by Mack. It must be assumed that it will have to be a pneumatic type of control or with an electrical connection built into the tractor protection valve.

Serious consideration has been given to the request for allowing the front-wheel braking effort to be reduced to 50 percent on bobtail truck tractors. The problem of stability and control is believed to be present with bobtail tractors not equipped with the FMVSS No. 121 braking system because of rear axle braking capability greater than needed for the load. To permit the front-wheel braking effort to be reduced to 50 percent would not solve the problem. In view of this, the Mack petition to allow the reduction of the front-wheel effort by 50 percent on bobtail truck tractors is denied.

It is concluded that, while the petitions, together with the supporting documentation, contain adequate justification for rulemaking regarding reduction of front-wheel braking effort in event of antilock failure on the front axle, none of the proposed alternative solutions (deletion, interpretation or footnoting) seem as workable as a straight forward amendment to the paragraph in question. Therefore, to give all interested persons the opportunity to comment on changes in § 393.48 to achieve the objective sought by petitioners, it is proposed that paragraph (b)(2)(iii) of § 393.48 of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations, Subchapter B of Chapter III of Title 49, CFR, be revised to read as follows:

§ 393.48 Brakes to be operational.

(b) Devices to reduce or remove front-wheel braking effort.

(2) Automatic devices. An automatic device to reduce front-wheel braking effort must not—

(iii) Reduce the braking effort when the air pressure that transmits brake control application forces exceeds the vehicle's air compressor cut-in pressure, except that front-wheel braking force may be reduced by 50 percent in the event of front-wheel antilock system failure on a vehicle so equipped.

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, or arguments pertaining to this proposal.

All comments should be submitted in three copies to the Bureau of Motor Carrier Safety, Federal Highway Administration, U.S. Department of Transportation, Washington, D.C. 20590. All comments received before the close of business on January 19, 1976, will be considered before further action is taken. Comments will be available for examination in the public docket room of the Bureau of Motor Carrier Safety, Room 3401, 400 Seventh Street SW., Washington, D.C., both before and after the closing date for comments.

This notice of proposed rulemaking is issued under the authority of section 204 of the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended, (49 U.S.C. 304), section 6 of the Department of Transportation Act, (49 U.S.C. 1655), and the delegations of authority by the Secretary of Transportation and the Federal Highway Administrator at 49 CFR 1.48 and 389.4, respectively.

APPROVAL AND PROMULGATION OF IMPLEMENTATION PLANS

Sulfur Oxides Control Strategy, Montana

The purpose of this notice is to repropose regulations for the control of sulfur dioxide at the Anaconda Company's Copper smelter (Anaconda) located near Anaconda, Montana in the Helena Intrastate Air Quality Control Region and to change the date for attainment of the primary national ambient air quality standard (NAAQS) and to establish a date for attainment of the secondary NAAQS. The preamble which follows contains a discussion of the background for this action, a discussion of the air quality in the Region, a description of the proposed regulations, a discussion of the proposed primary and secondary sulfur oxides attainment dates, an announcement of a public hearing, and a request for written comments. The Administrator encourages public comment at the public hearing or in writing. The findings from all information available to the Administrator will be the basis of the Administrator's final promulgation.

BACKGROUND

Pursuant to section 110 of the Clean Air Act, the State of Montana submitted an Implementation Plan on March 22, 1972. After review, on May 31, 1972 (37 FR 10842), the Administrator approved, with specific exceptions, the Montana Implementation Plan for attainment and maintenance of the National Ambient Air Quality Standards (NAAQS) set forth at 40 CFR Part 50. Specifically, the Administrator disapproved Montana's Plan since it lacked control necessary for attainment and maintenance of the primary and secondary standards for sulfur oxides in the Helena Intrastate Region. The reason for this was that a State regulation which still exists as State law and which would have subjected Anaconda to a 90 percent control requirement as an implementation plan provision was removed from the plan prior to its submission to EPA. On July 27, 1972 (37 FR 15094), the Administrator proposed regulations to correct deficiencies in the regulatory provisions of the Montana plan. The proposed regulations included in part a sulfur dioxide emissions limitation of 7040 pounds per hour from the Anaconda smelter located near Anaconda, Montana. This limit was based upon data obtained from a single sampler maintained by the State of Montana.

Although a public hearing on the proposed regulation was conducted in Helena, Montana by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) on August 30, 1972, no final action was taken on the sulfur oxides proposed regulations because litigation between Anaconda and EPA delayed further action. On September 26, 1972, Anaconda brought an injunctive suit in the U.S. District Court to enjoin EPA from promulgating the proposed rule unless and until EPA conducted an adjudicatory hearing and unless and until EPA promulgated an environmental impact statement on the proposed regulations. On December 19, 1972, the District Court granted a declaratory judgment and a preliminary injunction. "Anaconda Co. v. Ruckelshaus, et al." 352 F. Supp. 697 (D. Colo. 1972).

On appeal, the 10th Circuit Court of Appeals reversed the United States District Court's opinion on August 8, 1973, "Anaconda Co. v. Ruckelshaus et al." 482 F.2d 1301 (10th Cir. 1973). During this litigation-caused delay, the State of Montana began to develop a SIP revision for control of sulfur oxides.

Subsequent to termination of this litigation, EPA delayed its actions pending reassessment of the supporting technical data. At a public hearing conducted in the fall of 1972, the State air quality data upon which EPA based its July 27, 1972 proposed regulations applicable to Anaconda was seriously brought into question. Accordingly, it was not considered in the regulations proposed below.

Final action on the proposal was further delayed in anticipation of an approvable state submittal of regulations with adequate compliance schedules. To date, no such submittal has been made. In the absence of an appropriate state submittal of a sulfur oxide control strategy applicable to Anaconda with adequate compliance schedules, EPA is proceeding to propose an appropriate sulfur oxides control strategy applicable to the Company.

AIR QUALITY ASSESSMENT

In order to obtain more comprehensive ambient sulfur dioxide air quality data, EPA established a three station monitoring network in the vicinity of the Anaconda smelter in April 1973 to augment the existing state operated monitoring network. Data from three stations are summarized in the table below. Other than control requirements relating to fugitive emissions, the data from these stations were not used as the basis for the control requirements contained in this proposal. This is because winter weather conditions have, in the past, made it virtually impossible to operate and maintain stations in the high terrain areas such as "C" hill where, during the winter months, the highest concentrations of SO₂ can be expected to occur. To offset the insufficiency of high terrain, winter-time data, an atmospheric dispersion model for estimating sulfur oxide concentrations in the vicinity of the Anaconda smelter was applied.

¹ No violations of standards were observed.

The model predicted a maximum annual average sulfur dioxide concentration of 115 ug/m³ to occur on elevated terrain located approximately seven kilometers southwest of the main stack serving the Anaconda smelter. The model also predicted a maximum twenty-four hour sulfur dioxide concentration of 3400 ug/m³ to occur on two points of elevated terrain located approximately three and seven kilometers southwest of the main stack. Further, the model predicts maximum three-hour sulfur dioxide concentrations of 8500 ug/m³ to occur on elevated terrain located approximately three and seven kilometers southwest of the main stack. The predicted frequency of the above 3 hour and 24 hour values was such that they could be expected to occur more than once a year. The emission limitations contained in the proposal are based upon these predicted values.

PROPOSED REGULATIONS

The high ambient sulfur dioxide levels recorded at the Hotel and Post Office stations (located approximately two and one half miles northwest of the Anaconda smelter and at an elevation 960 feet lower than the top of the main stack serving the smelter) in 1973 were greatly influenced by fugitive sulfur dioxide emissions from the buildings housing the converters and reverberatory furnaces. By mid-1973, Anaconda began to operate primary hoods on the converters and to vent what had been fugitive emissions to the main stack serving the smelter. A portion of these emissions are captured and used to produce sulfuric acid. A comparison of the 1973 and 1974 data at the Hotel and Post Office stations seems to indicate that Anaconda's efforts to reduce fugitive emissions from the converter building have improved air quality in areas greatly affected by fugitive emissions. However, since air quality can be further improved to meet ambient standards by greater capture of fugitive emissions from matte and slag transfer points, the Administrator is proposing below a regulation requiring Anaconda to continue to operate and maintain the present hooding system on the converters and to capture fugitive emissions from the matte and slag transfer points and vent such captured emissions to a stack serving the facility.

Measured air quality data and atmospheric dispersion model predicted air quality values indicate that the national sulfur oxides ambient air quality standards are exceeded in the vicinity of the Anaconda smelter and that control of fugitive emissions alone will not provide for attainment and maintenance of the ambient air quality standards. Therefore, sulfur dioxide emissions from the smelter must be reduced in order to provide for attainment and maintenance of the national ambient air quality standards. While the measured air quality data indicates that sulfur dioxide emissions should be limited to 36,700 pounds per hour, the atmospheric dispersion model predicted air quality values such that sulfur dioxide emissions would have to be limited to 10,400 pounds per hour. This disparity between the measured and atmospheric dispersion model predicted emission limitations occurs because the present ambient air quality samplers have not been operational for a sufficient amount of time during the periods of the year when maximum concentrations of sulfur dioxide are expected to occur. Also, a comparison of sulfur dioxide emissions and resultant air quality, in the vicinity of other facilities which emit large amounts of sulfur dioxide, indicates that the observed SO₂ air quality in the vicinity of the Anaconda smelter does not reflect the actual situation. Two other copper smelters with SO₂ emissions approximately one-half of Anaconda's cause ambient sulfur dioxide concentrations approximately four times those observed in the vicinity of Anaconda. The Administrator believes that the dispersion model results more accurately reflect the true sulfur dioxide ambient air quality situation in the vicinity of the Anaconda smelter. Therefore, the Administrator is proposing below a sulfur dioxide emission limitation of 10,400 pounds per hour from the smelter premises in order to provide for attainment and maintenance of the national sulfur dioxide ambient air quality standards.

Continuous monitoring of the sulfur dioxide emissions is required to ensure continued compliance with the proposed emission limitation. Appendix D to 40 CFR Part 52 specifies procedures to determine sulfur dioxide concentrations and Appendix E to 40 CFR Part 52 specifies procedures to determine volumetric flow rates. These appendices have been proposed in a separate FEDERAL REGISTER notice dated October 7, 1974 (39 FR 36018) and promulgated in a FEDERAL REGISTER notice dated February 6, 1975 (40 FR 5508). Under these appendices, compliance with the sulfur dioxide emission limitation is based on average pounds per hour of sulfur dioxide emitted over a six hour period. The six hour sampling period is incorporated to account for process fluctuations.

On July 27, 1972 (37 FR 15085), pursuant to section 110(e) of the Clean Air Act, the Administrator granted a full two-year extension of the attainment of the primary standards for sulfur oxides in the Helena Region. The extension was granted because data indicated that Anaconda could not be in final compliance before July 31, 1977.

The regulation below proposes to extend this attainment date to September 30, 1978. This later date reflects EPA's assessment of the time required to comply expeditiously with the substantive requirements of the proposal. This is consistent with the Clean Air Act requirement that compliance with regulations designed to achieve primary ambient air quality standards take place as expeditiously as is practicable. See section 110 (a) (2) (A) of the Clean Air Act. The September 30, 1978 date is also consistent with section 110(a) (2) (A)'s requirement that attainment be achieved within three years of the Administrator's promulgation of a plan.

Although the Administrator considered retaining the existing attainment date on the theory that Anaconda has been subject to an almost identical state regulation since November 23, 1968, the September 1978 date was, nevertheless, deemed to be appropriate. This is because, prior to completion of the modeling leading up to this proposal, the Company had no real way of knowing whether the July 1972 proposed emission requirements, or some other set of emission requirements, would ultimately be imposed upon it. This, in conjunction with the fact that the Company has been operating under a variance from the State regulation, led the Administrator to conclude that this proposal would constitute the first official notice to the Company that, for Federal purposes, it would have to meet a very rigid control requirement.

A public hearing on the proposed regulations will be held at Webster-Garfield Elementary School Auditorium, Front and Montana Street, Butte, Montana 59701, on November 19, 1975, beginning at 9 a.m., and, if necessary, reconvening at 7 p.m. so that all present may be heard. Copies of the proposals and the supporting technical documentation are available for inspection at the offices of the Environmental Protection Agency listed below:

Environmental Protection Agency, Region VIII, Office of Public Affairs, Suite 900, 1860 Lincoln Street, Denver, Colorado 80203.

Environmental Protection Agency, Room 329, 401 M Street SW., Washington, D.C. 20460.

Interested persons may also participate in this rulemaking by submitting written comments, preferably in triplicate, to the Office of the Regional Counsel, Environmental Protection Agency, Region VIII, Suite 900, 1860 Lincoln Street, Denver, Colorado 80203. All relevant comments received on or before November 19, 1975, will be considered. Comments received will be available for public inspection during normal business hours at the offices of the Environmental Protection Agency noted above.

This notice of proposed rulemaking is issued under the authority of sections 110(c) and 301(a) of the Clean Air Act, 42 U.S.C. 1857 et seq.

Dated: October 1, 1975.

JOHN QUARLES,
Acting Administrator,
Environmental Protection Agency.

As a minimum, any such proposed schedule shall contain the actions specified in subparagraph (2) (i) (a)-(e) of this paragraph. Additionally, no such compliance schedule may provide for final compliance after September 30, 1978. If approved by the Administrator, such compliance schedule shall satisfy the compliance schedule requirements of subparagraph (2) (i) of this paragraph for the affected source. If approved by the Administrator, such compliance schedule shall satisfy the compliance schedule requirements of this paragraph for the affected source. If disapproved by the Administrator, the requirements of subparagraph (2) (i) of this paragraph shall apply to the affected source.

Such certification shall include, as a minimum, a performance or stack test, conducted according to the procedures specified in subparagraph (4) (ii) of this paragraph, for each stack which emits 5 percent or more of the total potential (without emissions controls) hourly sulfur oxides emissions from the source. Notice shall be given to the Administrator at least 30 days prior to conducting a performance test(s) to afford him the opportunity to have an observer present. The Administrator may request whatever supporting information he considers necessary to determine the validity of the certification. (ii) No later than May 31, 1978 and at such other times in the future as the Administrator may specify, the sulfur dioxide concentration measurement system(s) and stack gas volumetric flow rate measurement system(s) installed and used pursuant to this paragraph shall be demonstrated to meet the measurement system performance specifications prescribed in Appendices D and E to this part, respectively.

(iii) The Administrator shall be notified at least 30 days in advance of the start of the field test period required in Appendices D and E to this part to afford the Administrator the opportunity to have an observer present.

(iv) The sampling point for monitoring emissions shall be in the duct at the centroid of the cross section if the cross sectional area is less than 4.647 m² (50 ft²) or at a point no closer to the wall than 0.914 m (3 ft) if the cross sectional area is 4.647 m² (50 ft²) or more. The monitor sample point shall be in an area of small spatial concentration gradient and shall be representative of the average concentration of the duct.

(v) The measurement system(s) installed and used pursuant to this section shall be subjected to the manufacturer's recommended zero adjustment and calibration procedures at least once per 24-hour operating period unless the manufacturer(s) specifies or recommends calibration at shorter intervals, in which case such specifications or recommendations shall be followed. Records of these procedures shall be made which clearly show instrument readings before and after zero adjustment and calibration.

(vi) Six-hour average sulfur dioxide emission rates shall be calculated in accordance with subparagraph (4) of this paragraph and recorded daily.

(vii) The owner or operator of the smelter subject to this paragraph shall maintain a record of all measurements required by this paragraph. Measurement results shall be expressed as pounds of sulfur dioxide emitted per six-hour period for those stacks which emit five percent or more of the potential (without emission controls) emissions from the facility.

(viii) Six-hour average values calculated pursuant to subparagraph (4) of this paragraph shall be reported as of each hour for the preceding six-hour period. Results shall be summarized monthly and shall be submitted to the Administrator within 15 days after the end of each month. A record of such measurements shall be retained for at least two years following the date of such measurements.

(ix) The continuous monitoring and recordkeeping requirements of this subparagraph shall become applicable on July 31, 1978.

(4) (i) Compliance with the requirements of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall be determined using the continuous measurement system(s) installed, calibrated, maintained and operated in accordance with the requirements of subparagraph (3) of this paragraph. For all stacks equipped with the measurement system(s) required by subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, a six-hour average sulfur dioxide emission rate shall be calculated as of the end of each clock hour for the preceding six hours in the following manner:

(a) Divide each six-hour period into twenty-four 15-minute segments.

(b) Determine on a compatible basis a sulfur dioxide concentration and stack gas flow rate for each 15-minute period for all affected stacks. These measurements may be obtained either by continuous integration of sulfur dioxide concentrations and stack gas flow rates (from the respective affected facilities) recorded during the 15-minute period or from the arithmetic average of any number of sulfur dioxide concentration and stack gas flow readings equally spaced over the 15-minute period. In the latter case, the same number of concentration readings shall be taken in each 15-minute period and shall be similarly spaced within each 15-minute period.

(c) Calculate the arithmetic average (lbs SO₂/hr) from all twenty-four emission rate measurements in each six-hour period for each stack.

(d) Total the average sulfur dioxide emission rates for all affected stacks.

(ii) Notwithstanding the requirements of subparagraph (4) (i) of this paragraph, compliance with the requirements of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall also be determined by using the methods described below at such times as may be specified by the Administrator. For all stacks equipped with the measurement system(s) required by subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, a six-hour average sulfur dioxide emission rate (lbs SO₂/hr) shall be determined as follows:

(a) The test of each stack emission rate shall be conducted while the processing units, venting emissions through such stack, are operating at or above the maximum rate at which they will be operated and under such other relevant conditions as the Administrator shall specify based on representative performance of the smelter units.

(b) Concentrations of sulfur dioxide in emissions shall be determined by using Method 8 as described in Part 60 of this chapter. The analytical and computational portions of Method 8 as they relate to determination of sulfuric acid mist and sulfur trioxide as well as isokinetic sampling may be omitted from the over-all test procedure.

(c) Three independent sets of measurements of sulfur dioxide concentrations and stack gas volumetric flow rates shall be conducted during three six-hour periods for each stack. Each six-hour period will consist of three consecutive two-hour tests. Measurements need not necessarily be conducted simultaneously of emissions from all stacks on the smelter premises. All tests must be completed within a 72-hour period.

(d) In using Method 8, traversing shall be conducted according to Method 1 as described in Part 60 of this chapter. The minimum sampling volume for each two-hour test shall be 40 cubic feet corrected to standard conditions, dry basis.

(e) The volumetric flow rate of the total effluent from each stack evaluated shall be determined by using Method 2 as described in Part 60 of this chapter and traversing according to Method 1. Gas analysis shall be performed by using the integrated sample technique of Method 3 as described in Part 60 of this chapter. Moisture content shall be determined by use of Method 4 as described in Part 60 of this chapter, except that stack gases arising only from a sulfuric acid production unit may be considered to have zero moisture content.

(f) The gas sample shall be extracted at a rate proportional to gas velocity at the sampling point.

(g) For each two-hour test, the sulfur dioxide emission rate for each stack shall be determined by multiplying the stack gas volumetric flow rate (ft³/hr at standard conditions, dry basis) by the sulfur dioxide concentration (lb/ft³ at standard conditions, dry basis). The sulfur dioxide emission rate in lbs/hr for each stack is determined by calculating the arithmetic average of three independent six-hour periods, each consisting of three consecutive two-hour tests.

(h) The sum total of sulfur dioxide emissions from the smelter premises in lbs/hr is determined by adding together the emission rates (lbs/hr) from all stacks equipped with the measurement systems required by subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

(iii) A violation of the requirements of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall occur whenever the total sulfur dioxide emission rate determined according to subparagraph (4) (i) or (ii) of this paragraph exceeds the sulfur dioxide emission rate specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

2. Section 52.1375 is amended to read as follows:

§ 52.1375 Attainment dates for national standards.

The following table presents the latest dates by which the national standards will be attained. These dates reflect the information presented in Montana's plan, except where noted.

Report and order—Proceeding Terminated. In the matter of amendment of § 73.202(b), Table of assignments, FM Broadcast Stations, (Jefferson City, Missouri), Docket No. 20401, RM-2363.

1. The Commission has before it a "Notice of proposed rulemaking" (40 FR 14946), issued in response to a petition filed by George E. Bryant, proposing assignment of Channel 269A to Jefferson City, Missouri (pop. 32,407), county seat and State capital, as its third FM assignment.¹ We requested information on the effect this assignment would have on future FM channels available to Centra, Missouri (pop. 3,618), a nearby community that does not have a local broadcast facility.² Comments were received in support of the proposed rule making from CLW Broadcasters ("CLW"), Chattanooga, Tennessee, apparent successor-in-interest to petitioner.³

2. CLW's comments were received by the Commission on June 16, 1975, along with its request for late acceptance. The cut-off date had been extended once, at CWL's request, to June 9, 1975.⁴ A second request for extension to June 13 was denied.⁵ CLW's only reason for late filing was a miscalculation in delivery time of the engineering study it had commissioned. We do not find its argument persuasive, especially since CLW not only missed our extended deadline, but also missed its own requested deadline.

3. Furthermore, even if its comments had been timely filed, they are clearly inadequate. CLW has not stated its intention to apply for the channel if assigned and to promptly build a station if authorized. Rather, it offered only the statement that it "is interested in forming a group to apply for an FM broadcast station construction permit" if the channel is assigned. To insure that a channel

³ 40 FR 22847 (May 16, 1975).

⁴ Mimeo 51507 released June 16, 1975. We denied the extension because CLW's motion was untimely since it was filed less than the required seven days before the filing deadline. See § 1.46(b) and 39 FR 43301 (1974). The Commission acted on the motion June 11, 1975.

If CLW forms a group which intends to operate a station, or if another interested party appears, we can again consider the matter through the filing of a new petition for rule making. Until such time, the proposal must be denied without prejudice.

4. Accordingly, it is ordered, That the subject proposal for rule making is denied, and that this proceeding is terminated.

Proposed Guides for Statistical Disclosure

The Commission today authorized the publication for public comment of proposed Guides 61 and 3, "Statistical Disclosure by Bank Holding Companies," of the Guides for the Preparation and Filing of Registration Statements under the Securities Act of 1933 and the Guides for the Preparation and Filing of Reports and Registration Statements under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (hereafter, the "Guides for the Preparation and Filing of Reports and Proxy and Registration Statements under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934"), respectively. The proposed guides are not rules of the Commission nor are they published as bearing the Commission's official approval; they represent policies and practices followed by the Commission's Division of Corporation Finance in administering the disclosure requirements of the federal securities laws. Moreover, it should be noted that although the guides are published for comment, the Division of Corporation Finance has been issuing comments similar in substance to some of the proposed guides in reviewing registration statements and will continue to issue such comments in reviewing registration statements during the comment period.

GENERAL BACKGROUND

THE DISCLOSURE SYSTEM

Congress in enacting the Federal securities statutes created a continuous disclosure system designed to protect investors and to assure the maintenance of fair and honest securities markets. Congress felt that a disclosure law would provide the best protection for investors. In other words, if the investor had available to him all the material facts concerning a security and its issuer, he would then be in a position to make an informed judgment whether or not to buy, hold or sell the security. In order to provide such information to investors, Congress determined that a distribution of securities requires the filing of a registration statement with the Commission and the delivery to investors of a prospectus containing accurate and current information concerning the issuer and its securities. In addition, in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act), Congress provided for periodic reporting by issuers whose securities were held by the public so that there would be continuous disclosure available to the market place. The Commission, in administering and implementing the objectives of these statutes, has sought to coordinate and integrate the disclosure system, with a view toward the fundamental purposes of the Securities Act of 1933 (Securities Act):

To provide full and fair disclosure of the character of the securities sold in interstate commerce and through the mails, and to prevent fraud in the sale thereof * * *

When choosing among investment opportunities, investors are primarily interested in future earnings potential. Recognizing this, the staff of the Commission has encouraged registrants to provide full disclosure of those factors which have a material effect upon historical earnings or which may have a material effect upon earnings. Changes in the nature of the banking business have influenced the type of disclosure that is most meaningful. As banking has diversified both geographically and in terms of the nature of business activities undertaken, it has become increasingly difficult for the investor to identify the sources of income of the bank. Since various sources of income can have a wide range of risk characteristics, the investor may have difficulty assessing the future earnings potential of a bank or bank holding company. In addition, in some circumstances, future earnings may be not so much a function of prior years' results as they are a function of present and future economic conditions. In other words, evaluations about future earnings which are extrapolated from prior experience may not be sufficient, especially during periods of rapid changes in the business environment.

Recent events, including significant changes in the economy, have increased interest in, and the need for, more meaningful disclosures relating to the loan and investment portfolios of banks. Public statements by bank regulators have indicated that the economy and bank practices may have affected the risk characteristics of the portfolios. Independent public accountants with banks as clients have expressed similar concerns. Accounting Series Release No. 166 (December 23, 1974) addressed this point specifically by calling for substantial and specific disclosure of changes in the risk characteristics of loan portfolios. In light of these concerns, the Commission's staff has been seeking more meaningful disclosure about loan portfolios and related items.

THE ROLE OF THE COMMISSION'S STAFF IN REVIEWING FILINGS

Certain misconceptions about the role of the staff and of the Commission in reviewing registration statements have come to the attention of the Division in connection with the recently sought disclosure about bank holding companies. The misconceptions are not applicable only to bank holding companies, but they have surfaced in that context. The Division is therefore taking this opportunity to dispel certain of these misunderstandings.

The staff of the Division reviews registration statements with the objective of attaining, to the extent feasible, full and fair disclosure. Before the staff, through delegated authority, accelerates the effective date of a registration statement, it must give due regard to the adequacy of the information available about the issuer and to the protection of investors.¹ Although the burden of making full disclosure of all material facts rests solely on the issuer of the securities, and cannot be shifted to the staff, the staff nevertheless has a responsibility to satisfy itself that the disclosure in the registration statement is as complete as feasible under the circumstances. This is as true with bank holding companies as it is with any other type of issuer. The changing nature of our economy means that the staff must be able to address areas that are of current significance or concern; the flexibility of the review process is intended to achieve this.

One misconception is that the staff cannot raise comments about a registration statement if it did not raise the same comments the last time the issuer or a similar issuer was in registration. This is contrary to the above described objective of staff review. The purpose of staff review is to try to attain as complete disclosure as feasible in light of present considerations and concerns. Comments that were appropriate last year may not be appropriate this year due to changing economic conditions; comments that no one considered raising last year may be the most critical this year for the same reason. In addition, a registration statement may have received a cursory form of review in the past so that detailed questions were not raised² or, as happens, there may have been inadvertence on the part of the staff.

It has also been asserted, in the same context, that if information is not specifically called for by an item in the registration form, it need not be provided to the staff or included in the registration statement. Again, this is contrary to the basic purpose of the disclosure system. The disclosure setting changes with economic change; it is not possible at any point in time to determine what items will always be material and to thereafter rely solely on disclosure of them. It is for this reason that Rule 408 (17 CFR

* Commissioner Hooks absent.

230.408) under the Securities Act and Rule 12b-20 (17 CFR 240.12-20) under the Exchange Act require that, in addition to the information expressly required to be included in a registration statement or report there shall be added such further material information, if any, as may be necessary to make the required statements, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

To fulfill its function of seeking full disclosure, to the extent feasible, the staff generally asks for "supplemental information" from registrants to evaluate the adequacy of the information that is disclosed in the registration statement. Obtaining and analyzing such supplemental information is often a vital part of the staff's review. The fact that the staff asks for and receives supplemental information does not mean that it will appear in the registration statement. The staff seeks such information because it believes that the information may be material in its analysis of the disclosure in the registration statement, both in ascertaining, to the extent feasible, whether the registration statement contains adequate information and in determining what comments, if any, to make. Accordingly, it is unacceptable for a registrant to withhold information from the staff on the grounds that the information is "immaterial" in the registrant's view.

In connection with this, it should be noted that the determination of materiality depends on particular facts and is not subject to objective rules. Particularly in the case of bank holding companies, where the figures may be large, it has been contended that a certain figure is not material in relation to the total dollar amount of the loan portfolio. Although this may be true, the total dollar amount of the loan portfolio is not the only reference point. There may be an impact on income or equity or there may be a trend that might be of importance to an investor. The test for materiality as enunciated by the Supreme Court is whether a reasonable investor might consider the particular fact important in making an investment decision.³

It is in the context of these misunderstandings and with the intention of clarifying them as well as clarifying the type of disclosure that the Commission's staff expects from bank holding companies, that the Commission has authorized the publication for comment of these guides. As these guides were being prepared, the Commission's staff consulted extensively with representatives of the Federal Reserve Board, the Comptroller of the Currency and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation through an Inter-agency Bank Disclosure Coordinating Group. Because of their expertise in banking matters, the banking agencies were of assistance in providing the Commission with information about the operations and activities of banks. The Commission recognizes that the type of information described in the proposed guides pertains to banks which are held by public bank holding companies since it is only these bank holding companies that are subject to the registration requirements of the Securities Act. However, the Commission understands that the bank regulatory agencies are considering obtaining some of the same information about banks subject to their jurisdiction through increased disclosure in the Call Reports required to be filed by banks, thus encouraging a system of coordinated disclosure.

Banks are regulated by various governmental agencies in order to assure that they are sound and that they can perform their role in our economy in a satisfactory manner. That regulation involves examination, reporting and enforcement. Regulation by the bank regulatory agencies, however, cannot substitute for the full disclosure that is required under the federal securities laws when an issuer proposes to sell its securities to public investors or its securities are being traded in the public markets. With these guides, the Division seeks to obtain data that would, to the extent feasible, provide more meaningful information about the specific bank holding company and enable investors to make meaningful comparisons among bank holding companies.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

Proposed Guides 61 and 3 would be applicable to Securities Act registration statements (17 CFR 239.4-61) and Exchange Act registration statements on Form 10 (17 CFR 249.210), annual reports on Form 10-K (17 CFR 249.310), and proxy statements (17 CFR 240.14a-1 to 240.14a-103). The title of the Exchange Act guides has been amended to include "proxy statements." This amendment does not affect the applicability of the existing guides.

The Division believes that having the same type of statistical information available about all bank holding companies on a regular periodic basis would make the information more useful to investors. The guides specify disclosures of certain statistics relating to loans and related items, and are intended to apply only to one part of the bank holding company prospectus, proxy statement or report, the description of business. These guides are not all inclusive and in no way limit the type of information that may be required. Appropriate disclosure must always depend on the facts at the time. Although the guides give registrants descriptions of certain information that should be disclosed, they cannot cover every situation; the staff will still request supplemental information when appropriate to aid in the analysis of the information provided and may request additional disclosures.

In the preparation of the guides the staff has been mindful of the investor's need to assess uncertainties. The focus of many of the disclosures suggested is to provide information to help differentiate among banks as to sources of income and exposure to risks. Thus, for example, the registrant is asked to provide a breakdown of loan portfolios by types of loan. With information of this kind the investor is assisted in evaluating the potential impact of economic events of the future which may not be anticipated at the time of preparation of the registration statement. The same concept of providing information for risk assessment underlies the suggestions for disclosure of sources of funds and sensitivities to interest rate fluctuations. Among other things, this information should help the investor to evaluate the ability of the bank to move into or out of situations with favorable or unfavorable risk/return characteristics.

The proposed guides contain nine sections, each dealing with a particular area of statistical disclosure for bank holding companies. The first section, "Distribution of Assets, Liabilities and Capital," would require that balance sheet data for the past five years be presented in terms of daily averages and in terms of percentages of total assets, and total liabilities and capital. The percentage of assets associated with foreign operations would also be disclosed under certain specified conditions. The second section, "Investment Portfolio," would require the furnishing of specific information concerning the investment portfolio at the end of each of the last five fiscal years and any interim period presented. In addition, the portfolio at the end of the latest period would be separated into ranges of maturities and the weighted average interest rate for each range of maturities would be disclosed.

The proposed third section, "Loan Portfolio", sets forth five areas of disclosure relating to the registrant's loan portfolio. The disclosures include a breakdown of the types of loans in the portfolio at the end of each of the last five years and any interim period presented. Generally, the breakdown would follow the classifications in the banking regulators' Call Reports, but further elaboration might be necessary in some cases. In addition, the disclosures with respect to the loan portfolio would include information as of the end of the latest fiscal year about the portfolio's sensitivity to changes in interest rates and its range of maturities.

The proposed third section would also require disclosures relating to the risk aspects of the registrant's loan portfolio. The Division recognizes the complexities in this area and the difficulty of obtaining meaningful information. Therefore, three alternatives are being proposed and specific comment is invited on the form of guide that would result in the most meaningful information to investors. The first alternative would require disclosure relating to loans which are designated "nonperforming"—generally those loans 60 days past due or which have been renegotiated because of the weakened condition of the borrower. The aggregate amount of each category and the impact on income or loss of interest on such loans would have to be disclosed. Similar information would have to be provided for all loans which, in management's opinion, involve a reasonable probability that principal and interest, in whole or in part, may not be collectable. This would include any "nonperforming" loans that involved such reasonable probability, as well as any other loans that came within that standard.

The second alternative is exactly the same as the first except that it does not call for disclosure of the aggregate amount of either "nonperforming" or "reasonable probability of noncollectability" loans or for information about collateral. The third alternative would require the same information about nonperforming loans as the second alternative, and would in addition seek information about loans involving "expected losses," including the aggregate amount of such loans.

The fourth section, "Deposits, Long-Term Debt and Funds Borrowed," specifies the statistical disclosure to be made with respect to the composition of the registrant's deposits, long-term debt and funds borrowed with specific disclosure of the maturities of time deposits of $100,000 or more. The fifth section, "Return on Equity and on Assets," would require for each period disclosures of the percentage of income to average stockholders' equity and to average total assets. Under the sixth section, "Interest Rates and Interest Differential," the registrant would furnish a comparison of the average interest rates earned and paid for each reported period. In addition, dollar amounts of changes in income and expense for earning assets and for borrowed funds for the last two fiscal years and any interim period presented would be required, as well as the net interest differential.

Certain disclosure requirements relating to the registrant's international banking operations are set forth in the seventh section, "Foreign Banking Operations." Comment is specifically requested on whether "foreign banking operations" should be defined as business transacted through foreign branches, or business with foreign obligors or depositors whether through foreign branches or not, or whether another definition would be preferable. Until such time as there is a definition of "foreign banking operations," the staff will accept disclosure based on the registrant's own definition, as long as that definition is disclosed. It is anticipated that the guides, particularly with respect to foreign banking activities, will be revised based on further experience.

The eighth section, "Commitments," sets forth disclosure concerning commitments for future loans, including firm lines of credit. The proposed guide would require information as of the end of the most recent fiscal year and any subsequent period about unused and used commitments broken down into those made for commercial and industrial loans, loans to financial institutions, and mortgages. A proposed definition of commitment for these purposes is also included. These disclosures are designed to provide investors with information about the possible future application of funds.

The ninth section, "Summary of Loan Loss Experience," would require an analysis of the registrant's loan loss experience for the last ten years and any interim period presented. Certain portions of this analysis are keyed to the types of loans presented in the disclosure of the loan portfolio required under Section three (Loan Portfolio). One of the items to be disclosed is the additions to the reserve charged to operating expense. A description of the factors which influenced management's judgment in determining the amount of the provision for loan losses would be required. The single statement that the amount is based on management's judgment is not sufficient.

It should be emphasized in this connection that the formulas established by bank regulatory agencies represent a statistical technique for providing additions to the reserve based upon the average loss experience of the past. While such an approach is a reasonable starting point for determining an adequate provision, it does not take into account changing circumstances which may require a smaller or larger amount to be provided. Where the amount actually provided is not based on a statistical analysis of past experience, issuers should so indicate and should explain the reasons for any variance.

OPERATION OF THE PROPOSED GUIDES

The Division recognizes that some of the information called for by the proposed guides may not be presently available without undue burden or expense. Therefore, if the guides are adopted, they would operate prospectively as to certain items. An example of such an item would be the area of loan loss experience in previous years.

The Division is mindful of the cost to registrants and others of its proposals and recognizes its responsibilities to weigh with care the costs and benefits which result from its practices. Accordingly, the Division specifically invites comments on the cost to registrants of complying with the proposed guides.

The Commission has authorized the publication for comment of proposed Guides 61 and 3, pursuant to sections 7 and 10 of the Securities Act of 1933 and sections 12, 13 and 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. All interested persons are invited to submit their views or comments on the guides to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549, on or before November 30, 1975. Such communications should refer to File No. S7-589 and will be available for public inspection. The text of the proposed guides is attached below.

PROPOSED GUIDE 61—GUIDES FOR THE PREPARATION AND FILING OF REGISTRATION STATEMENTS UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

STATISTICAL DISCLOSURE BY BANK HOLDING COMPANIES

This guide applies to the description of business required in registration statements filed on Forms S-1 (Item 9) (17 CFR 239.11), S-7 (Item 5) (17 CFR 239.26) and S-14 (Item 1) (17 CFR 239.23).

Information furnished in accordance with this guide should be set forth in the order appearing below for the periods specified. When the term "reported period" is used in the guide, it refers to each of the periods described below, unless otherwise specified:

(a) Each of the last five fiscal years of the registrant,

(b) Any subsequent interim period for which an income statement is furnished, and

(c) Any additional period necessary to keep the information presented from being misleading.

If the registrant believes that the presentation described in this guide is inappropriate, or that specific items are not relevant or are otherwise inappropriate, the registrant should bring this to the staff's attention, indicating the reasons therefor. It is recognized that some of the information called for by the proposed guides, such as loan loss data in prior years, may not be presently available without undue burden or expense. If this is the case, the staff should be so advised.

With respect to daily averages, which are required by some of the guides, if the registrant does not have daily data and if management believes that averages as of ends of quarters or as of call dates would not be misleading, such averages are acceptable.

The data required by this guide should be presented in tabular format unless an alternative presentation is clearly preferable.

I. Distribution of assets, liabilities and capital. A. For each reported period, present the daily average of (1) total assets and (2) each principal category of asset.

B. As of the end of each reported period, present the percentage of (1) each principal category of assets to total assets and (2) each principal category of liabilities and capital to total liabilities and capital.

C. If during any reported period (1) the revenues or income before taxes associated with foreign operations exceeded 5 percent of the registrant's consolidated revenues or income before taxes, respectively, or (2) the assets associated with foreign operations exceeded 5 percent of total assets, present the percentage of total assets associated with foreign operations as of the end of each reported period.

NOTE: For additional statistical disclosure concerning foreign operations see Paragraph VII.

II. Investment portfolio.—A. As of the end of each reported period, present the amount of investment in obligations of (1) the U.S. Treasury, (2) U.S. government agencies and corporations, (3) state and political subdivisions (domestic), (4) other bonds, notes and debentures, and (5) corporate stock. In addition, state the average maturities as of the end of each reported period for each of the aforementioned investment categories, except (5).

B. As of the end of the latest reported period, present the amount of each investment category listed above (except (5)) which is due (1) in one year or less, (2) after one year through five years, (3) after five years through ten years, and (4) after ten years. In addition, state the weighted average interest rate for each range of maturities.

NOTE: It should be indicated whether or not yields on tax exempt obligations have been computed on a tax equivalent basis.

III. Loan portfolio.—A. Types of loans. For each reported period, present the daily average amount of each type of loan listed below. Additional detail of loans by type may be appropriate in some circumstances, such as when a substantial portion of total commercial and industrial loans is concentrated in one or a few industries.

NOTE: See "Call Report Instructions to Schedule A Loans" of the federal banking agencies for definitions of types of loans. If the registrant believes that it is appropriate to categorize loans differently than required by such Instructions, an explanation of the differences should be provided to the staff.

1. Real estate loans (include only loans secured primarily by real estate):

- (a) Construction and land development.
- (b) Secured by farmland.
- (c) Secured by 1-4 family residential properties: (1) Insured by FHA or guaranteed by VA, (2) Not insured by FHA or guaranteed by VA.
- (d) Secured by multi-family (5 or more) residential properties: (1) Insured by FHA, (2) Not insured by FHA.
- (e) Secured by nonfarm, nonresidential properties.

2. Loans to financial institutions:

- (a) Real estate investment trusts and mortgage companies.
- (b) Domestic commercial banks.
- (c) Foreign banks.
- (d) Other depository institutions.
- (e) Other financial institutions.

3. Loans for purchasing or carrying securities.

4. Commercial and industrial loans.

5. Loans to individuals for household, family, and other personal expenditures:

- (a) Installment (including credit cards).
- (b) Single payment.
- 6. All other loans.

B. Sensitivity to changes in interest rates. As of the end of the latest fiscal year and any interim period reported on, present separately the amount of loans (based on remaining scheduled repayments of principal) (1) due in one year or less and (2) due after one year (a) which have interest rates dependent upon the "prime" rate of interest, (b) which have other variable rates of interest and (c) which have fixed rates of interest.

C. Maturities. Excluding residential mortgages (1-4 family residences) and loans to individuals for household, family and other personal expenditures, present separately as of the end of the latest reported period the amount of loans maturing (based on remaining scheduled repayments of principal) (1) in one year or less, (2) after one year through five years and (3) after five years.

(3) After five years.

[Paragraphs D and E seek disclosure relating to the risk characteristics of the loan portfolio. Three alternative guides are set forth below; comment is specifically requested on these alternatives.]

ALTERNATIVE (1)

D. Nonperforming loans. As of the end of the latest two fiscal years and any interim period reported on, state separately the following for loans (a) which are contractually past due 60 days or more as to interest or principal payments, or (b) the terms of which have been renegotiated to provide a reduction or deferral of interest or principal because of a weakening in the position of the borrower (exclusive of loans in (a)):

- 1. The aggregate amount of such loans;
- 2. The gross amount of interest income which would have been recorded on such loans during the period if all such loans had been current (in accordance with their original terms) and outstanding throughout the period;

3. The amount of interest payments which were recorded in interest income (excluding reversals of previously accrued interest) during the period on these loans;

4. If any disclosure is made relating to collateral, state the portion of loans disclosed pursuant to (1) which is secured by marketable collateral.

NOTES.—1. A loan remains in category (b) until such time as the terms are substantially equivalent to terms on which loans with comparable risks are being made.

2. For filings made in the first year that the guides are in effect, information is required only for the latest fiscal year and any interim period reported on unless similar information for previous years has been included in filings with the Commission.

E. Loans involving reasonable probability of non collectability. As of the end of the latest two fiscal years and any interim period reported on, state the following for loans which, in management's opinion, involve a reasonable probability that principal and interest, in whole or in part, may not be collectable, broken down into (a) loans which are contractually past due 60 days or more as to interest or principal payments, (b) loans the terms of which have been renegotiated to provide a reduction or deferral of interest or principal because of a weakening in the position of the borrower (exclusive of loans in (a)), and (c) other loans (exclusive of loans in (a) and (b)) (for example, those single payment loans not yet due from borrowers whose financial condition raises questions as to ultimate collectability):

- 1. The aggregate amount of such loans;
- 2. The gross amount of interest income which would have been recorded on such loans during the period if all such loans had been current (in accordance with their original terms) and outstanding throughout the period;
- 3. The amount of interest payments which were recorded in interest income (excluding reversals of previously accrued interest) during the period of these loans;
- 4. If any disclosure is made relating to collateral, state the portion of loans disclosed pursuant to (1) which is secured by marketable collateral.

NOTES.—1. The determination of what amounts should be included in E is not the same as that involved in determining loan loss reserves since the "reasonable probability" test may cover loans which are not specifically reserved for and the amount to be disclosed is the full amount of such loans.

2. A loan remains in category (b) until such time as the terms are substantially equivalent to terms on which loans with comparable risks are being made.

3. For filings made in the first year that the guides are in effect, information is required only for the latest fiscal year and any interim period reported on, unless similar information for previous years has been included in filings with the Commission.

ALTERNATIVE (2)

D. Nonperforming loans. Paragraph D would be identical to D in Alternative (1) except that paragraph D.1. calling for the aggregate amount and paragraph D.4. relating to collateral would be deleted.

E. Loans Involving Reasonable Probability of NonCollectability. Paragraph E would be identical to E in Alternative (1) except that paragraph E.1. calling for the aggregate amount and paragraph E.4. relating to collateral would be deleted.

ALTERNATIVE (3)

D. Nonperforming Loans. As of the end of the latest reported period, state separately the following for loans (a) which are contractually past due 60 days or more as to interest or principal payments, or (b) the terms of which have been renegotiated because of a weakening in the position of the borrower, to provide a reduction or deferral of interest or principal:

1. The gross amount of interest income which would have been recorded on such loans during the period if all such loans had been current (in accordance with their original terms) and outstanding throughout the period.

2. The amount of interest payments which were recorded in interest income (excluding reversals of previously accrued interest) during the period of these loans.

3. If desired by management, the amount of marketable collateral which is available to cover the loans in D(a) and D(b) may be stated.

E. Loans involving expected losses. As of the latest reported period, state the following for those outstanding loans which management has taken specific account of in computing its provision for loan loss reserves because of an expected loss in whole or in part. These loans may include some portion of those in D(a), some portion of those in D(b), and any additional loans that are expected to become losses:

- 1. The aggregate amount of such loans.
- 2. The gross amount of interest income which would have been recorded on such loans during the period if all such loans had been current (in accordance with their original terms) and outstanding throughout the period.
- 3. The amount of interest payments which were recorded in interest income (excluding reversals of previously accrued interest) during the period of these loans.
- 4. If desired by management, the amount of marketable collateral which is available to cover the loans involving expected losses may be stated.

IV. Deposits, long-term debt and funds borrowed. For each reported period, present separately the average daily amount of (1) domestic demand deposits, (2) domestic savings and time deposits (excluding time deposits separately reportable under (3) below), (3) domestic time deposits issued in amounts of $100,000 or more (set forth in dollar amounts by time remaining until maturity: under 3 months, 3 to 6 months, 6 to 12 months, and over 12 months), (4) federal funds purchased and securities sold under agreements to repurchase, (5) notes and debentures, (6) mortgage indebtedness, (7) foreign demand and time deposits and (8) other funds borrowed.

V. Return on equity and on assets. For each reported period, present the percentage of net income to average stockholders' equity and to average total assets.

VI. Interest rates and interest differential.

A. For each reported period, present a summarization of the average rate earned on each major type of earning assets, the average rate paid for each major type of purchased funds and net weighted differential between rates earned and rates paid.

B. For the latest two fiscal years and any interim period reported on, present (1) the dollar amounts of the changes in interest income for earning assets (in total and broken down into loans, investments, federal funds and other appropriate categories); (2) the dollar amounts of the changes in interest expense for borrowed funds (time deposits, short-term borrowings and other appropriate categories); and (3) the net interest differential. The dollar amounts should be analyzed to indicate the amount of the change resulting from variances in volume and from variances in rates and yields.

VIII. Foreign Banking Operations.

NOTE: See paragraph I.C. for additional disclosure on international operations.

If during either of the last two reported periods, (1) the revenues or income before taxes associated with foreign banking operations exceeded 5 percent of the registrant's consolidated revenues or income before taxes, respectively, or (2) the assets associated with foreign banking operations exceeded 5 percent of total assets, furnish the following information with respect to such operations:

A. As of the end of the latest reported period present separately the aggregate amount of:

5. Loans to businesses.
6. Real estate loans.

8. Deposits.
9. Other borrowing from foreign sources.

B. As of the end of the latest reported period present separately the amount of foreign assets by appropriate geographic grouping. If five percent or more of the registrant's total assets are located in one foreign country, such country shall be identified and the amount of assets so located shall be stated separately.

C. As of the end of the latest reported period, present separately the amount of foreign assets and liabilities by currency (with disclosure of open currency positions at that date).

NOTE: If these disclosures would involve violation of the banking confidentiality requirements of any country, registrants may omit such disclosure: Provided, That a statement is made that such information has been omitted. The staff may in its discretion ask for support for the registrant's assertion that disclosure would violate any such confidentiality requirements.

D. For each reported period, present separately revenues and net income by appropriate geographic grouping. If five percent or more of the registrant's revenue or net income from operations is attributable to one foreign country, such country shall be identified and the amount of revenue or net income so attributed shall be stated separately.

(2) Bank holding companies.....
(3) Other.....
(4) Total.....
C. For mortgages.....

IX. Summary of loan loss experience. An analysis of loan loss experience shall be furnished in the following format for the latest ten fiscal years and any interim period reported on.

NOTE: As indicated in the introduction to the guide, if the loan loss data is not available without undue burden or expense, the staff should be so advised.

A. Amount of loans outstanding at end of period.

B. Amount of daily average loans outstanding.

C. Amount of valuation portion of loan loss reserve at beginning of period. A note to the table should explain that the valuation portion of the reserve is the only part available to cover loans that are charged off.

F. Net loans charged off during each period.

G. Additions to reserve charged to operating expense during each period. In connection with this information, for the latest fiscal year and any interim period reported on, describe briefly the factors which influenced management's judgment in determining the amount charged to operating expense. The statement that the amount is based on management's judgment is not sufficient.

H. For all reported periods, a breakdown of the loan loss reserve by loan type as described in paragraph E above, including also as a loan type any unallocated portion of the reserve, in terms of: (a) Dollar amounts, (b) percentages of total loans of each loan type, (c) percentages of total nonperforming loans of each loan type described in paragraph III (D).

¹ Commitments are official promises to lend that are expressly conveyed, orally or in writing, to the bank's customers. Such commitments are usually in the form of a formally executed agreement or a letter signed by one of the bank's officers. Oral commitments made by bank officers to customers are usually accompanied by some documentation for the bank's own records such as a notation in the customer's credit file. Authorizations (internal guidance lines) where the customer is not informed of the amount, however, should be excluded as should those cases where loan funds are temporarily pending loan committee approval.

³ Used commitments are all loans, less repayments of principal, made under commitments currently or previously in force.

NOTE.—The information may be furnished only for loans over $100,000 if such size cut-off is used for reporting similar data to the bank regulatory agency with jurisdiction over the registrant.

NOTE: For filings made in the first ten years that the guides are in effect, information in response to Paragraph H is required only for the latest fiscal year and any interim period reported on, unless similar information for previous years has been included in filings with the Commission.

I. Valuation portion of reserve at end of year.

WISCONSIN

Filing of Plat of Survey

OCTOBER 6, 1975.

The plat of survey of the following described land, which was accepted on December 4, 1974, will be officially filed in the Eastern States Office, Silver Spring, Maryland at 10:00 a.m. on November 17, 1975.

FOURTH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN

T. 8 N., R. 5 E.
Sec. 3: Lot 6.
Containing 3.64 acres.

This plat represents the survey of an island within the Wisconsin River. The island's formation is in all regards similar to the opposite mainland and is at an elevation of 7 feet above mean-water level. The soil is rich, sandy loam. Timber consists primarily of maple, ash, box elder and willow; the undergrowth consists mostly of young trees, brush and grass. The character of the island and the timber growth thereon attest to its existence on May 29, 1848, when Wisconsin was admitted into the Union, and at all times since. It is, therefore, held to be public land. The island is well over fifty percent upland in character within the interpretation of the Swampland Act of September 28, 1850.

Except for valid existing rights, these lands will not be subject to application, petition, location, selection or to any other type of appropriation under any public land law, including the mining and mineral leasing laws, until a further order is issued.

All inquiries relating to these lands should be sent to the Director, Eastern States, Bureau of Land Management, 7981 Eastern Avenue, Silver Spring, Maryland 20910.

[Order No. 2979]

ARCTIC NATURAL GAS TRANSPORTATION SYSTEMS

Environmental Impact Statement Revised Guidelines

SEC. Purpose. This order provides revised guidelines and assignments regarding responsibilities within the Department for work associated with the preparation of the environmental impact statement (EIS) for proposed arctic natural gas transportation systems. It supersedes Secretary's Order 2967 dated July 29, 1974.

SEC. 2. Background. On May 15, 1974, and on May 20, 1974, respectively, the Secretary of the Interior and the Chairman of the Federal Power Commission signed a Memorandum of Understanding which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on July 19, 1974 (39 FR 26433). The Memorandum of Understanding established procedures regarding the preparation of a joint environmental impact statement for proposed arctic natural gas transportation systems. Secretary's Order 2967 was issued to implement the provisions of the Memorandum. The Department formally withdrew from the Memorandum of Understanding on February 20, 1975. This action was explained and documented in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 28, 1975 (40 FR 8578).

SEC. 3. General responsibilities. (a) The Under Secretary is designated to oversee the completion of the EIS, including supervision of the Project Manager.

(b) Preparation of the EIS is a Department-wide responsibility, and full and complete cooperation of all bureaus and offices involved is essential if this important undertaking is to be done properly, professionally and thoroughly. To this end, all bureaus and offices will furnish to the Project Manager, designated per section 4(b) of this order, any and all requested assistance, information and studies; provide necessary space; and assign personnel as required to work at the direction of the Project Manager.

SEC. 4. Specific responsibilities.—(a) Secretarial Officers. All Secretarial officers shall assure that required support is provided for the effort by bureaus and offices for which they are responsible.

(1) The Solicitor shall supervise all legal work in connection with the subject-matter of this order, including any litigation arising in connection therewith. He shall furnish legal support and guidance to the Secretary, Secretarial Officers, Technical Assistant to the Under Secretary, Project Manager, and the Federal Task Force on Alaskan Oil Development.

(2) The Assistant Secretary—Energy and Minerals is responsible for pertinent economic and security analyses (this includes energy and transportation alternatives and other considerations that may be mutually prepared with other agencies); and shall provide advice to the Project Manager insofar as these analyses relate to the EIS.

(3) The Assistant Secretary—Program Development and Budget is responsible for a balanced and independent review of all decision documents and supporting analyses, including the EIS, prepared for proposed arctic natural gas transportation systems.

(b) Project Manager. A Project Manager, designated by the Secretary, shall be responsible for day-to-day supervision and overall completion of the EIS to include: Policy determinations and clarifications; project criteria and design review; technical coordination with officials of the Canadian Government, State Governments, and other Federal agencies; communication of deficiencies in applications and project descriptions to applicants; and full control of budget and manpower allocations for the project.

(c) Bureau of Land Management. The Bureau of Land Management through the Assistant Secretary—Land and Water Resources, will determine information deficiencies in applications and project descriptions; establish and coordinate interagency work groups; supervise Interior work group employees; coordinate with State Governments, other Federal agencies, and Interior bureaus and offices; coordinate preparation of general and environmental stipulations; and prepare the EIS.

(d) Technical Assistant to the Under Secretary. The Technical Assistant to the Under Secretary shall coordinate design review; assist in determining information deficiencies in applications and project descriptions; assist the Project Manager and other agencies in evaluating liquefaction plants, marine terminals, ocean transport and regasification of liquefied natural gas; and coordinate preparation of technical stipulations. It is intended that the Technical Assistant to the Under Secretary may receive necessary assistance in carrying out his responsibilities from an interagency interdisciplinary technical group such as the Technical Advisory Board of the Federal Task Force on Alaskan Oil Development.

SEC. 5. Technical Assistance. The Project Manager may request technical assistance from private contractors and, on a reimbursable basis, from other Federal agencies when the expertise or data needed is not available within the Department. The Department shall be reimbursed for these expenses by the applicant companies.

SEC. 6. Recordkeeping Requirements. Since the applicant companies will be required to reimburse the United States for expenses incurred in this effort, all bureaus and offices receiving funds for this purpose shall keep careful records of such costs. Recordkeeping and reporting in this regard shall be prescribed by the Department's Office of Budget, and administered by the Bureau of Land Management.

SEC. 7. Effective Date. This order is effective immediately. Its provisions shall remain in effect until completion of the final EIS described in section 1 of this order, or until it is amended, superseded, or revoked, whichever occurs first. However, in the absence of the foregoing action, the provisions of this order shall terminate and be considered obsolete on September 30, 1977.

Dated: October 6, 1975.

Acting Secretary of the Interior.

Social and Rehabilitation Service WORK INCENTIVE PROGRAM—SOCIAL AND SUPPORTIVE SERVICES—

Revised Limits of Entitlement, for Fiscal Year 1975

Notice is hereby given of revised limits of entitlement for the period July 1, 1974 to June 30, 1975 for child care and supportive services under the Work Incentive (WIN) Program.

Pub. L. 94-41, the joint resolution making continuing appropriations for the Fiscal Year 1976, and for other purposes, appropriated an additional amount of $70,000,000 for activities under Title IV Part C, of the Social Security Act. Of this amount $35,000,000 is available for child care and supportive services, as authorized under section 402(a) (19) (G) of the Social Security Act, for Fiscal Years 1974 and 1975, $5,462,176 for Fiscal Year 1974 expenditures and the remaining $29,537,824 for Fiscal year 1975 expenditures. The total amount now available for FY 1975 expenditures is $123,886,824 which consists of this $29,537,824 and the $94,349,000 made available in the Fiscal Year 1975 annual appropriation. Original limits of entitlement were published for the $94,349,000 in the FEDERAL REGISTER on December 31, 1974 (39 FR 45308).

Accordingly, additional Federal financial participation is available under the revised limits of entitlement published herein for Fiscal Year 1975 expenditures under the Work Incentive Program in excess of the original limits of entitlement: Provided, That claims for Federal financial participation in all Fiscal Year 1975 expenditures are received by the Secretary with postmark dated prior to February 1, 1976. The revised limits of entitlement for FY 1975 are calculated using the same formula and data used by this Department to calculate the original Fiscal Year limits of entitlement.

If the total of the claims made by February 1, 1976 is less than $123,886,824, all claims will be paid without regard to the revised limits of entitlement published herein. However, if the total of the claims exceeds $123,886,824 and there are one or more States which do not claim the entire amount of the revised entitlement by February 1, 1976, the total of the unclaimed additional amounts provided in these revised limits will be redistributed among States having Fiscal Year 1975 expenditures in excess of the revised limits of entitlement published herein. Such redistribution will be made on the basis of the ratios each such State's revised limit of entitlement bears to the total of the revised limits of entitlement of all the States having Fiscal Year 1975 expenditures in excess of the revised limits of entitlements. Such distribution involves a number of steps.

First, the amount available for distribution is determined. For example, if 51 States failed to claim the entire additional amount made available under these revised limits, then the unclaimed amounts would be available for redistribution to the 3 other States with Fiscal Year 1975 expenditures in excess of their revised limits. For example purposes assume the amount of Federal funds available for redistribution is $5,000,000.

Second, in each of the three States the amount of the expenditures in excess of the revised limits is determined. For example purposes assume the excess is, State A—$6,000,000, State B—$4,000,000 and State C—$2,000,000.

Third, the ratio of the revised limit of each of these three States to the total of the revised limits of all three States is calculated in order to determine each State's share of the $5,000,000 available. If the revised limits were, State A—$100,000, State B—$300,000 and State C—$600,000, then the share of the $5,000,000 available to State A would be $500,000 or 10 percent of $5,000,000, State B's share would be $1,500,000 and State C's share would be $3,000,000.

Fourth, if any State's share of the Federal funds available for redistribution exceeds expenditures, then the excess Federal funds are available for further redistribution and steps one through four are repeated. In this example State C's share of the $5,000,000 available for redistribution is $3,000,000. However, the Fiscal Year 1975 expenditures of State C only exceeded the revised limit of entitlement of State C by $2,000,000. Therefore State C receives $2,000,000 from the $5,000,000 available for redistribution and steps one through four are repeated for States A and B.

In this second redistribution, $1,000,000 is available, the share of State A is $250,000 and the share of State B is $750,000. Since the amount of the expenditures in excess of the revised limits in both States exceeds the share of the Federal funds available for redistribution, both States will receive their share of the remaining $1,000,000 available and be left with Fiscal Year 1975 expenditures for which there are no Federal matching funds available under the WIN appropriations.

The revised limits of entitlement for each State for Fiscal Year 1975 expenditures for child care and supportive services, as authorized under section 402(a) (19) (G) and 403(d) of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. § 602(a) (19) (G) and 603(d), are as follows:

[Docket No. EX75-29; Notice 1]

Petition for Temporary Exemption From Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard

Advance Mixer, Inc. ("AMI"), Fort Wayne, Indiana, has petitioned for an exemption until March 1, 1976, from Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard No. 121, Air Brake Systems, 49 CFR 571.121, on the basis that compliance would cause it substantial economic hardship.

From its incorporation in mid-1972 until November 1974 AMI was a final-stage manufacturer, adding its own patented front discharge mixer unit to truck chassis supplied by Walter Motor Truck Company, which certified the vehicle after completion as conforming to all applicable Federal motor vehicle safety standards. In November 1974 AMI became a manufacturer of motor vehicle by producing complete mixer trucks. It has manufactured 23 such vehicles between that time and September 5, 1975, 21 of which, according to petitioner, do not comply with Standard No. 121. The vehicles apparently cannot meet "stopping distances within the specified lane, the prohibition against wheel lock up and the required dynamometer tests on brake assemblies." It anticipates that it will have procured and introduced into production by March 1, 1976, "complying axles with proper anti-skid equipment attached." In the interim, 27 additional noncomplying trucks would be manufactured.

The company attributes its lack of compliance and tardiness in filing an exemption petition to its former general manager who did not contact "manufacturers of anti-skid equipment" until AMI became a vehicle manufacturer in November 1974.

As an alternate means of compliance, AMI contacted Oshkosh Truck Co. but has been unable to locate a complying "driven front steering axle." The company had a net profit of $8,300 in July 1975 but a net loss of $102,000 in the first 11 months of its 1975 fiscal year. Its cumulative net loss since incorporation in 1972 appears to be $397,000 as of July 31, 1975. Denial of the petition allegedly would cause AMI to cease operations. The company argues that an exemption would be in the public interest because exempted vehicles would have braking characteristics substantially similar to its competitors, Rite-Way, Inc. of Indiana and Travel Batcher, which have already been exempted by NHTSA.

Thus, this petition raises the question whether a manufacturer who has knowingly manufactured nonconforming vehicles can be found to have attempted in good faith to meet the requirements of the standard, as the statute requires (15 U.S.C. 1410(a) (7) (A)).

This notice of receipt of a petition for a temporary exemption is published in accordance with the NHTSA regulations on this subject (49 CFR 555.7), and does not represent any agency decision or other exercise of judgment concerning the merits of the petition.

Interested persons are invited to submit comments on the petition for exemption of Advance Mixer, Inc. Committee should refer to the docket number and be submitted to: Docket Section, National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Room 5108, 400 Seventh Street, SW, Washington, D.C. 20590. It is requested but not required that five copies be submitted.

All comments received before the close of business on the comment closing date indicated below will be considered. CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket No. 28381; Order 75-10-29]

Order of Investigation and Suspension

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C. on the 9th day of October 1975.

By tariff revisions¹ marked to become effective October 10, 1975, Continental Air Lines, Inc. proposes a general fare increase of 4.0 percent in its mainland-Hawaii markets.

Continental bases its justification on data for the year ended March 31, 1975. However, an evaluation of industry results for the year ended June 30, 1975 will be completed shortly, and the Board is of the opinion that it would be inappropriate to consider a fare increase proposal at this time based upon data which will soon be outdated.²

Upon consideration of all relevant matters, the Board has determined that the proposal may be unjust or unreasonable, or unjustly discriminatory, or unduly preferential, or unduly prejudicial, or otherwise unlawful, and should be investigated. The Board further concludes that the proposal should be suspended pending investigation.

Accordingly, pursuant to the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, and particularly sections 204, 403, 404, and 1002 thereof:

It is ordered, That: 1. An investigation be instituted to determine whether the fares and provisions described in Appendix A attached hereto,³ and rules, regulations and practices affecting such fares and provisions, are or will be unjust, unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, unduly preferential, unduly prejudicial, or otherwise unlawful, and, if found to be unlawful, to determine and prescribe the lawful fares and provisions, and rules, regulations, or practices affecting such fares and provisions.

2. Pending hearing and decision by the Board, the fares and provisions described in Appendix A hereto are suspended and their use deferred to and including January 7, 1976 unless otherwise ordered by the Board, and that no changes be made therein during the period of suspension except by order or special permission of the Board; and

3. A copy of this order will be filed in the aforesaid tariff and be served upon Continental Air Lines, Inc.

¹Revisions to Airline Tariff Publishers Company, Agent, Tariff C.A.B. No. 247.

²We note that although the tariff pages containing Continental's proposal would become effective October 10, 1975, the fare increases would not be implemented until October 19, 1975, the same date on which two other carriers have also proposed mainland-Hawaii fare increases. The Board will dispose of all three tariffs based on an evaluation of year ended June 1975 data prior to that date.

³Filed as part of the original document.

This order will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Secretary.

CONSUMER PRODUCT SAFETY COMMISSION

HOME WORKSHOP POWER SAWS

Denial of Petition To Require Safety Booklets

The purpose of this notice is to announce denial of a petition from Barry H. Limoges to require safety booklets to be distributed with home workshop power saws.

Section 10 of the Consumer Product Safety Act (15 U.S.C. 2059) provides that any interested person may petition the Consumer Product Safety Commission to commence a proceeding for the issuance of a consumer product safety rule. Section 10 also provides that if the Commission denies such petition, it shall publish in the FEDERAL REGISTER the reasons for the denial.

On April 15, 1974, the Commission received a petition (CP 74-17) from Barry H. Limoges requesting the Commission to require manufacturers of home workshop power saws to distribute booklets on the human and mechanical safety problems of operating home workshop power saws with these saws. In the request, Mr. Limoges referred to the July, 1973 NEISS News which reported 43,000 estimated hospital emergency room treated cases in the United States during the calendar year 1972 associated with the use of electrically powered saws.

In response to the petition, the Commission staff reviewed NEISS data and 339 in-depth injury investigations associated with power saws. Commission staff also held a meeting on this issue with the Power Tool Institute, and the National Bureau of Standards conducted an analysis of instruction booklets. As a result of the meeting with the Power Tool Institute and the National Bureau of Standards analysis, it was learned that power saw operation manuals discussing product safety are presently called for by Underwriters Laboratories standards and are distributed with power saws.

After considering this information and other staff comments, the Commission believes requiring safety booklets to be distributed with home workshop power saws at this time may be of marginal utility, since the practice of providing safety information with power saws is already widely adhered to by power saw manufacturers as recommended by voluntary standards. Therefore, the Commission has denied the petition.

The Commission intends to continue its research on the hazards associated with power saws and on the appropriate action to take regarding these hazards.

A copy of the petition may be seen during working hours, Monday through Friday, in the Office of the Secretary, Consumer Product Safety Commission, 1750 K Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20207.

Dated: October 10, 1975.

Acting Secretary,
Consumer Product Safety Commission.

FEDERAL ENERGY ADMINISTRATION

OIL IMPORT REGULATIONS

Extension of Licenses for Canadian Imports

Sections 213.28(d) (12) and 213.36(c) (2) of the Oil Import Regulations, dealing with imports from Canada into Districts I-IV and District V, respectively, provide that:

The Director [of Oil Imports] shall issue before May 1, 1975 to each eligible applicant a license equal to one half of the allocation calculated pursuant to [the respective applicable provisions]. Such licenses shall expire on October 31, 1975 unless extended by the Director. The Director shall issue before November 1, 1975 a second license to each eligible applicant equal to the remainder of the allocation . . . Such licenses shall expire on April 30, 1976.

The purpose of the October 31, 1975 expiration date is to provide flexibility in the event that the method of allocating Canadian imports is changed during the annual allocation period.

It is now apparent, however, that no such change will be made prior to October 31, 1975. Accordingly, licenses issued pursuant to §§ 213.28 and 213.36 are hereby extended through April 30, 1976.

This action does not affect the Federal Energy Administration's (FEA) plans with respect to development of an allocation program for Canadian imports under the Emergency Petroleum Allocation Act (40 FR 17783, April 22, 1975). That program is presently being formulated in light of the needs of those importers dependent on Canadian oil.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. E-9480]

CITY OF MISHAWAKA, INDIANA AND INDIANA & MICHIGAN ELECTRIC CO.*Staff Conference

OCTOBER 14, 1975.

On June 10, 1975 the City of Mishawaka, Indiana (Applicant) filed an "Application for an Order Directing the Establishment of Physical Connection of Facilities," pursuant to section 202(b) of the Federal Power Act, 16 U.S.C. 824a (b), seeking an order directing) Indiana & Michigan Electric Company (I&M) to physically connect its facilities with those of Applicant. This application states that Applicant is a wholesale customer of I&M, is presently interconnected with I&M at several points and seeks further interconnection at a new substation, the Bercado Substation, which was completed in January, 1974 and capable of immediate operation to relieve the present load on Applicant's Twelfth Street Substation.

On August 14, 1975, the Commission issued a "Notice of Application for Order Directing Physical Interconnection." 40 FR 37093. On September 9, 1975, Indiana & Michigan Electric Co. filed with the Commission a "Protest and Petition to Intervene" which, inter alia, requested that I&M be permitted to intervene in this proceeding as a party participant. The Commission has not yet acted on these pleadings.

The nature of this case suggests that it would be in the public interest to convene a staff conference between the parties and the staff of the Federal Power Commission for the purpose of exploring the problems with and/or feasibility of the physical connection which is the subject of Applicant's petition. Therefore, a conference will be held at the Federal Power Commission, Rm. 8200, 825 North Capitol St., N.E. Washington, D.C. on November 6, 1975 at 10:00 a.m. All interested parties are requested to attend. This conference will be of record.

EL PASO ALASKA CO., ET AL.Notice of Intent To Partially Adopt Department of Interior's Draft Environmental Impact Statement

OCTOBER 16, 1975.

The Federal Power Commission Staff (Staff) is in the process of preparing a Draft Environmental Impact Statement (DEIS) for the proceeding pending in Docket Nos. CP75-96, et al. This proceeding involves proposals to bring Arctic gas from the Prudhoe Bay field in Alaska and from the MacKenzie Delta region of Canada to market areas in the lower forty-eight states. Two separate natural gas transportation systems have been proposed: The Alaskan Arctic Gas Pipeline System utilizing a land route through Canada and the El Paso Alaska Company System utilizing a land-sea route with liquefied natural gas facilities and tankers.

The Department of the Interior has currently before it, permit application from the participants of the Alaskan Arctic Gas Pipeline System requesting permission for their pipeline system to cross federal lands, and in this connection on July 28, 1975, has issued a DEIS. The FPC Commission Staff herein announces its intention to adopt partially the Department of the Interior's DEIS for the Alaskan Arctic Gas Pipeline System. The Staff's DEIS will be composed of Interior's draft for the Alaskan Arctic System; the Staff's comments and substantive analysis in those areas where the Staff believes modification is necessary to Interior's DEIS, the Staff's own environmental analysis of the El Paso Alaska Company and Western Terminal Company proposals; and a separate comparative analysis of all proposals in this proceeding. At the time the FPC's DEIS is issued all the aforesaid parts will be sent to the appropriate parties, except the Interior's DEIS. All persons who have not received a copy of the Interior's DEIS and feel they are entitled to because of their interest or relationship with the FPC proceeding should immediately notify either the FPC or the Department of the Interior.

CLEVETRUST CORP.Order Approving Acquisition of Bank

CleveTrust Corporation, Cleveland, Ohio, a bank holding company within the meaning of the Bank Holding Company Act, has applied for the Board's approval under section 3(a)(3) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(a)(3)) to acquire 100 per cent of the voting shares (less directors qualifying shares) of the successor by merger to The Northeastern Ohio National Bank, Ashtabula, Ohio.

Notice of the application, affording opportunity for interested persons to submit comments and views, has been given in accordance with section 3(b) of the Act. The time for filing comments and views has expired, and the Board has considered the application and all comments received in light of the factors set forth in section 3(c) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(c)).

Applicant, the largest bank holding company in Ohio, controls three banks with aggregate deposits of approximately $3 billion,² representing 10 per cent of the total deposits in commercial banks in the State.³ Acquisition of Bank would increase Applicant's share of State deposits by two-tenths of one per cent. Consummation of the proposal would not significantly affect State-wide concentration of banking resources in Ohio.

Bank is the second largest of four banking organizations in the Ashtabula banking market⁴ and controls approximately 36.7 per cent of total market deposits. On the basis of the record, it appears that some existing competition between Applicant's banking subsidiaries and Bank may be eliminated as a result of the proposal. However, the service areas of Applicant's subsidiaries and Bank do not appear to overlap, and the amount of any such competition that would be eliminated as a result of the proposal does not appear to be significant. Furthermore, it appears unlikely that Applicant would enter the market de novo, in view of the fact that the market's population and deposits per banking office ratios are below the respective State averages. Therefore, the Board concludes that consummation of the proposed transaction would not have a significantly adverse effect on existing or potential competition in any relevant area.

The financial and managerial resources and future prospects of Applicant, its subsidiaries, and Bank are regarded as satisfactory and consistent with approval of the application. Affiliation with Applicant will enable Bank to expand a number of its services such as equipment leasing, trust services and international banking services. These expanded services should provide some added convenience to the residents of the area. Therefore, convenience and needs considerations lend weight toward approval of the application. It is the Board's judgment that the proposed acquisition would be in the public interest and that the application should be approved.

On the basis of the record, the application is approved for the reasons summarized above. The transaction shall not be made (a) before the thirtieth calendar day following the effective date of this order or (b) later than three months after the effective date of this order, unless such period is extended for good cause by the Board, or by the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland pursuant to delegated authority.

By order of the Board of Governors,⁴ effective October 8, 1975.

FEDERAL OPEN MARKET COMMITTEE Domestic Policy Directive of August 19, 1975

In accordance with § 271.5 of its rules regarding availability of information, there is set forth below the Committee's Domestic Policy Directive issued at its meeting held on August 19, 1975.¹

The information reviewed at this meeting suggests that output of goods and services bottomed out in the second quarter and is likely to increase appreciably in the current quarter. In July retail sales expanded further and industrial production rose moderately for the second consecutive month, following 8 months of decline. Conditions in labor markets improved further: Employment increased, the unemployment rate declined from 8.6 to 8.4 per cent, and the average workweek in manufacturing lengthened considerably. Average wholesale prices rose sharply in July, chiefly because of increases in prices of agricultural and energy products. The advance in average wage rates has continued to moderate over recent months.

In recent weeks the average exchange value of the dollar against leading foreign currencies has risen considerably further, reflecting additional increases in interest rates on U.S. dollar assets relative to rates on foreign currency assets. In June the U.S. foreign trade surplus rose substantially, as exports increased sharply while imports declined slightly further.

In July M₁ increased relatively little and growth in M₂ and M₃ slowed substantially, following a sharp increase in depositors' balances in May and June in connection with Federal income tax rebates and supplementary social security payments. Market interest rates in general have risen appreciably further in recent weeks, in association with indications of strengthening economic activity, more rapid inflation, and larger current and prospective Treasury financing requirements. Corporate bond offerings moderated somewhat in July but State and local government offerings continued large. Financial markets reflected considerable uncertainty stemming from New York City's financing problems. Business demands for short-term credit remained weak, although less so than in earlier months.

In light of the foregoing developments, it is the policy of the Federal Open Market Committee to foster financial conditions conducive to stimulating economic recovery, while resisting inflationary pressures and contributing to a sustainable pattern of international transactions.

To implement this policy, while taking account of developments in domestic and international financial markets, the Committee seeks to achieve bank reserve and money market conditions consistent with moderate growth in monetary aggregates over the months ahead.

SOUTHEASTERN BANCSHARES, INC.

Order Approving Formation of Bank Holding Company

Southeastern Bancshares, Inc., Broken Bow, Oklahoma, has applied for the ² Applicant has obtained Board approval to acquire but has not yet acquired The City Bank, Kent, Ohio.

⁴ The Ashtabula banking market is approximated by Ashtabula County.

Board's approval under section 3(a) (1) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1842(a) (1)) of formation of a bank holding company through acquisition of 100 per cent of the voting shares, less directors' qualifying shares, of 1st Bank & Trust, Broken Bow, Oklahoma ("Bank").

Notice of the application, affording opportunity for interested persons to submit comments and views, has been given in accordance with section 3(b) of the Act. The time for filing comments and views has expired, and the Board has considered the application and all comments received in light of the factors set forth in section 3(c) of the Act (12 U.S.C. 1842 (c)).

Applicant is a recently organized corporation formed for the purpose of becoming a bank holding company through the acquisition of Bank. Bank (deposits of $19.8 million)¹ is the second largest of five banks in the McCurtain banking market² and controls approximately 27 per cent of the total deposits in commercial banks in the market. Upon acquisition of Bank, Applicant would control 0.2 of one per cent of the total deposits in commercial banks in Oklahoma.

The principal shareholder of Applicant also controls First State Bank of Idabel ("Idabel Bank") Idabel, Oklahoma. Idabel Bank (deposits of $27.0 million) is the largest bank in the McCurtain banking market. Idabel Bank is located in the town of Idabel approximately 12 miles south of Bank, and is separated from Bank by a natural barrier. Although Idabel Bank and Bank are both located in the McCurtain banking market, the Board notes that the principal of Applicant acquired Idabel Bank at a time when that bank was experiencing some financial and managerial problems, and that his subsequent control of Idabel Bank has been beneficial to that bank's overall operations. Accordingly, based on the facts of this case, particularly the fact that the transaction represents merely a reorganization of the existing ownership of Bank, the Board concludes that consummation of the proposal would not have any adverse effect on other banks in the relevant market, and that competitive considerations are consistent with approval of the application.

The future prospects of Applicant are entirely dependent upon the financial resources of Bank. Applicant proposes to service the debt it would assume incident to this proposal over a twelve year period through dividends from Bank. In light of Bank's past earnings and its anticipated growth, the projected earnings of Bank appear reasonable and would provide Applicant with the necessary financial flexibility to meet its annual debt servicing and preferred stock dividend requirements and to maintain an adequate capital position for Bank. Moreover, Applicant intends to inject $300 thousand in additional capital into Bank shortly after consummation of this transaction. The managerial resources of Applicant and Bank are considered satisfactory and the future prospects for each appear favorable.

As noted above, Applicant's principal is also involved with Idabel Bank. A factor lending weight toward approval of the subject application is the fact that permitting the principal of Applicant to place his interest in Bank in a holding company structure will relieve the principal from some additional debt associated with his initial acquisition of Bank. As a result, Applicant's principal will have greater financial flexibility in his efforts to strengthen the overall financial condition of Idabel Bank. Accordingly, on the basis of the foregoing and other facts of record, the Board concludes that, on balance, considerations relating to banking factors are consistent with approval of the subject application.

Although consummation of the proposal would effect no immediate changes in the banking services offered by Bank, considerations relating to the convenience and needs of the community to be served are consistent with approval. It is the Board's judgment that the proposed transaction would be in the public interest and that the application should be approved.

On the basis of the record, the application is approved for the reasons summarized above. The transaction shall not be made (a) before the thirtieth calendar day following the effective date of this order or (b) later than three months after the effective date of this order, unless such period is extended for good cause by the Board or by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas pursuant to delegated authority.

By order of the Board of Governors,³ effective October 8, 1975.

GRIFFITH L. GARWOOD,
Assistant Secretary of the Board.

SOUTHERN BANCORPORATION, INC. Proposed Acquisition of F. & I. Finance Company, Inc.

Southern Bancorporation, Inc., Greenville, South Carolina, has applied, pursuant to section 4(c) (8) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(c) (8)) and § 225.4(b) (2) of the Board's Regulation Y, for permission to acquire, through a wholly owned direct subsidiary, World Acceptance Corporation, all of the assets of F. & I. Finance Company, Inc., Tyler, Texas. Notice of the application was published on September 24, 1975, in the Tyler Courier Times and the Tyler Morning Telegraph, newspapers circulated in Tyler, Texas.

Applicant states that the proposed subsidiary would engage in the activities of making direct loans to individuals on an installment basis under the Consumer Finance Laws of Texas pursuant to a "B" Consumer Finance License, which will limit its operations to cash loans of $100 or less. These activities will be conducted at offices in Tyler, Texas. Such activities have been specified by the Board in § 225.4(a) of Regulation Y as permissible for bank holding companies, subject to Board approval of individual proposals in accordance with the procedures of § 225.4 (b).

Interested persons may express their views on the question whether consummation of the proposal can "reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience, increased competition, or gains in efficiency, that outweigh possible adverse effects, such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interests, or unsound banking practices."

Any request for a hearing on this question should be accompanied by a statement summarizing the evidence the person requesting the hearing proposes to submit or to elicit at the hearing and a statement of the reasons why this matter should not be resolved without a hearing.

The application may be inspected at the offices of the Board of Governors or at the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond.

Any views or requests for hearing should be submitted in writing and received by the Secretary, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Washington, D.C. 20551, not later than November 6, 1975.

NATIONAL TRANSPORTATION SAFETY BOARD

[N-AR 75-28]

ACCIDENT REPORTS; SAFETY RECOM-MENDATIONS AND RESPONSES

Availability and Receipt

Aircraft accident reports. The crash of a Northwest Airlines jetliner near Thielles, New York, December 1, 1974, was the subject of an aircraft accident report released October 7 by the National Transportation Safety Board. The report, No. NTSB-AAR-75-13, states that the probable cause of the accident was the loss of control of the aircraft because the flightcrew failed to recognize and correct the aircraft's high-angle-of-attack, low-speed stall and its descending spiral. The stall was precipitated by the flightcrew's improper reaction to erroneous airspeed and Mach indications which had resulted from a blockage of the pitot heads by atmospheric icing. Contrary to standard operational procedures, the flightcrew had not activated the pitot head heaters. Following investigation of the accident, the Safety Board last March 20 issued three recommendations, A-75-25 through 27, to the Federal Aviation Administration. These recommendations and FAA's response of May 27 (40 FR 25862) are reproduced in the report.

Also released last week was the report of the midair collision of a commuter flight and a private aircraft near Whittier, California, last January 9. The report, No. NTSB-AAR-75-14 released October 8, concerns a Golden West Airlines DeHavilland DHC-6 and a Cessna Air Aviation Cessna 150. The Safety Board determined that the probable cause of the accident was the failure of both flightcrews to see the other aircraft in sufficient time to initiate evasive action. The Board was unable to determine why each crew failed to see and avoid the other aircraft when the late-afternoon weather was clear and visibility was 40 miles.

Safety recommendations. The Safety Board's investigation of the September 8, 1975, accident of an American Airlines Boeing 747 on approach to San Juan International Airport, Puerto Rico, prompted issuance on October 6 of recommendation A-75-79 to the Federal Aviation Administration. The Board recommends that the FAA promptly amend AD-75-20-05 to require that the inspection of the inboard foreflaps be conducted within the next 25 flights, effective on the date of issuance of the amended AD.

Subject of recommendation letter issued October 10 to the U.S. Coast Guard was the pumproom explosion aboard the tankship Teraco North Dakota en route October 2, 1973, from Tampa, Florida, to Port Arthur, Texas. The Board determined that the probable cause of this accident was the ignition of fuel-air vapors in the pumproom by hot gases, or other products of combustion, which were being ejected from a steam-driven air compressor. This accident, and several other marine casualties involving explosions, prompted the Safety Board to recommend that the Coast Guard (1) expedite the promulgation of regulations prohibiting the deliberate drainage of cargoes into the pumproom bilges of tankships; (2) insure that piping systems entering pumprooms are designed to preclude even accidental discharge of cargoes into the pumproom bilges; (3) expedite the promulgation of regulations prohibiting the installation of air compressors in the pumprooms of tankships and requiring the removal of air compressors already installed; (4) issue regulations concerning the operation of tankship pumproom power ventilation systems to insure removal of explosive vapors before any activities are begun in the pumproom; (5) prohibit workshops and the storage of tools in pumprooms of tankships in which the bilges are not prohibited by regulation from containing cargoes or cargo residue; (6) institute a procedure which would require an active Coast Guard search for technology available in other Federal agencies before approval is granted for new types of equipment installations which may affect hazardous materials aboard ship; (7) use formal hazard analysis during the next annual tankship inspection to identify pumproom explosion risks; (8) use formal hazard analysis to evaluate the possibility of an explosion before approval is given for the design or modification of tank vessels; and (9) issue regulations to require adequate management and shipboard supervision during the transportation and handling of hazardous cargoes on tankships. (Recommendations M-75-19 through 27)

Responses to safety recommendations. During the past week, the Safety Board received four letters from the Federal Aviation Administration in response to the following recommendations:

A-74-67 and 68. FAA's letter of September 18 is in reply to the Board's letter of September 3 requesting reconsideration of the FAA's response of January 13 concerning these recommendations (40 FR 42248). FAA notes further compliance efforts, such as distribution to their Accident Prevention Specialists of a slide-tape presentation, "Weather-wise—Go or No Go," which is being shown to the public at many accident prevention meetings and is made available to flight schools during sessions on meteorology. Also, FAA is encouraging industry advisory groups to further publicize weather involvement in general aviation accidents through their member companies and their own in-house publications. Regarding recommendations A-74-68, FAA states, "... we cannot justify making weather knowledge the deciding factor in determining if an applicant passes the written test for a certificate," and further comments, "We see no reason for singling out weather knowledge as being more important than these other basic airman skills."

A-75-61. FAA's letter of September 19 is in response to a recommendation issued July 31 following Board investigation of an emergency landing accident involving a Kodiak Western Airlines Cessna Model 207 at Egegik, Alaska, March 4, 1975. The Board recommended that the FAA issue an airworthiness directive requiring inspection of the throttle cable housing on Cessna Model 207 airplanes and appropriate corrective action as necessary. FAA replied, "Since the facts in this accident and two other occurrences of record indicate faulty or improper maintenance, we do not believe that issuance of an airworthiness directive is warranted as this time. However, we will insert an item in the publication, Inspection Aids, alerting all concerned of the potential hazard possible if inspection requirements are not observed. This is scheduled for the October 1975 issue."

A-75-64 (40 FR 36628). FAA's letter of September 19 describes the material which FAA distributes to the public pertaining to multiengine aircraft emergency procedures, and indicates FAA's belief that this information adequately deals with the subject and sufficiently supplements the material presented in AC 61-67. However, the FAA states that the General Aviation Division of Flight Standards Service is making copies of this recommendation available to the regional accident prevention coordinators, with the direction that they place greater emphasis on this subject area in their future public presentations.

A-75-78 (40 FR 42247). By letter of September 23, FAA indicates that Change 14 to Handbook 8260.19 is in preparation. This will include the following instruction: "On procedures when neither a procedure turn nor a one-minute holding pattern is authorized, the profile view shall include the intermediate fix and should be extended to include all fixes that are established on the final approach course extended." This will ensure a smooth transition from the airway structure to the profile of the instrument approach, FAA states:

Reports and recommendation letters are available to the general public; single copies may be obtained without charge. A $4.00 user-service charge will be made for each recommendation response, in addition to a charge of 10¢ per page for reproduction. All requests must be in writing, identified by report and/or recommendation number and date of FEDERAL REGISTER notice. [Docket No. 50-298]

NEBRASKA PUBLIC POWER DISTRICT (COOPER NUCLEAR STATION)

Order for Modification of License

I. Nebraska Public Power District (the licensee) is the holder of Facility Operating License No. DPR-46 which authorizes operation of the Cooper Nuclear Station (the facility) at steady-state reactor core power levels not in excess of 2381 megawatts thermal (rated power). The facility is a boiling water reactor (BWR) located near Brownville, Nemaha County, Nebraska.

II. 1. On July 22, 1975, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) issued an "Order for Modification of License" (40 F.R. 31837, July 29, 1975) which confirmed a plan for limited additional operation of the facility. As detailed in the Order, the facility's channel box wear, as indicated by the noise-to-signal ratio recorded by the traversing incore probe (TIP), had exceeded the remedial action threshold. The remedial plan confirmed by the Order limited operation of the facility at not more than 40 percent of rated core flow and with a maximum fuel bundle power of 3.20 MWt. In addition, the Order permitted operation up to full flow and power for a brief period of time as necessary to collect flow vibration and water quality data. The Order further stipulated that the licensee was to shutdown the facility following approximately 45 equivalent full flow days from April 26, 1975 unless within that period certain specified tests have been completed which demonstrated the efficacy of the 40 percent flow limit.

2. On August 1, 1975, the Commission issued an "Order for Modification of License" (40 FR 33739, August 11, 1975) which clarified the intent of the July 22, 1975 Order to explicitly allow continued operation for the balance of a period of 50 effective full flow days prior to demonstrating the efficacy of the 40 percent flow limit. The bases for this action were schedules for delivery of equipment needed for accelerometer tests and the desirability from a power demand standpoint to schedule the installation of the equipment during a weekend or other low load period. The Commission's staff, in its August 1, 1975 evaluation of the request, concluded that the recently obtained TIP traces did not show any accelerated channel box wear, and that operation of Cooper for the balance of a period of 50 effective full flow days prior to demonstrating the efficacy of the 40 percent flow limit was acceptable since no appreciable additional wear would be incurred.

3. By letter dated September 11, 1975, the licensee proposed a plan, previously discussed with the NRC staff, setting forth a course of remedial action, which would allow operation with flow rates above 40 percent of rated flow and maximum bundle power above 3.20 MWt. The plan would involve shutdown of the reactor and appropriate replacement of worn channel boxes and plugging of the core support plate bypass holes.

4. By its letter dated September 11, 1975,¹ the licensee provided details (by reference to previous staff evaluations for the Vermont Yankee and Duane Arnold plants) relating to the installation of core bypass flow plugs in the lower core plate and supplied analyses to demonstrate the adequacy of such plugs to minimize future channel box wear and the adequacy of the procedures for plug installation.

5. The installation of the core bypass flow plugs in the lower core plate is designed to reduce the instrument tube-channel box interaction that produced the unacceptable wear. The referenced reports in the licensee's letter of September 11, 1975, lists a total of 75 channels that were inspected during normal refueling outages in seven plants that have instrument thimbles similar to those in the Cooper reactor, but that do not have flow bypass holes. The bypass flow for these plants enters through clearances in the fuel assembly and fittings which are similar to the proposed Cooper configuration with plugged bypass flow holes. For this configuration, no significant wear was observed at the corners of the channel boxes adjacent to the instrument thimbles.

6. Plugs identical to those proposed for the Cooper reactor have previously been installed in the Vermont Yankee and Pilgrim reactors in 1973 and 1974, respectively, to eliminate the vibration of temporary control curtains that caused channel box wear in those reactors. They have also been installed in the Duane Arnold and Vermont Yankee reactors to mitigate channel box wear. The plugs in the Vermont Yankee reactor installed in 1973 were removed at the time that the temporary curtains were removed after ten months of successful service. In addition, the General Electric Company has conducted tests to demonstrate the adequacy of the plug design. These tests included full flow mockup tests which demonstrated negligible leakage flow through the plugged holes. The NRC staff has reviewed the design, the testing, and the previous experience with the proposed plugs in the Vermont Yankee and Pilgrim reactors, and in its concurrently issued Safety Evaluation of Mechanical Plugs to be Inserted in the Cooper Nuclear Station, the staff concluded that the mechanical design of the proposed bypass flow plugs is acceptable and that the plugs will reduce the vibration of the instrument thimbles caused by flow through the bypass holes and that installation of the plugs should be authorized. Subsequent operation of the facility with the plugs installed is under review.

III. Accordingly, pursuant to the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended; and the Commission's Rules and Regulations in 10 CFR Parts 2 and 50: It is ordered, that Facility Operating License No. DPR-46 is hereby amended by substituting the following provisions for the provisions set out in Appendix A to the Commission's Order for Modification of License dated July 22, 1975, as amended August 1, 1975:

1. The licensee is authorized to install bypass hole plugs in the facility's lower core plate. The licensee shall not, without prior written approval of the Director, Office of Nuclear Reactor Regulation, return the facility to operation following the installation of the bypass hole plugs.

Dated at Bethesda, Md., this 8th day of October 1975.

For the Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

BEN C. RUSCHE,
Director, Office of Nuclear Reactor Regulation.

VERMONT YANKEE NUCLEAR POWER CORP.

Issuance of Amendment to Facility Operating License

Notice is hereby given that the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) has issued Amendment No. 16 to Facility Operating License No. DPR-28 issued to Vermont Yankee Nuclear Power Corporation (the licensee) which revised Technical Specifications for operation of the Vermont Yankee Nuclear Power Station (the facility) located near Vernon, Vermont. The amendment is effective as of its date of issuance.

The amendment incorporates additional suppression pool water temperature limits: (1) During any testing which adds heat to the pool, (2) at which reactor scram is to be initiated, and (3) requiring reactor pressure vessel depressurization. It also adds surveillance requirements for visual examination of the suppression chamber during each refueling and following operations in which the pool temperatures exceed 160° F and adds monitoring requirements of water temperatures during operations which add heat to the pool.

The application for the amendment complies with the standards and requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), and the Commission's rules and regulations. The Commission has made appropriate findings as required by the Act and the Commission's rules and regulations in 10 CFR Ch. I, which are set forth in the license amendment. Notice of Proposed Issuance of Amendment to Facility Operating License in connection with this action was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on July 23, 1975 (40 FR 30886). No request for a hearing or petition for leave to intervene was filed following notice of the proposed action.

HOUSING CAPITAL CORP.

Issuance of Small Business Investment Company License

On May 5, 1975, a Notice of Application for a license as a small business investment company (SBIC) was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (40 F.R. 19548) stating that an application had been filed with the Small Business Administration (SBA) pursuant to § 107.102 of the regulations governing small business investment companies (13 CFR 107.102 (1975)) for a license as a small business investment company by Housing Capital Corporation, Suite 700, 1133 Fifteenth Street N.W., Washington, D.C. 20005.

The applicant's plan of operations is designed to achieve the greatest degree of national impact in its efforts to restore and maintain the viability of operative builders and to assist National Corporation for Housing Partnership (NCHP) and National Housing Partnership (NHP), private organizations created by the Congress under Title IX of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968, in stimulating the production by private enterprise of low and moderate income housing. In this regard, the applicant will invest in and/or provide loans to operative builders, (meeting the size requirement of a small business concern) needing working capital to construct single family homes or condominium units which will be offered for sale to prospective occupants. These investments may involve stock interests in incorporated entities or a limited interest in partnerships. The applicant will not manage or control the small concern.

The applicant will commence operations with an initial private capital of $2,000,000 from the sale of its stock to NHP, instead of an initial proposed capital of $750,000. The public offering as proposed, is not contemplated, at this time.

NCHP will serve as investment advisors to the applicant and may provide management services to portfolio concerns of the applicant in accordance with §§ 107.601, 107.809, and 107.1004 of SBA regulations.

NHP may participate in joint financings with the applicant in accordance with § 107.1004 of the regulations.

SBA approval of the applicant's proposal to invest up to 100 percent (from 66 2/3 percent) of its funds in eligible small business concerns classified in Major Group 15 and Industry Numbers 6531, 6541 and 6552 of the Standard Industrial Classification Manual is a special exemption to § 107.101(c) (1) and (2) of SBA rules and regulations, based on the fact that NCHP and NHP are entities created in the public interest and for a national purpose. The exemption was granted to accommodate the applicant's plans of operation to invest in "Operative Builders", and is not an exemption to SBA's prohibited real estate investment policy.

Interested persons were given until May 15, 1975, to submit their comments to SBA.

In the absence of any unfavorable comments and considering all factors involved, notice is hereby given that Housing Capital Corporation was issued License No. 03/03-0119 by SBA on September 2, 1975, pursuant to section 301 (c) of the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, as amended, to operate as a small business investment company.

Applicant proposes to finance small concerns primarily in the States of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, but does not intend to limit itself in terms of any particular geographical areas within said states.

Matters involved in SBA's consideration of the application include the general business reputation and character of the owner and management, and the probability of successful operations of the new company, in accordance with the Act and regulations.

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 the Department of Labor herein presents the results of TA-W-102 and TA-W-150; investigations regarding certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance as prescribed in section 222 of the Act.

Investigations TA-W-102 and TA-W-150 were initiated on July 31, 1975 and September 16, 1975, respectively in response to worker petitions received on July 31, 1975 and September 12, 1975, respectively. Both petitions were filed by the International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers on behalf of workers formerly producing resistors, ferrites, brushes, and anodes at the St. Marys, Pennsylvania plant and workers producing resistors at the Kane, Pennsylvania plant of Stackpole Carbon Company, St. Marys, Pennsylvania.

Notices of investigation were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (40 FR 33716) on August 11, 1975 and (40 FR 44211) on September 25, 1975 for the St. Marys, TA-102 and Kane, TA-W-150, plants, respectively. No public hearing was requested and none was held.

The information upon which the determination was made was obtained principally from officials of Stackpole Carbon Company, its customers, the National Electrical Manufacturers Association, the U.S. International Trade Commission, the Department of Commerce and Department files.

In order to make an affirmative determination and issue a certification of eligibility to apply for adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974 must be met:

(1) That a significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm or an appropriate subdivision of the firm have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated,

(2) That sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely, and

(3) That increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such workers' firm or an appropriate subdivision thereof contributed importantly to such total or partial separation, or threat thereof, and to such decline in sales or production.

For purposes of paragraph (3), the term "contributed importantly" means a cause which is important but not necessarily more important than any other cause.

Significant total or partial separations. The average number of production workers at the St. Marys and Kane plants declined 19 percent in the last half of 1974 compared to the last half of 1973.

Sales or production, or both, have decreased absolutely. Sales and production at the St. Marys and Kane plants of carbon composition resistors declined 6 percent and 7 percent respectively in 1974 compared to 1973. Sales and production of carbon composition resistors declined 45 percent and 49 percent respectively in the last quarter of 1974 compared to the last quarter of 1973. Sales and production of ferrites at the St. Marys plant declined 11 percent and 9 percent respectively in 1974 compared to 1973. Sales and production of ferrites declined 54 percent and 58 percent respectively in the last quarter of 1974 compared to the last quarter of 1973.

Increased imports contributed importantly. Imports of fixed composition resistors increased from 629 million units in 1973 to 1,417 units in 1974. The ratio of imports to domestic consumption and production increased from 13.7 percent and 15.2 percent, respectively in 1973 to 30.0 percent and 39.6 percent, respectively in 1974. The ratios of imports of ferrites to domestic consumption and production have increased from 15.3 percent and 15.5 percent, respectively in 1973 to 16.1 percent and 15.6 percent, respectively in 1974.

The evidence developed by the Department's investigation indicates that the separation of workers engaged in employment related to the production of carbon composition resistors was caused by the increase in competitive imports of such products. The evidence further indicates that while industry-wide imports of ferrites increased only marginally from 1973 to 1974, two major customers for Stackpole ferrites established overseas ferrite production facilities during the same period. The resultant loss of orders by Stackpole caused significant declines in its ferrite production and sales and resulted in the separation of workers engaged in employment related to the production of ferrites.

The evidence further developed that imports of anodes increased from $2.8 million in 1973 to $3.9 in 1974. The ratios of imports of anodes to consumption and production increased from 7.6 percent and 8.9 percent, respectively in 1973 to 14.4 percent and 16.1 percent, respectively in 1974. However, sales and production of anodes at the St. Marys plant of Stackpole also increased from 1973 to 1974. Imports of brushes increased from $2.9 million in 1973 to $3.2 million in 1974. The ratios of imports to consumption and production increased from 4.3 percent and 4.4 percent, respectively in 1973 to 4.7 percent and 4.8 percent, respectively in 1974. Sales and production of brushes at the St. Marys plant of Stackpole decreased from 1973 to 1974. However, the decline was caused solely by domestic economic conditions and was not related to imports of brushes most of which are not competitive with those produced by Stackpole Carbon Company.

Conclusion. After careful review of the facts obtained in the investigation, I conclude that increases of imports like or directly competitive with carbon composition resistors and ferrites produced at the St. Marys and Kane, Pennsylvania plants of Stackpole Carbon Company contributed importantly to the total or partial separation of workers of those plants. It is further concluded that increases of imports like or directly competitive with brushes and anodes produced at the St. Marys, Pennsylvania plant of Stackpole Carbon Company did not contribute importantly to the total or partial separation of workers at such plant.

Section 223(b) (2) of the Trade Act of 1974 provides that a certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance may not apply to any worker last separated from the firm or subdivision more than six months prior to April 3, 1975, the effective date of the new program.

In accordance with this provision of the Act, I make the following certification:

All hourly and salaried workers engaged in employment related to the production of carbon composition resistors and ferrites at the St. Marys and Kane, Pennsylvania plants of Stackpole Carbon Company who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after October 3, 1974 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 1st day of October 1975.

JAMES F. TAYLOR,
Director, Planning and Evaluation.

Investigation Regarding Certification of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

On September 26, 1975, the Department of Labor received a petition filed under section 221(a) of the Trade Act of 1974 ("the Act") by the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, on behalf of the workers and former workers of Frederick, Md.; McConnellsburg, Pa.; and New Bern, N.C. plants of Sagner, Incorporated, Frederick, Maryland (TA-W-194). Accordingly, the Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Bureau of International Labor Affairs, has instituted an investigation as provided in Section 221(a) of the Act and 29 CFR 90.12.

The purpose of the investigation is to determine whether absolute or relative increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with men's suits and sport coats produced by Sagner, Incorporated or an appropriate subdivision thereof have contributed importantly to an absolute decline in sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision and to the actual or threatened total or partial separation of a significant number or proportion of the workers of such firm or subdivision. The investigation will further relate, as appropriate, to the determination of the date on which total or partial separations began or threatened to begin and the subdivision of the firm involved. A group meeting the eligibility requirements of Section 222 of the Act will be certified as eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2, of the Act in accordance with the provisions of Subpart B of 29 CFR Part 90.

Pursuant to 20 CFR 90.13, the petitioner or any other person showing a substantial interest in the subject matter of the investigation may request a public hearing, provided such request is filed in writing with the Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, on or before October 28, 1975.

The petition filed in this case is available for inspection at the Office of the Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Bureau of International Labor Affairs, U.S. Department of Labor, 3rd St. and Constitution Ave., NW, Washington, D.C. 20210.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 26th day of September 1975.

MARVIN H. FOOKS,

Trade Adjustment Assistance.*

MOTOR CARRIER APPLICATIONS AND CERTAIN OTHER PROCEEDINGS

OCTOBER 10, 1975.

The following publications include motor carrier, water carrier, broker, freight forwarder and rail proceedings indexed as follows: (1) Grants of authority requiring republication prior to certification; (2) notices of filing of petitions for modification of existing authorities; (3) new operating right's applications directly related to and processed on a consolidated record with finance applications filed under sections 5(2) and 212(b); (4) notices of filing of sections 5(2) and 210a(b) finance applications; and (5) notices of filing of section 212(b) transfer applications.

Each applicant (except as otherwise specifically noted) states that there will be no significant effect on the quality of the human environment resulting from approval of its application in compliance with the requirements of 49 CFR 1100.250.

Protests to the granting of the requested authority must be filed with the Commission on or before November 17, 1975. Failure seasonably to file a protest will be construed as a waiver of opposition and participation in the proceeding. A protest should comply with section 247(d) or section 240(c) as appropriate of the Commission's general rules of practice which requires that it set forth specifically the grounds upon which it is made, contain a detailed statement of protestant's interest in the proceeding (including a copy of the specific portions of its authority which protestant believes to be in conflict with that sought in the application, and a detailed description of the method—whether by joinder, interline, or other means—by which protestant would use such authority to provide all or part of the service proposed), and shall specify with particularity the facts, matters, and things relied upon, but shall not include issues or allegations phrased generally. Protests not in reasonable compliance with the requirements of the rules may be rejected. The original and one (1) copy of the protest (except for petitions and Finance Dockets under Rule 40 requiring the original and six (6) copies of the protest) shall be filed with the Commission, and a copy shall be served concurrently upon applicant's or petitioner's representative, or applicant or petitioner if no representative is named. If the protest includes a request for oral hearing, such requests shall meet the requirements of section 247(d) (4) or section 240(c) (4) of the special rules, and shall include the certification required therein.

No. MC 67646 (Sub-No. 73) (Republication), filed January 2, 1975, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER February 6, 1975, and republished this issue. Applicant: HALL'S MOTOR TRANSIT COMPANY, 6060 Carlisle Pike, Mechanicsburg, Pa. 17055. Applicant's representative: John F. Fullerton, 407 North Front Street, Harrisburg, Pa. 17101. The Order dated July 1, 1975 is vacated and set aside, and the amendment tendered by applicant in its petition of August 20, 1975, is accepted in this proceeding, and the Supplemental Order of the Commission, Operating Rights Board, dated September 12, 1975 and served October 3, 1975, finds that the present and future public convenience and necessity require operation by applicant, in interstate or foreign commerce, as a common carrier by motor vehicle, over irregular routes, of general commodities (except those of unusual value, Classes A and B explosives, household goods as defined by the Commission, commodities in bulk, and commodities requiring special equipment), between Mercer, Pa., on the one hand, and, on the other, points in Ohio and Pennsylvania within 80 miles of Greenville, Pa., subject to the restriction that the authority granted herein shall not be severable by sale or otherwise from the irregular-route authority to operate between Greenville, Pa., on the one hand, and, on the other, points in Ohio and Pennsylvania within 80 miles of Greenville as set forth in Certificate No. MC 67646 (Sub-No. 64); that applicant is fit, willing, and able properly to perform such service and to conform to the requirements of the Interstate Commerce Act and the Commission's rules and regulations thereunder.

The purpose of this republication is to indicate the grant of authority described above, and that the only purpose of the amended application is to provide an alternate gateway at Mercer in connection with applicant's present authority under Certificate No. MC 67646 (Sub-No. 64) to transport general commodities, with the usual exceptions, over irregular routes, between Greenville, Pa., on the one hand, and, on the other points in Ohio and Pennsylvania within 80 miles of Greenville. Because it is possible that other parties who have relied upon the notice of the application as published, may have an interest in and would be prejudiced by the lack of proper notice of the authority described above, issuance of a Certificate in this proceeding will be withheld for a period of 30 days from the date of this publication of the authority actually granted, during which period any proper party in interest may file an appropriate petition for intervention or other relief in this proceeding setting forth in detail the precise manner in which it has been prejudiced, by description of the base area in terms of Mercer, Pa.

No. MC 12721 (Notice of filing of petition to modify license), filed September 24, 1975. Petitioner: BECKHAM TRAVEL SERVICE, INC., 587 Washington Street, Canton, Mass. 02021. Petitioner's representative: Jeremy Kahn, Suite 733 Investment Building, Washington, D.C. 20005. Petitioner holds a license to engage in operations as a broker at Canton, Mass., in MC 12721, issued June 18, 1968, to sell or offer to sell the transportation of Passengers and their baggage, beginning and ending at points in Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Maine, and points in that part of New Hampshire east of U.S. Highway 3, and points in Hillsboro County, N.H., and extending to points in the United States (except Alaska and Hawaii). By the instant petition, petitioner seeks to establish additional offices at Concord, Laconia, and Nashua, N.H., or alternatively, assign this matter for disposition under modified procedure, and issue such further order or orders as may be deemed necessary in the premises. Any interested person or persons desiring to participate may file an original and six copies of his written representations, views or arguments in support of or against the petition within 30 days from the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

No. MC 130132 (Correction of notice of filing of petition to modify license), filed August 18, 1975, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of September 17, 1975, and republished as corrected this issue. Petitioner: THE DAYTON AUTOMOBILE CLUB, a Corporation, 825 South Ludlow St., Dayton, Ohio 45202. Petitioner's representative: Gene W. Satchell, (same address as petitioner). Petitioner holds a license to engage in operations as a broker at Enon (Clark County), Ohio, in No. MC 130132, issued February 7, 1974, to sell or offer to sell the transportation of Passengers and their baggage, in round-trip charter and special operations, beginning and ending at points in Clark, Champaign, Greene, Miami, and Montgomery Counties, Ohio, and extending to points in the United States, including Alaska, but excepting Hawaii. By the instant petition, petitioner seeks to substitute Dayton and Kettering, (Montgomery County), Ohio, for Enon (Clark County), Ohio, as places at which it is authorized to engage in the above operations. The purpose of this correction is to add Kettering, Ohio to the above request. Any interested person or persons desiring to participate may file an original and six copies of his written representations, views or arguments in support of or against the petition within 30 days from the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

MOTOR CARRIER, BROKER, WATER CARRIER AND FREIGHT FORWARDER APPLICATIONS

OCTOBER 10, 1975.

The following applications are governed by Special Rule 1100 247¹ of the Commission's general rules of practice (49 CFR, as amended), published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of April 20, 1966, effective May 20, 1966. These rules provide, among other things, that a protest to the granting of an application must be filed with the Commission within 30 days after date of notice of filing of the application is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Failure seasonably to file a protest will be construed as a waiver of opposition and participation in the proceeding. A protest under these rules should comply with section 247(d) (3) of the rules of practice which requires that it set forth specifically the grounds upon which it is made, contain a detailed statement of protestant's interest in the proceeding (including a copy of the specific portions of its authority which protestant believes to be in conflict with that sought in the application, and describing in detail the method—whether by jointer, interline, or other means—by which protestant would use such authority to provide all or part of the service proposed), and shall specify with particularity the facts, matters, and things relied upon, but shall not include issues or allegations phrased generally. Protests not in reasonable compliance with the requirements of the rules may be rejected. The original and one (1) copy of the protest shall be filed with the Commission, and a copy shall be served concurrently upon applicant's representative, or applicant if no representative is named. If the protest includes a request for oral hearing, such requests shall meet the requirements of section 247(d) (4) of the special rules, and shall include the certification required therein.

Section 247(f) of the Commission's rules of practice further provides that each applicant shall, if protests to its application have been filed, on or before December 15, 1975, notify the Commission in writing (1) that it is ready to proceed and prosecute the application, or (2) that it wishes to withdraw the application, failure in which the application will be dismissed by the Commission.

Further processing steps (whether modified procedure, oral hearing, or other procedures) will be determined generally in accordance with the Commission's general policy statement concerning motor carrier licensing procedures, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of May 3, 1966. This assignment will be by Commission order which will be served on each party of record. Broadening amendments will not be accepted after the date of this publication except for good cause shown, and restrictive amendments will not be entertained following publication in the Federal Register of a notice that the proceeding has been assigned for oral hearing.

Evidence respecting how equipment is expected to be returned to an origin point, as well as other data relating to operational feasibility (including the need for dead-head operations), must be presented as part of an applicant's initial evidentiary presentation (either at oral hearing or in its opening verified statement under the modified procedure) with respect to all applications filed on or after December 1, 1973.

If an applicant states in its initial evidentiary presentation that empty or partially empty vehicle movements will result upon a grant of its application, applicant will be expected (1) to specify the extent of such empty operations, by mileages and the number of vehicles, that would be incurred, and (2) to designate where such empty vehicle operations will be conducted.

Each applicant (except as otherwise specifically noted) states that there will be no significant effect on the quality of the human environment resulting from approval of its application.

[FRL 443-5]

PART 436—MINERAL MINING AND PROCESSING POINT SOURCE CATEGORY

Interim Final Rulemaking

Notice is hereby given that effluent limitations and guidelines for existing sources to be achieved by the application of best practicable control technology currently available as set forth in interim final form below are promulgated by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA). The regulation set forth below establishes Part 436—Mineral mining and processing point source category and will be applicable to existing sources for the gypsum subcategory (Subpart E), the asphaltic minerals subcategory (Subpart F), the asbestos and wollastonite subcategory (Subpart G), the barite subcategory (Subpart J), the fluor spar subcategory (Subpart K), the salines from brine lakes subcategory (Subpart L), the borax subcategory (Subpart M), the potash subcategory (Subpart N), the sodium sulfate subcategory (Subpart O), the Frasch sulfur subcategory (Subpart S), the bentonite subcategory (Subpart V), the magnesite subcategory (Subpart W), the diatomite subcategory (Subpart X), the jade subcategory (Subpart Y), the novaculite subcategory (Subpart Z), the tripoli subcategory (Subpart AF), and the graphite subcategory (Subpart AL) of the mineral mining and processing point source category pursuant to sections 301, 304 (b) and (c), of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, as amended (33 U.S.C. 1251, 1311, 1314(b) and (c), 86 Stat. 816 et seq.; Pub. L. 92-500) (the Act).

(a) Legal authority—(1) Existing point sources. Section 301(b) of the Act requires the achievement by not later than July 1, 1977, of effluent limitations for point sources, other than publicly owned treatment works, which require the application of the best practicable control technology currently available as defined by the Administrator pursuant to section 304(b) of the Act. Section 301 (b) also requires the achievement by not later than July 1, 1983, of effluent limitations for point sources, other than publicly owned treatment works, which require the application of best available technology economically achievable which will result in reasonable further progress toward the national goal of eliminating the discharge of all pollutants, as determined in accordance with regulations issued by the Administrator pursuant to section 304(b) of the Act.

Section 304(b) of the Act requires the Administrator to publish regulations providing guidelines for effluent limitations setting forth the degree of effluent reduction attainable through the application of the best practicable control technology currently available and the degree of effluent reduction attainable through the application of the best control measures and practices achievable including treatment techniques, process and procedural innovations, operating methods and other alternatives. The regulation herein sets forth effluent limitations and guidelines, pursuant to sections 301 and 304(b) of the Act, for the gypsum subcategory (Subpart E), the asphaltic minerals subcategory (Subpart F), the asbestos and wollastonite subcategory (Subpart G), the barite subcategory (Subpart J), the fluor spar subcategory (Subpart K), the salines from brine lakes subcategory (Subpart L), the borax subcategory (Subpart M), the potash subcategory (Subpart N), the sodium sulfate subcategory (Subpart O), the Frasch sulfur subcategory (Subpart S), bentonite subcategory (Subpart V), the magnesite subcategory (Subpart W), the diatomite subcategory (Subpart X), the jade subcategory (Subpart Y), the novaculite subcategory (Subpart Z), the tripoli subcategory (Subpart AF), and the graphite subcategory (Subpart AL) of the mineral mining and processing point source category.

Section 304(c) of the Act requires the Administrator to issue to the States and appropriate water pollution control agencies information on the processes, procedures or operating methods which result in the elimination or reduction of the discharge of pollutants to implement standards of performance under section 306 of the Act. The report or "Development Document" referred to below provides, pursuant to section 304(c) of the Act, information on such processes, procedures or operating methods.

(2) New sources. Section 306 of the Act requires the achievement by new sources of a Federal standard of performance providing for the control of the discharge of pollutants which reflects the greatest degree of effluent reduction which the Administrator determines to be achievable through application of the best available demonstrated control technology, processes, operating methods, or other alternatives; including, where practicable, a standard permitting no discharge of pollutants.

Section 306 also requires the Administrator to propose regulations establishing Federal standards of performance for categories of new sources included in a list published pursuant to section 306 of the Act. Regulations will be proposed at a future date that set forth the standards of performance applicable to new sources.

Section 307(b) of the Act requires the establishment of pretreatment standards for pollutants introduced into publicly owned treatment works and 40 CFR Part 128 establishes that the Agency will propose specific pretreatment standards at the time effluent limitations are established for point source discharges. These limitations are simultaneously being proposed.

Section 307(c) of the Act requires the Administrator to promulgate pretreatment standards for new sources at the same time that standards of performance for new sources are promulgated pursuant to section 306. Regulations will be proposed in fulfillment of these requirements at the time new source performance standards are proposed.

(b) Summary and basis of interim final effluent limitations and guidelines for existing sources, proposed effluent limitations and guidelines for existing sources to be achieved by the application of the best available technology economically achievable, proposed standards of performance for new sources, and proposed pretreatment standards for both new and existing sources.

(1) General methodology. The effluent limitations and guidelines set forth herein were developed in the following manner. The point source category was first studied for the purpose of determining whether separate limitations are appropriate for different segments within the category. This analysis included a determination of whether differences in raw material used, product produced, manufacturing process employed, age, size, waste water constituents and other factors require development of separate limitations for different segments of the point source category. The raw waste characteristics for each such segment were then identified. This included an analysis of the source, flow and volume of water used in the process employed, the sources of waste and waste waters in the operation and the constituents of all waste water. The constituents of the waste waters which should be subject to effluent limitations were identified.

The control and treatment technologies existing within each segment were identified. This included an identification of each distinct control and treatment technology, including both in-plant and end-of-process technologies, which is existent or capable of being designed for each segment. It also included an identification of, in terms of the amount of constituents and the chemical, physical, and biological characteristics of pollutants, the effluent level resulting from the application of each of the technologies. The problems, limitations and reliability of each treatment and control technology were also identified. In addition, the nonwater quality environmental impact, such as the effects of the application of such technologies upon other pollution problems, including air, solid waste, noise and radiation were identified. The energy requirements of each control and treatment technology were determined as well as the cost of the application of such technologies.

The information, as outlined above, was then evaluated in order to determine what levels of technology constitute the "best practicable control technology currently available." In identifying such technologies, various factors were considered. These included the total cost of application of technology in relation to the effluent reduction benefits to be achieved from such application, the age of equipment and facilities involved, the process employed, the engineering aspects of the application of various types of control techniques, process changes, nonwater quality environmental impact (including energy requirements) and other factors.

The data upon which the above analysis was performed included EPA permit applications, EPA sampling and inspections, consultant reports, and industry submissions.

(2) Summary of conclusions with respect to the dimension stone subcategory (Subpart A), the crushed stone subcategory (Subpart B), the construction sand and gravel subcategory (Subpart C), the industrial sand subcategory (Subpart D), the the gypsum subcategory (Subpart E), the asphaltic minerals subcategory (Subpart F), the asbestos and wollastonite subcategory (Subpart G), the lightweight aggregates subcategory (Subpart H), the mica and sericite subcategory (Subpart I), the barite subcategory (Subpart J), the fluorspar subcategory (Subpart K), the salines from brine lakes subcategory (Subpart L), the borax subcategory (Subpart M), the potash subcategory (Subpart N), the sodium sulfate subcategory (Subpart O), the trona subcategory (Subpart P), the rock salt subcategory (Subpart Q), the phosphate rock subcategory (Subpart R), the Frasch sulfur subcategory (Subpart S), the mineral pigments subcategory (Subpart T), the lithium subcategory (Subpart U), the bentonite subcategory (Subpart V), the magnesite subcategory (Subpart W), the datomite subcategory (Subpart X), the jade subcategory (Subpart Y), the novaculite subcategory (Subpart Z), the fire clay subcategory (Subpart AA), the attapulgite and montmorillonite subcategory (Subpart AB), the kyanite subcategory (Subpart AC), the shale and common clay subcategory (Subpart AD), the aplite subcategory (Subpart AE), the tripoli subcategory (Subpart AF), the kaolin subcategory (Subpart AG), the ball clay subcategory (Subpart AH), the feldspar subcategory (Subpart AI), the talc, steatite, soapstone and pyrophyllite subcategory (Subpart AJ), the garnet subcategory (Subpart AK) and the graphite subcategory (Subpart AL) of the mineral mining and processing point source category.

(i) Categorization. For the purpose of studying waste treatment and establishing effluent limitations guidelines and standards of performance the mineral mining and processing category was divided in 38 discrete subcategories. The subcategories consist of specific mineral types or classes of minerals. In addition within each subcategory a determination was made whether subparts required different effluent limitations based on type of ore, method of ore transport, type of processing, use of wet air emissions control devices, type of product, and ground water seepage and runoff into the mine and process waste water impoundments. In general the largest contributing factors to the further subdivision within subcategories for process waste water has been differences in processes and the use of wet air emissions control devices. For example the differences in dry and wet processing techniques for the barite and fluorspar subcategories are recognized and different effluent limitations are established. The use of wet air emissions control devices and the added complexity of waste water treatment and management has been recognized as requiring separate consideration for best practicable control technology currently available for the gypsum and tripoli subcategories.

Factors affecting the treatability of mine water discharges within each subcategory have also been accounted for where applicable. For example anhydrite Frasch sulfur mining and processing operations can achieve no discharge by recycling bleed-off water. In contrast salt dome operations cannot recycle this water due to the corrosive saline properties of this bleed-off water that would damage equipment upon the continual reuse of this water.

(ii) Waste characteristics. The known significant pollutants and pollutant properties resulting from mineral mining and processing include pH and total suspended solids. Large quantities of dissolved solids exist in the waste waters from the salines from brine lakes, borax, potash and sodium sulfate subcategories. The bleed-off water in the Frasch sulfur subcategory contains sulfides. Iron exists in the mine water discharge from the graphite subcategory.

(iii) Origin of waste water pollutants. The sources of waste water pollutants at the mine include surface runoff of rain water into the mine and mine water treatment systems, ground water seepage and infiltration into the mine, and water used to transport the ore to the processing plant. The waste waters that are the sources of waste water pollutants at the process plant include transport water, ore and product wash water, dust suppression water, classification water, heavy media separation water, flotation water, solution water, air emissions control equipment water and equipment and floor wash down water.

(iv) Treatment and control technology. Waste water treatment and control technologies have been studied for each subcategory of the industry to determine what is the best practicable control technology currently available.

The following discussion of treatment technology provides the basis for the effluent limitations guidelines. This discussion does not preclude the selection of other waste water treatment alternatives which provide equivalent or better levels of treatment.

In the following discussion the term no discharge applies to dry weather conditions. Waste water impoundments may be subject to runoff from their drainage area. Some rainfall events may cause these impoundments to overflow. For the following subcategories requiring no discharge of process waste water pollutants, an allowance has been made for such circumstances.

(1) Treatment for the gypsum subcategory. Processing plants that do not use water would need no treatment system. Water at wet process plants is used to wash the ore and for heavy media separation. This water is clarified in a settling pond and recirculated back to the processes with no need for a discharge. Waste water originating from wet air emissions control scrubbers is being studied further.

(2) Treatment for the asphaltic minerals subcategory. Bituminous limestone is processed by dry methods and there is no process waste water. Water is used for air scrubbers in processing oil impregnated diatomite. This water is completely recycled, and there is no process waste water discharge. Water in the processing of gilsonite is used for ore washing, froth flotation and wet scrubbers. This water can be clarified in a settling pond and recycled back to the processes. Alternatively a Utah plant plans to combine mine water and process waste water in a process recirculation system and use the excess water for irrigation with no discharge to navigable waters.

(3) Treatment for the asbestos and wollastonite subcategory. Some asbestos plants and the wollastonite plant do not use water in the process and treatment is not necessary. Plants that do use process waste water achieve no discharge by recirculation, evaporation and seepage ponds.

(4) Treatment for the salines from brine lakes subcategory. Brines are concentrated by solar evaporation in order to precipitate the saleable salt. Spent bitterns are discharged back to the intake water body. Best practicable control technology consists of discharging no added constituents to navigable waters that were not in the brine water intake.

(5) Treatment for the borax, potash and sodium sulfate subcategories. The ore is either dry mined or solution mined through brine wells. Spent liquor is either evaporated in large ponds or injected into the deposit. There is no discharge to navigable waters.

(6) Treatment for the Frasch sulfur subcategory. In anhydrite operations heated water used to melt sulfur deposits is bled out of the deposit, reheated and re-injected. There is no discharge of process waste water or of mine water. For salt dome operations, bleed-off water cannot be reused because of its corrosive nature; hence regulations are not promulgated at this time pending completion of the economic impact of regulating this type of operation.

(7) Treatment for the bentonite subcategory. There is no water used in the processing of bentonite. Air emissions control on dryers is accomplished by dry cyclones and bag houses.

(8) Treatment for the magnesite subcategory. All process waste water is clarified in a settling pond and is both evaporated and is recycled back to the processes.

(9) Treatment for the diatomite subcategory. Water is principally used to slurry waste fines and for air scrubbers. Waste water is clarified in settling ponds and is either evaporated or recycled back to the processes.

(10) Treatment for the jade subcategory. Very little water is used in jade processing plants. Waste water is either evaporated or used as irrigation water from which there is no discharge.

(11) Treatment for the novaculite subcategory. Process waste water that originates from wet scrubbers is clarified and totally recycled. There is no discharge of process waste water to navigable waters.

(12) Treatment for the tripoli subcategory. There is no process waste water used in all but one plant. Waste water originating from the one plant employing wet processes is being studied further.

(13) Treatment for the graphite subcategory. Process waste water from washing, flotation and filtering operations is clarified in a settling pond. Mine water discharge is treated with lime to raise the pH and to precipitate dissolved iron. The treated wastes are then allowed to settle in a pond. The combined discharge has achieved 10 mg/l and 20 mg/l TSS as a monthly average and daily maximum respectively and 1 mg/l and 2 mg/l total iron. pH is maintained between 6.0 and 9.0.

(14) Treatment for the barite subcategory. Those plants that do not wet process or float the ore have no process waste water. The plants that do use process water are being studied further.

(15) Treatment for the fluorspar subcategory. Those plants that do not use heavy media separation or flotation either do not use process water or this water is fully consumed in the process. The plants that do use heavy media separation or flotation are being studied further.

(16) Treatment for the remaining subcategory. Treatment technologies for the dimension stone subcategory (Subpart A), the crushed stone subcategory (Subpart B), the construction sand and gravel subcategory (Subpart C), the industrial sand subcategory (Subpart D), the lightweight aggregates subcategory (Subpart H), the mica and sericite subcategory (Subpart I), the trona subcategory (Subpart P), the rock salt subcategory (Subpart Q), the phosphate rock subcategory (Subpart R), the mineral pigments subcategory (Subpart T), the lithium subcategory (Subpart U), the fire clay subcategory (Subpart AA), the attapulgite and montmorillonite subcategory (Subpart AB), the kyanite subcategory (Subpart AC), the shale and common clay subcategory (Subpart AD), the aplite subcategory (Subpart AE), the kaolin subcategory (Subpart AG), the ball clay subcategory (Subpart AH), the feldspar subcategory (Subpart AI), the talc, steatite, soapstone and pyrophyllite subcategory (Subpart AJ), the garnet subcategory (Subpart AK) have yet to be defined pending an economic impact analysis study of the EPA contractor's draft recommendations. These technologies will be specified when it is determined what technology is currently available and economically practicable.

The proper management of solid wastes resulting from pollution control systems must be practiced. Pollution control technologies generate many different amounts and types of solid wastes and liquid concentrates through the removal of pollutants. These substances vary greatly in their chemical and physical composition and may be either hazardous or non-hazardous. A variety of techniques may be employed to dispose of these substances depending on the degree of hazard.

If thermal processing (incineration) is the choice for disposal, provisions must be made to ensure against entry of hazardous pollutants into the atmosphere. Consideration should also be given to recovery of materials of value in the wastes.

For those waste materials considered to be nonhazardous where land disposal is used, practices similar to proper sanitary landfill technology may be followed. The principles set forth in the EPA's Land Disposal of Solid Wastes Guidelines 40 CFR Part 241 may be used as guidance for acceptable land disposal techniques.

For those waste materials considered to be hazardous, disposal will require special precautions. In order to ensure long-term protection of public health and the environment, special preparation and pretreatment may be required prior to disposal. If land disposal is to be practiced, these sites must not allow movement of pollutants to either ground or surface waters. Sites should be selected that have natural soil and geological conditions to prevent such contamination or, if such conditions do not exist, artificial means (e.g. liners) must be provided to ensure long-term protection of the environment from hazardous materials. Where appropriate, the location of solid hazardous materials disposal sites should be permanently recorded in the appropriate office of the legal jurisdiction in which the site is located.

(v) Cost estimates for control of waste water pollutants. The promulgated regulations for best practicable control technology currently available are expected to effect increased pollution control costs for one subcategory. Total recycle of process waste water for the mineral gilsonite of the asphaltic minerals subcategory will have an increased annual operating cost of $1.00 per ton of product. However these costs are not attributable to these interim final regulations.

(vi) Energy requirements and non-water quality environmental impacts. The energy requirements effected by these limitations consist of the energy expended in pond construction and of pumping the pond water back to the processing plants. These added energy uses are judged to be very minor. There are no other expected nonwater quality environmental impacts.

(vii) Economic impact analysis. The economic impact of the interim final regulations on the industries covered in the mineral mining regulation will be minimal. All plants are now in compliance, with the exception of one operation in the asphaltic minerals category which is presently installing a recycle system. As a result prices, production, industry growth, balance of trade and community economies will not be significantly impacted.

Executive Order 11821 (November 27, 1974) requires that major proposals for legislation and promulgation of regulations and rules by Agencies of the executive branch be accompanied by a statement certifying that the inflationary impact of the proposal has been evaluated.

OMB Circular A-107 (January 28, 1975) prescribes guidelines for the identification and evaluation of major proposals requiring preparation of inflationary impact certifications. The circular provides that during the interim period prior to final approval by OMB of criteria developed by each Agency, the Administrator is responsible for identifying those regulations which require evaluation and certification. The Administrator has directed that all regulatory actions which are likely to result in capital investment exceeding $100 million or annualized costs in excess of $50 million will require certification.

As the Agency's analysis of the potential economic impacts of these regulations indicates, the capital investment and annualized costs associated with compliance are estimated to be considerably less than these amounts. Nevertheless, the Agency has reviewed and identified the projected effect on prices and estimates that there will be no effect on prices for the segments of the industry controlled herein.

The reports entitled "Development Document for Interim Final Effluent Limitations Guidelines and New Source Performance Standards for the Mineral Mining and Processing Industry Point Source Category", Volume I "Minerals for the Construction Industry," Volume II "Minerals for the Chemical and Fertilizer Industries," and Volume III "Clay, Ceramic, Refractory and Miscellaneous Minerals" detail the analysis undertaken in support of the interim final regulation set forth herein and is available for inspection and copying in the EPA Public Information Reference Unit, Room 2404, Waterside Mall, Washington, D.C. 20460, at all EPA regional offices, and at State water pollution control offices. Copies of these documents are being sent to persons or institutions affected by the proposed regulation or who have placed themselves on a mailing list for this purpose (see EPA's Advance Notice of Public Review Procedures, 38 FR 21202, August 6, 1973). An additional limited number of copies of both reports are available. Persons wishing to obtain a copy may write the Environmental Protection Agency, Effluent Guidelines Division, Washington, D.C. 20460, Attention: Distribution Officer, WH 552.

When this regulation is promulgated in final rather than interim form, revised copies of the Development Document will be available from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402. Copies of the Economic Analysis document will be available through the National Technical Information Service, Springfield, VA 22151.

The primary issues raised in the development of the interim final effluent limitations and guidelines and the treatment of these issues herein are as follows:

(1) There was considerable comment on the requirement of treating mine and plant areas until reclamation is successfully completed and of diverting storm runoff away from process waste water impoundments.

In the 17 subcategories regulated, there will be no requirement to treat runoff as best practicable control technology currently available. Reclamation is not included in the interim final regulations.

(2) Some commenters recommended that the effluent limitations should be applied on a net basis, especially where no discharge of pollutants is required.

The Agency has promulgated regulations (40 CFR Part 125) concerning the net or gross application of effluent standards. Prior to the permit issuance an affected plant can petition for a net limit if the applicant demonstrates that specified pollutants which are present in the applicant's intake water will not be removed by waste water treatment systems designed to reduce process waste water pollutants and other added pollutants to the levels required by the applicable limitations or standards. Only the limitations for salines from brine lakes and, under restricted conditions, Frasch sulfur have provisions for net application.

(3) It was suggested that the EPA should consider the impact of other Federal regulations on this industry.

Other Federal and State regulations as they affect the technical achievability of the effluent limitations were taken into consideration. The economic impact analysis assesses the current financial status of the industry. This base level status would include current operating costs including Federal requirements. The costs of EPA imposed water pollution abatement are then added to this base level and the impact is assessed.

(4) One commenter suggested that periodic discharges be allowed for the subcategories limited to no discharge of process waste water pollutants in order to drain the pond for the purpose of digging out the sludge.

Many plants clean out their ponds by use of draglines and similar devices without having to discharge from the pond. Others utilize a second pond after the first has been filled with solids.

(5) Some commenters suggest that the potential harm of using chlorine to oxidize sulfides exceeds the benefit of removing what little sulfide ion exists after proper oxidation of Frasch sulfur waste waters.

Properly designed and operated oxidation ponds have been demonstrated to reduce the sulfide concentration to very low levels. The remaining concentration discharged (less than 2 mg/l S) has been shown to rapidly oxidize. Therefore there is no need to chlorinate this effluent.

(6) One Frasch sulfur company requested that well sealing water not be regulated.

Because of the difficulty in collection and the small volume involved, this waste stream will not have the same degree of treatment required as that for well bleed water for best practicable control technology currently available.

(7) One Frasch sulfur company requested that the costs of treating all non-process waste waters be included in order to properly assess the economic impact.

Non-process waste waters such as water treatment and power plant waste waters are not treated in the process waste water treatment system. Furthermore, they are not significant pollution problems. Therefore these wastes are better regulated by a general regulation covering such for all industry. The economic impact will be reassessed at that time.

(8) One company requested that open pit sulfur mining should be regulated.

There are no domestic open sulfur pits currently operating. Regulations will be determined at such time as this type of operation occurs.

(9) One commenter questioned whether the return flow of process waste to dredged pits need to meet the proposed no discharge of process waste water pollutants limits.

The proposed limits are only to be applied to point source discharges to navigable waters.

(10) One company claimed that it will discharge water from its treatment pond system as it tries to match the water lost by evaporation and percolation with fresh water intake.

Adequate control of the intake water volume will prevent treatment pond overflow in this case.

(11) One commenter complained that the cost of recycling water will increase as new ponds are located farther from the process equipment.

The newer plants have usually taken this into account when the plant was constructed. Older plants have the option of moving the plant to a more favorable location, pumping farther distances to new treatment ponds or dredging the existing ponds to prolong their life. The tailings from dredging may be disposed of in inactive sections of the mine.

(12) Another commenter suggested that portable plants should be a separate subcategory.

Portable plants were studied by the contractor and there is no reason why they cannot recycle process waste water as do permanent processing facilities. Further subcategorization is therefore not necessary.

(13) Two commenters pointed out that there can be land availability problems in building treatment ponds and in disposing sludge.

If sufficient land is not available, one alternative treatment system that could be used is cyclones followed by mechanical thickeners. Furthermore there are many plants able to successfully recycle water even at a few hundred mg/l of suspended solids. To discharge waste water at higher concentrations could cause significant damage to aquatic life. The additional sludge produced by eliminating the discharge and totally recycling is minor compared to the raw waste load that is reduced before discharge.

(14) One contributor requested that runoff that enters barite tailings ponds not be classified as process waste water.

Process waste water includes any water coming into contact with waste product (tailings) and with process waste water. However, a discharge from such tailings ponds is allowed when resulting from specified storm conditions.

(15) Questions have been raised concerning the availability of standards or guidelines applicable to the disposal of solid wastes resulting from the operation of pollution control systems.

The principles set forth in "Land Disposal of Solid Wastes Guidelines" (40 CFR Part 241) may be used as guidance for acceptable land disposal techniques. Potentially hazardous wastes may require special considerations to ensure their proper disposal. Additionally, state and local guidelines and regulations should be considered wherever applicable.

(16) It was questioned whether the Agency should regulate waste waters from mine areas before the economic impact analysis is complete.

With one exception, the graphite subcategory (Subpart AL), in the 17 subcategories regulated, only process waste waters are regulated. In these 17 cases the plants are currently achieving or are in the act of installing treatment facilities that will achieve the limitations representing the best practicable control technology currently available for process waste water. The limitations depicting the Agency's best judgments concerning control of mine and plant areas drainage is likely to have some economic effect. Hence the Agency will await the completion of the economic impact analysis before proposing standards for mine drainage. The standards for both process waste water and mine drainage are currently being achieved by the lone graphite plant and an economic assessment is therefore not required. In the remaining 21 subcategories any meaningful regulations will have an economic impact.

Therefore the Agency is awaiting completion of the impact analysis before proposing substantial regulations.

The Agency is subject to an order of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia entered in "Natural Resources Defense Council v. Train" et al. (Cy. No. 1609-73) which requires the promulgation of regulations for this industry category no later than October 5, 1975. This order also requires that such regulations become effective immediately upon publication. In addition, it is necessary to promulgate regulations establishing limitations on the discharge of pollutants from point sources in this category so that the process of issuing permits to individual dischargers under section 402 of the Act is not delayed.

It has not been practicable to develop and publish regulations for this category in proposed form, to provide a 30 day comment period, and to make any necessary revisions in light of the comments received within the time constraints imposed by the court order referred to above. Accordingly, the Agency has determined pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553(b) that notice and comment on the interim final regulations would be impracticable and contrary to the public interest. Good cause is also found for these regulations to become effective immediately upon publication.

Interested persons are encouraged to submit written comments. Comments should be submitted in triplicate to the Environmental Protection Agency, 401 M Street, SW., Washington, D.C. 20460, Attention: Distribution Officer, WH-552. Comments on all aspects of the regulation are solicited. In the event comments are in the nature of criticisms as to the adequacy of data which are available, or which may be relied upon by the Agency, comments should identify and, if possible, provide any additional data which may be available and should indicate why such data are essential to the amendment or modification of the regulation. In the event comments address the approach taken by the Agency in establishing an effluent limitation or guideline EPA solicits suggestions as to what alternative approach should be taken and why and how this alternative better satisfies the detailed requirements of sections 301 and 304(b) of the Act.

A copy of all public comments will be available for inspection and copying at the EPA Public Information Reference Unit, Room 2404, Waterside Mall, 401 M Street, SW., Washington, D.C. 20460. A copy of preliminary draft contractor reports, the Development Document and economic study referred to above, and certain supplementary materials supporting the study of the industry concerned will also be maintained at this location for public review and copying. The EPA information regulation, 40 CFR Part 2, provides that a reasonable fee may be charged for copying.

All comments received on or before November 17, 1975, will be considered. Steps previously taken by the Environmental Protection Agency to facilitate public response within this time period are outlined in the advance notice concerning public review procedures published on August 6, 1973 (38 FR 21202). In the event that the final regulation differs substantially from the interim final regulation set forth herein the Agency will consider petitions for reconsideration of any permits issued in accordance with this interim final regulation.

The numerical limitations set forth in Subparts A through AL below represent the best efforts of the Agency to develop effluent limitations based on the data and information available within the time allowed by the aforementioned court order which requires promulgation of the regulation for the mineral mining and processing category by October 6, 1975. At the earliest possible date, the Agency expects to propose amendments to this regulation based on additional information which is expected to become available.

In consideration of the foregoing, 40 CFR Part 436 is hereby established as set forth below.

Dated: October 8, 1975.

- § 436.30 [Reserved]

Subpart D—Industrial Sand Subcategory

Subpart E—Gypsum Subcategory

- § 436.50 Applicability; description of the gypsum subcategory.

The provisions of this subpart are applicable to the processing of gypsum.

- § 436.51 Specialized definitions.

(a) Except as provided below, the general definitions, abbreviations and methods of analysis set forth in Part 401 of this chapter shall apply to this subpart.

- § 436.52 Effluent limitations guidelines representing the degree of effluent reduction attainable by the application of the best practicable control technology currently available.

In establishing the limitations set forth in this section, EPA took into account all information it was able to collect, develop and solicit with respect to factors (such as age and size of plant, raw materials, manufacturing processes, products produced, treatment technology available, energy requirements and costs) which can affect the industry subcategorization and effluent levels established. It is, however, possible that data which would affect these limitations have not been available and, as a result, these limitations should be adjusted for certain plants in this industry. An individual discharger or other interested person may submit evidence to the Regional Administrator (or to the State, if the State has the authority to issue NPDES permits) that factors relating to the equipment or facilities involved, the process applied, or other such factors related to such discharger are fundamentally different from the factors considered in the establishment of the guidelines. On the basis of such evidence or other available information, the Regional Administrator (or the State) will make a written finding that such factors are or are not fundamentally different for that facility compared to those specified in the Development Document. If such fundamentally different factors are found to exist, the Regional Administrator or the State shall establish for the discharger effluent limitations in the NPDES permit either more or less stringent than the limitations established herein, to the extent dictated by such fundamentally different factors. Such limitations must be approved by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency. The Administrator may approve or disapprove such limitations, specify other limitations, or initiate proceedings to revise these regulations. The following limitations establish the quantity or quality of pollutants or pollutant properties, controlled by this section, which may be discharged by a point source subject to the provisions of this subpart after application of the best practicable control technology currently available:

(a) For operations not employing wet air emissions control scrubbers there shall be no discharge of process generated waste water pollutants into navigable waters.

(b) Only that volume of water resulting from precipitation that exceeds the maximum safe surge capacity of a process waste water impoundment may be discharged from that impoundment. The height difference between the maximum safe surge capacity level and the normal operating level must be greater than the inches of rain representing the 10 year, 24 hour rainfall event as established by the National Climatic Center, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration for the locality in which such impoundment is located.

Subpart F—Asphaltic Mineral Subcategory

- § 436.60 Applicability; description of the asphaltic mineral subcategory.

The provisions of this subpart are applicable to the processing of bituminous limestone, oil-impregnated diatomite and oilsonite not primarily as an energy source.

- § 436.61 Specialized definitions.

For the purpose of this subpart:

(a) Except as provided below, the general definitions, abbreviations and methods of analysis set forth in Part 401 of this chapter shall apply to this subpart.

- § 436.62 Effluent limitations guidelines representing the degree of effluent reduction attainable by the application of the best practicable control technology currently available.

In establishing the limitations set forth in this section, EPA took into account all information it was able to collect, develop and solicit with respect to factors (such as age and size of plant, raw materials, manufacturing processes, products produced, treatment technology available, energy requirements and costs) which can affect the industry subcategorization and effluent levels established. It is, however, possible that data which would affect these limitations have not been available and, as a result, these limitations should be adjusted for certain plants in this industry. On the basis of such evidence or other available information, the Regional Administrator (or the State) will make a written finding that such factors are or are not fundamentally different for that facility compared to those specified in the Development Document. If such fundamentally different factors are found to exist, the Regional Administrator or the State shall establish for the discharger effluent limitations in the NPDES permit either more or less stringent than the limitations established herein, to the extent dictated by such fundamentally different factors. Such limitations must be approved by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency. The Administrator may approve or disapprove such limitations, specify other limitations, or initiate proceedings to revise these regulations. The following limitations establish the quantity or quality of pollutants or pollutant properties, controlled by this section, which may be discharged by a point source subject to the provisions of this subpart after application of the best practicable control technology currently available:

(a) Subject to the provisions of the following paragraphs of this section, there shall be no discharge of process generated waste water pollutants into navigable waters.

(b) Only that volume of water resulting from precipitation that exceeds the maximum safe surge capacity of a process waste water impoundment may be discharged from that impoundment. The height difference between the maximum safe surge capacity level and the normal operating level must be greater than the inches of rain representing the 10 year, 24 hour rainfall event as established by the National Climatic Center, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration for the locality in which such impoundment is located.

On the basis of such evidence or other available information, the Regional Administrator (or the State) will make a written finding that such factors are or are not fundamentally different for that facility compared to those specified in the Development Document. If such fundamentally different factors are found to exist, the Regional Administrator or the State shall establish for the discharger effluent limitations in the NPDES permit either more or less stringent than the limitations established herein, to the extent dictated by such fundamentally different factors. Such limitations must be approved by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency. The Administrator may approve or disapprove such limitations, specify other limitations, or initiate proceedings to revise these regulations. The following limitations establish the quantity of or quality of pollutants or pollutant properties, controlled by this section, which may be discharged by a point source subject to the provisions of this subpart after application of the best practicable control technology currently available:

(a) Subject to the provisions of the following paragraphs of this section, there shall be no discharge of process generated waste water pollutants into navigable waters.

(b) Only that volume of water resulting from precipitation that exceeds the maximum safe surge capacity of a process waste water impoundment may be discharged from that impoundment. The provisions of this subpart are applicable to the processing of salines from brine lakes.

§ 436.121 Specialized definitions.

For the purpose of this subpart:

(a) Except as provided below, the general definitions, abbreviations and methods of analysis set forth in Part 401 of this chapter shall apply to this subpart.

§ 436.122 Effluent limitations guidelines representing the degree of effluent reduction attainable by the application of the best practicable control technology currently available.

In establishing the limitations set forth in this section, EPA took into account all information it was able to collect, develop and solicit with respect to factors (such as age and size of plant, raw materials, manufacturing processes, products produced, treatment technology available, energy requirements and costs) which can affect the industry subcategorization and effluent levels established. It is, however, possible that data which would affect these limitations have not been available and, as a result, these limitations should be adjusted for certain plants in this industry. An individual discharger or other interested person may submit evidence to the Regional Administrator (or to the State, if the State has the authority to issue NPDES permits) that factors relating to the equipment or facilities involved, the process applied, or other such factors related to such discharger are fundamentally different from the factors considered in the establishment of the guidelines. On the basis of such evidence or other available information, the Regional Administrator (or the State) will make a written finding that such factors are or are not fundamentally different for that facility compared to those specified in the Development Document. If such fundamentally different factors are found to exist, the Regional Administrator or the State shall establish for the discharger effluent limitations in the NPDES permit either more or less stringent than the limitations established herein, to the extent dictated by such fundamentally different factors. Such limitations must be approved by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency. The Administrator may approve or disapprove such limitations, specify other limitations, or initiate proceedings to revise these regulations. The following limitations establish the quantity or quality of pollutants or pollutant properties, controlled by this section, which may be discharged by a point source subject to the provisions of this subpart after application of the best practicable control technology currently available:

(a) Subject to the provisions of the following paragraphs of this section, there shall be no discharge of process waste water pollutants into navigable waters.

(b) The limitations specified in paragraph (a) of this section shall be applied on a net basis if the discharge is in compliance with § 125.28 of this chapter "the source of the applicant's water supply is the same body of water into which the discharge is made * * *"

Subpart M—Borax Subcategory

It is, however, possible that data which would affect these limitations have not been available and, as a result, these limitations should be adjusted for certain plants in this industry. An individual discharger or other interested person may submit evidence to the Regional Administrator (or to the State, if the State has the authority to issue NPDES permits) that factors relating to the equipment or facilities involved, the process applied, or other such factors related to such discharger are fundamentally different from the factors considered in the establishment of the guidelines. On the basis of such evidence or other available information, the Regional Administrator (or the State) will make a written finding that such factors are or are not fundamentally different for that facility compared to those specified in the Development Document. If such fundamentally different factors are found to exist, the Regional Administrator or the State shall establish for the discharger effluent limitations in the NPDES permit either more or less stringent than the limitations established herein, to the extent dictated by such fundamentally different factors. Such limitations must be approved by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency. The Administrator may approve or disapprove such limitations, specify other limitations, or initiate proceedings to revise these regulations. L. 92-500, that the proposed regulation set forth below concerns the application of effluent limitations guidelines for existing sources to pretreatment standards for incompatible pollutants. The proposal will amend 40 CFR Part 436—Mineral mining and Processing Point Source Category, establishing for each subcategory therein the extent of application of effluent limitations guidelines to existing sources which discharge to publicly owned treatment works. The regulation is intended to be complementary to the general regulation for pretreatment standards set forth at 40 CFR Part 128. The general regulation was proposed July 19, 1973 (38 FR 19236), and published in final form on November 8, 1973 (38 FR 30982).

The proposed regulation is also intended to supplement an interim final regulation being simultaneously promulgated by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA or Agency) which provides effluent limitations guidelines for existing sources within the gypsum subcategory (Subpart E), the asphaltic minerals subcategory (Subpart F), the asbestos and wollastonite subcategory (Subpart G), barite subcategory (Subpart J), the fluor spar subcategory (Subpart K), the salines from brine lakes subcategory (Subpart L), the borax subcategory (Subpart M), the potash subcategory (Subpart N), the sodium sulfate subcategory (Subpart O), the Frasch sulfur subcategory (Subpart S), the bentonite subcategory (Subpart V), the magnesite subcategory (Subpart W), the diatomite subcategory (Subpart X), the jade subcategory (Subpart Y), the novaculite subcategory (Subpart Z), the tripoli subcategory (Subpart AF) and the graphite subcategory (Subpart AL) of the mineral mining and processing point source category. The information contained in the preamble to the interim final regulation is incorporated herein by reference. The latter regulation applies to the portion of a discharge which is directed to the navigable waters. The regulation proposed below applies to users of publicly owned treatment works which fall within the description of the point source category to which the effluent limitations guidelines (40 CFR Part 436) promulgated simultaneously apply. However, the proposed regulation applies to the introduction of incompatible pollutants which are directed into a publicly owned treatment

The general pretreatment standard divides pollutants discharged by users of publicly owned treatment works into two broad categories: "compatible" and "incompatible." Compatible pollutants are generally not subject to pretreatment standards. (See 40 CFR 128.110 (State or local law) and 40 CFR 128.131 (Prohibited wastes) for requirements which may be applicable to compatible pollutants.) Incompatible pollutants are subject to pretreatment standards as provided in 40 CFR 128.133, which provides as follows:

"In addition to the prohibitions set forth in § 128.131, the pretreatment standard for incompatible pollutants introduced into a publicly owned treatment works by a major contributing industry not subject to section 307(c) of the Act shall be, for sources within the corresponding industrial or commercial category, that established by the promulgated effluent limitations guidelines defining best practicable control technology currently available pursuant to sections 301(b) and 304(b) of the Act: Provided, That, if the publicly owned treatment works which receives the pollutants is committed, in its NPDES permit, to remove a specified percentage of any incompatible pollutant, the pretreatment standard applicable to users of such treatment works shall be correspondingly reduced for that pollutant; and provided further that when the effluent limitations guidelines for each industry are promulgated, a separate provision will be proposed concerning the application of such guidelines to pretreatment."

The regulation proposed below is intended to implement that portion of § 128.133, above, requiring that a separate provision be made stating the application to pretreatment standards of effluent limitations guidelines based upon best practicable control technology currently available.

Questions were raised during the public comment period on the proposed general pretreatment standard (40 CFR Part 128) about the propriety of applying a standard based upon best practicable control technology currently available to all plants subject to pretreatment standards. In general, EPA believes the analysis supporting the effluent limitations guidelines is adequate to make a determination regarding the application of those standards to users of publicly owned treatment works. However, to ensure that those standards are appropriate in all cases, EPA now seeks additional comments focusing upon the application of effluent limitations guidelines to users of publicly owned treatment works.

Preliminary Draft Development Documents were made available to the public in February, 1975, and the Development Documents to support the interim final regulation are now being published. Copies of the Development Documents will continue to be maintained for inspection and copying during the comment period at the EPA Public Information Reference Unit, Room 2404, Waterside Mall, 401 M Street, SW, Washington, D.C. 20460. Copies will also be available for inspection at EPA regional offices and at State water pollution control agency offices.

The Development Documents referred to above contain information available to the Agency concerning the major environmental effects of the regulation proposed below. The information includes: (1) The identification of pollutants present in waste waters resulting from the mining and processing of minerals, the characteristics of these pollutants, and the degree of pollutant reduction attainable through implementation of the proposed standard; and (2) the anticipated effects on other aspects of the environment (including air, subsurface waters, solid waste disposal and land use, and noise) of the treatment technologies available to meet the standard proposed.

The Development Documents referred to above also contain information available to the Agency regarding the estimated cost and energy consumption implications of those treatment technologies.

The options available to the Agency in establishing the level of pollutant reduction attainable through the best practicable control technology currently available, and the reasons for the particular level of reduction selected are discussed in the documents described above. In applying the effluent limitations guidelines to pretreatment standards for the introduction of incompatible pollutants into municipal systems by existing sources in the mineral mining and processing industry the Agency has, essentially, three options. The first is to declare that the guidelines do not apply. The second is to apply the guidelines unchanged. The third is to modify the guidelines to reflect: (1) Differences between direct dischargers and plants utilizing municipal systems which affect the practicability of the latter employing the technology available to achieve the effluent limitations guidelines; or (2) characteristics of the relevant pollutants which require higher levels of reduction (or permit less stringent levels) in order to insure that the pollutants do not interfere with the treatment works or pass through them untreated.

As described in the Development Documents the process waste waters from the mineral mining and processing category may contain pH and suspended solids. Accordingly, it is the opinion of the EPA that because pH is recognized as a compatible pollutant, the first option is appropriate and the guidelines should not apply to process waste waters from plants in the mineral mining and processing category discharging to publicly owned treatment works. However the operator of the publicly owned treatment works is cautioned that some of the constituents of the process waste waters from these subcategories may interfere with certain treatment works or may pass through such treatment works inadequately treated. Therefore, such process waste waters should receive special consideration by the operator of the publicly owned treatment works and may be the subject of subsequent further regulation by the Agency pursuant to section 307(b) of the Act.

Interested persons may participate in this rulemaking by submitting written comments in triplicate to the EPA Information Center, Environmental Protection Agency, Washington, D.C. 20460, Attention: Ms. Ruth Brown. Comments on all aspects of the proposed regulations are solicited. In the event comments are in the nature of criticisms as to the adequacy of data which is available, or which may be relied upon by the Agency, comments should identify and, if possible, provide any additional data which may be available and should indicate why such data is essential to the development of the regulations. In the event comments address the approach taken by the Agency in establishing pretreatment standards for existing sources, EPA solicits suggestions as to what alternative approach should be taken and why and how this alternative better satisfies the detailed requirements of sections 301, 304 and 307(b) of the Act.

A copy of all public comments will be available for inspection and copying at the EPA Public Information Reference Unit, Room 2404, Waterside Mall, 401 M Street, SW., Washington, D.C. 20460. The EPA information regulation, 40 CFR Part 2, provides that a reasonable fee may be charged for copying.

In consideration of the foregoing, it is hereby proposed that 40 CFR Part 436 be amended to add §§ 436.54, 436.64, 436.74, 436.104, 436.114, 436.124, 436.134, 436.144, 436.154, 436.194, 436.224, 436.234, 436.244, 436.254, 436.264, 436.324, and 436.384 as set forth below. All comments received on or before November 17, 1975, will be considered.

Dated: October 8, 1975.

Administrator.

WATER POLLUTION PREVENTION AND CONTROL

Mineral Mining; Addition to List of Categories of Sources

Section 306(b)(1)(A) of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, as amended October 18, 1972 (Pub. L. 92-500), directs the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency to publish, and from time to time revise a list of categories of sources which shall, at the minimum, include those listed in section 306(b)(1)(A). As soon as practicable, but in no case more than one year after the inclusion of a category of sources in such list, the Administrator is required to propose and publish regulations establishing Federal standards of performance for new sources within such categories. The original list of 27 source categories was published January 16, 1973 (38 FR 1624). Standards of performance have been promulgated for all 27 source categories.

The Administrator, after evaluating available information, has determined that mineral mining is an additional category of point sources which meets the above requirements. Evaluation of other point source categories is in progress, and the list will be supplemented from time to time as the Administrator deems appropriate. Accordingly, notice is given that the Administrator, pursuant to section 306(b)(1)(A) of the Act amends the list of categories of sources as follows:

LIST OF CATEGORIES OF SOURCES

32. Mineral Mining.

Proposed effluent limitations guidelines for existing sources and standards of performance and pretreatment standards for new sources applicable to the above point source categories appear elsewhere in this issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER.
